FOREWORD

The Constitution requires each house of the General Assembly to keep a Journal of its proceedings. The Journal is intended to assure a public account of legislative activity and constitutes the final official record of action by the General Assembly.

Under the provisions of Sections 6.161, 6.162 and 57.151 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the Legislative Research Commission is responsible for comparing, editing, correcting, and publishing the Journals as approved by each house of the General Assembly. This volume represents the fulfillment of this obligation for the Regular Session of the House of Representatives of 1988.

The text of a bill is spread in full when it receives a first reading. The vote on passage of a bill is indicated upon its receipt of a third reading, or upon concurrence by the originating house in amendments by the second house. Simple and concurrent resolutions are printed on first reading when applicable or when adopted, and joint resolutions are treated as bills. A table of actions on bills and resolutions is appended. Roll calls on motions to pass legislation have been compiled at Appendix A.

Mrs. Shan Stone Gray, Mrs. Jean Wallace, Mrs. Delores Dearborn and Mrs. Wilda Bond prepared the 1988 House Journal. The edited copy and index in this volume reflect the cooperative efforts of the Commission's staff.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Rule 1. Hours of Meeting. The House shall meet at times set by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 2. Quorum. A majority of the members elected to the House shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at the time fixed for a meeting of the House, five members may adjourn or recess from day to day or from time to time and fifteen members may order a call of the House and send for absent members.

Rule 3. Call of the House. Upon a call of the House, the Clerk shall call the roll. Absentees are then only noted, but no excuses shall be made until the full roll is called. The clerk shall then call the absentees again. Excuses will be heard at this time. The doors of the House Chamber shall then be closed and the absentees not excused by the House may be sent for and arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms and the House shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged from arrest. Members who voluntarily appear shall be immediately admitted to the floor of the House and names returned upon the Journal as present unless the House otherwise directs. Excuses for leaves of absence must receive a consent approval of 2/3 of the members elected.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Rule 4. Order of Business. The order of business shall be as follows:

1. Invocation.

2. Roll Call.

3. Reading and approval of the Journal.

4. Introduction and Reading of New Bills and Resolutions Introduced by Title and Sponsor.

5. Report of Reference of Bills to Committees.

6. Report of Committees.

7. First Reading of Bills.

8. Second Reading of Bills.

9. Orders of the Day.

10. Motions, Petitions and Communications.

11. Announcements.

12. Adjournment.

No more than thirty minutes shall be allotted to Motions, Petitions and Communications.

Rule 5. Unfinished Business. Unfinished business which was being considered upon adjournment shall have precedence in the class of business to which it properly belongs upon the next succeeding legislative day.

MOTIONS

Rule 6. Reading of Motions. When a motion has been made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, being in written form, it shall be read by the Clerk before debate, amendment or motion concerning it shall be in order.

Rule 7. Withdrawal of Motions. Every oral motion after it has been stated by the Speaker, and every written motion, bill, resolution or other paper, after it has been read by the Clerk, shall be the property and in the possession of the House and shall not be withdrawn without consent of the House. Every written motion, report or measure may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the House.

Rule 8. Order of Questions. All questions, whether in Committee of the Whole or in the House, when not privileged questions, shall be propounded in the order in which they were moved, except that in filing blanks the smallest sum and the most remote date shall be put first.

Rule 9. Precedence of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be in order except:

1. To call the House when there is no quorum present.

2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.

3. To adjourn.

4. To take recess.

5. To lay on the table.

6. For the previous question.

7. To limit or extend limits of debate.

8. To postpone to a fixed time.

9. To lay on the Clerk's Desk.

10. To refer or commit.

11. To amend.

12. To postpone indefinitely.

The above several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and the first seven of them shall not be debatable.

A second motion to adjourn, to take a recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to limit or extend limits of debate, to postpone to a time certain, to lay on the Clerk's desk, to refer or commit or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order on the same day, upon the same question, and at the same status unless other business intervenes; provided, however, that amendments may be made to the time to which it is proposed to adjourn, to take a recess or to postpone to a fixed time.

Rule 10. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn, to take a recess, or a motion to adjourn to a time certain, shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, while a vote is being taken or when the Committee on Committees is reporting; subject, however, to the limitations set out in Rule 9. A motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a time certain shall be taken by roll call vote.

Rule 11. Motion to Table. The adoption of the motion to table, under these rules, defeats the subject matter under consideration. The reconsideration of the motion to table shall require approval of a majority of the members elected.

Rule 12. Previous Question. When the previous question has been ordered, a vote shall be taken immediately upon the pending measure and such pending amendments as are in order. The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to all debate; to prevent the offering of additional amendments and to bring the House to an immediate vote upon the measure and amendments aforesaid. The previous question may be ordered by a majority of the members elected. On the call of the roll, no member shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain his vote and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question. After the previous question has been ordered, and before the vote upon the main question, the opponents of the measure shall have ten minutes, and proponents of the measure shall have ten minutes.

Rule 13. Motion to Set the Limits on Debate. A motion to set a time limit for debate on a measure, in excess of that permitted under Rule 12, shall be in order unless the previous question shall have been ordered on the measure. The time limit set for debate under this rule shall be allotted by the Speaker evenly between the opponents of the measure and the proponents of the measure. Adoption of a motion under this rule does not prevent the offering of additional amendments.

Rule 14. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider a vote shall not be in order unless made by a member who voted upon the prevailing side of the question; nor shall such motion be in order unless made within two legislative days in which the House is in session next after the date the vote was taken; however, the motion to reconsider when coupled with the additional motion to lay that motion upon the table may be made by any member.

Rule 15. Motion to Lay on Clerk's Desk. The effect of the adoption of a motion to lay on the Clerk's desk under these rules is to place in charge of the Clerk the pending question and everything adhering to it. A motion laid on the Clerk's desk may be taken from the desk and proceeded with at any time in the same order as when laid on the Clerk's desk.

Rule 16. Motion to Strike Out Enacting Clause. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting words of a bill or resolution shall have precedence over a motion to amend; and, if adopted, shall have the same effect as though the bill or resolution were regularly voted upon and rejected.

Rule 17. Motion to Separate Part of a Measure. A motion to commit, recommit, or postpone a part of a measure so as to separate that part of the measure from the remainder shall not be in order.

Rule 18. Postponement of Measure. When a measure shall have been postponed indefinitely it shall not be in order again during the session.

Rule 19. Reading of Pending Papers. Any pending bill, resolution, motion or report shall be read by the Clerk upon the demand of any member, but it shall not again be read on the same day unless so ordered by the House.

Rule 20. Nominations. In all elections a previous nomination shall be made.

MEMBERS

Rule 21. Attendance of Members. No member shall absent himself from a session of the House without leave from the House. Written request for leave of absence may be obtained from the Clerk of the House and shall be submitted to the Speaker. The request shall state thereon the member's excuse for obtaining the leave. No excuse for leave of absence shall be heard from the floor.

Rule 22. Decorum of Members. No member shall designate another member by name.

Rule 23. Call to Order. If any member, in speech or otherwise, transgress the rules of order or decorum, he shall immediately be called to order by the chair and shall take his seat. The Clerk shall reduce the objectionable words to writing and read them to the House. After hearing a short explanation from the member called to order, or upon the withdrawal of the objectionable language, the Speaker may permit the member to proceed, or may compel silence upon him until the matter is disposed of. The ruling of the chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House. A member offending the House shall be liable to censure.

Rule 24. Debate. No member may speak more than once to the same subject until all members desiring to be heard have spoken, but nothing in this rule shall do away with the previous question if then in effect, nor permit debate on an undebatable motion.

No member shall speak more than thirty minutes in the aggregate on any question or measure, at the end of which period, or any portion thereof, the floor shall be returned to the Speaker.

Rule 25. Members Shall Vote at Seats. A member shall vote only when at his seat or visibly approaching it.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES

Rule 26. Duties of Speaker. The Speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour fixed for the meeting of the House and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read, unless the reading of the same is dispensed with by the House.

The Speaker shall preserve decorum and order and, in the event of any disorder in the gallery or in the House Chamber, may cause the same to be cleared of any persons creating disturbances or disorders.

All writs, warrants, subpoenas or other processes shall be signed by the officer who may be presiding over the House when the paper is issued; and his signature shall be attested by the Clerk, when ordered by a majority of the members.

Rule 27. Appeal from Decision of Chair. The Speaker while presiding may speak to points of order in preference to members. He shall decide points of order and manner of procedure. If two or more members arise from their respective seats and address the chair, the Speaker shall determine who was first and recognize him.

Any decision made by the Speaker shall be subject to appeal to the House. Every such appeal shall be in writing and signed by at least two members. During the pendency of an appeal to the House from a decision of the chair, the Speaker shall vacate the chair and call the Speaker Pro Tempore to preside. When the Speaker Pro Tempore is presiding on an appeal to the House from a decision of the Chair, no motion or business shall be in order except the motion on appeal from the decision of the Chair, and that motion shall not be debatable.

Rule 28. Speaker Pro Tempore. The House shall elect a Speaker Pro Tempore. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall perform the duties of the Speaker when the Speaker is absent from the House or when empowered by the Speaker to perform the duties of the Chair.

Rule 29. Duties of Legislative Research Commission. The Legislative Research Commission shall have charge of all clerical, technical and procedural matters which relate to legislation including but not limited to: notification of committees of their appointment and business referred to them; keeping a calendar showing such bills as are entitled to their second reading each day, distinguishing between House and Senate bills; superintend the engrossing and enrolling of bills; and such other matters as are assigned by the Committee on Committees.

The Commission staff shall note upon the Journal all questions of order, together with the disposition of same, and the dates upon which all bills and resolutions were sent to committee and returned to the House. The House may correct errors in the Journal the day the Journal containing errors is presented to the House. No record which is in the hands of the Commission staff and is required by law to be entered upon the Journal of the House shall be copied by any person until same shall have been entered upon the Journal and said Journal shall have been approved.

Half an hour before the time fixed for the meeting of the House each day, the Commission staff shall be present at the Clerk's desk with the Journal of the preceding session for inspection of any member of the House.

The Journal for each day, as soon as it has been approved by the House, shall be delivered by the Commission staff to the public printer. The Commission staff shall proofread and index the Journal upon return from the printer and make necessary typographical corrections.

Rule 31. Custody of Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have custody of all records, minutes, reports, and documents pertaining to legislation, and shall not allow them to be taken from its possession without the leave of the House, unless to be delivered to the chairman of a committee to which they have been referred. The Legislative Research Commission shall cause to be enclosed on bills and papers brief notes of proceedings had thereon by the House and preserve the same in convenient files for reference.

Rule 33. Printing of House Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have supervision and charge of all printing done for the House as certified by the Clerk and the public printer shall print only such documents and other matter as the Legislative Research Commission authorizes. The clerk shall report to the Speaker every failure to execute printing work correctly and promptly.

Rule 34. Duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Doorkeeper to exclude or remove all persons not entitled to the floor of the House. One hour before convening of the House each day the Sergeant-at-Arms shall announce in a loud, distinct voice: "All persons not entitled to the floor of the House under the rules thereof will now vacate the House Chamber." He shall then compel all persons who are not entitled to remain therein to leave the House Chambers and shall prohibit their entry until one hour after the House has adjourned.

Rule 35. Conduct of Employes. All the constitutional employes of the House, shall, one hour before the meeting of the House each day, report to the Clerk, who shall report to the Committee on Committees whether or not all of said employes are on duty. All other professional, clerical and other services required by the House or its committees shall be furnished by the Legislative Research Commission, upon the request of the Committee on Committees. Employes performing such services shall be under the supervision of the Committee on Committees.

The Rules Committee shall arrange the Orders of the Day so that all measures shall appear thereon for the consideration of the House, but the Rules Committee may not place in the Orders of the Day any bill or other measure in the possession of a standing or special committee of the House. The Rules Committee, prior to each day's session, shall post a notice in a regular place in the House Chamber listing the bills to be considered that day in the Orders of the Day. Should the House not complete any day's Orders of the Day, the bills and resolutions remaining unconsidered shall go to the top of the Orders of the Day on the next day that Orders of the Day are considered.

The Speaker of the House shall act as Chairman of the Rules Committee. The Majority Floor Leader of the House shall act for the Rules Committee in calling from the Orders of the Day any bills or resolutions in the order he deems proper and shall be recognized by the Speaker for said purpose during all times that the Rules Committee is in charge of posting the Orders of the Day. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall act as chairman in the absence of the Speaker.

Rule 42. Liaison Subcommittees: The Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall be divided into the following six standing subcommittees of seven members each.

1. Subcommittee on Development and Energy, Natural Resources, and Environmental Protection;

2. Subcommittee on Education;

3. Subcommittee on General Government, Finance, and Public Protection;

4. Subcommittee on Human Resources;

5. Subcommittee on Justice and Judiciary;

6. Subcommittee on Transportation.

Of the seven members of each such subcommittee four shall be members of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue designated by the chairman of such committee, and three shall be appointed by the Committee on Committees from the membership of one or more of the remaining standing committees of the House. The chairman of each standing subcommittee shall be appointed by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue from the membership of such committee on the particular standing subcommittee.

The remaining three members of each standing subcommittee shall be deemed a liaison subcommittee of the standing committee or committees from which they were appointed. A vice chairman of the standing committee from which such members were appointed shall act as chairman of the liaison subcommittee. The selection of such vice chairman shall be made by the Committee on Committees. If such three members have been appointed from more than one standing committee the Committee on Committees shall determine which standing committee vice chairman shall act as chairman of the liaison subcommittee.

The liaison subcommittee members of the standing subcommittee shall have full voting authority in all matters before the standing subcommittee.

Rule 42A. Budget Review. The standing budget review subcommittees shall notify the membership of the standing substantive committees whose jurisdictional area will be affected by their action of any meetings or hearings and the members of the standing committees may participate as non-voting members.

When the budget review subcommittees have concluded their hearings and formulated their recommendations they shall communicate their recommendations to the affected standing committee or committees who may thereafter file a written response to the recommendations, which response shall be transmitted to the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue with the subcommittee recommendations.

When the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue has reported the final budget bill or bills to the floor, it shall notify the affected standing committees of the content of the budget relating to their areas of jurisdiction.

Any budget bill reported out of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall be accompanied by a detailed explanation of modifications of the original budget. The Rules Committee shall not post for passage any budget bill less than five days after the bill has been finally reported out of committee.

Rule 43. Enrollment Committee. The Committee on Committees shall appoint an Enrollment Committee of not more than seven members. The Enrollment Committee shall be responsible for the engrossment and enrollment of bills and resolutions under the Rules of this House.

Rule 44. Committee on Conference. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House refuses to concur in said amendment, or when a Senate bill has been amended in the House and the Senate refuses to concur in said amendment and when neither will recede from such action, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a Committee on Conference to meet a like committee from the Senate. The Committee on Conference shall confer with the Senate Committee and report back to the House within a reasonable time, in the same manner as reports are made for House bills. The conference report shall make no recommendation other than agreement upon or rejection of the matter or matters in controversy, and shall be voted upon, and, if adopted the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Should a committee on conference report its inability to submit a report, or if either house refuses to adopt its report, each house may appoint a committee on free conference, consisting of three or more members. A committee on free conference shall propose no new appropriation or any appropriation above the level originally designed by either chamber. The free conference report shall be voted on, and if adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Except for report of disagreement, the question of consideration of the report of a conference committee or a free conference committee shall not be in order on the same legislative day as distribution of copies of the report together with a staff analysis of the report to the members of the House.

Rule 45. Meetings of Committees. No committee except the Committee on Committees, the Committee on Enrollment and a Committee on Conference between the House and the Senate shall sit while the House is in session, unless by consent of the House. The Committee on Committees and Committee on Enrollment may report at any time except during roll call or while a vote is being taken.

The Committee on Committees, in conference with committee chairmen, shall schedule a definite time and place for the regular weekly meetings of each committee, such schedule to be posted in the House Chamber and published in the Legislative Record. A committee shall meet at the regular weekly scheduled time and place so long as business is pending before the committee. Nothing herein shall prevent the Chairman or a majority of any committee from calling a special meeting in addition to those regularly scheduled.

The Chairman shall keep a record of the attendance of members at meetings, which record shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Director of the Legislative Research Commission, under the direction of the Committee on Committees, shall assign a secretary to each committee and provide any professional, clerical or other employes required by any committee.

The Committee on Committees shall meet on call of the Speaker or on call of a majority of the members of the Committee on Committees.

Rule 46. Committee Reports. No bill or resolution shall be considered by the House except on report of committee. Upon the call of standing committees, the Clerk or the Chairman or ranking member of the committee may report the bill in the following manner:

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee amendment attached thereto," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee substitute attached thereto," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should not pass."

Rule 47. Majority and Minority Reports. It shall require a majority of the committee membership to report a bill. The chairman shall keep a record of the vote of each member on the disposition of each bill, and shall report the total vote on each side to the House. The chairman may sign reports on behalf of a majority of the committee members. His signature shall attest to the action of a majority, but shall not be construed as his personal approval or disapproval of the bill.

A committee report may be accompanied by a minority report, signed by those members who have dissented from the committee's report, and it shall be in order to move the adoption of the minority report as a substitute for the committee's report when the committee offers its report. It shall require a majority of the members elected to adopt the minority report. The Committee's report shall always be read before the minority report is read.

Rule 48. Failure to Report. Whenever a committee fails or refuses to report within a reasonable time a bill submitted to it, any member may by filing with the Clerk a written request signed by twenty-five or more members, call the same up for consideration on the next succeeding legislative day after the filing of said request. If a majority of the members elected to the House concur therein, the bill shall be considered as though it had been regularly reported.

Rule 49. Procedure in Committee. The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in committee insofar as the same are applicable. The committee chairman, or the committee by majority vote in a regularly called meeting, shall post at least three calendar days prior to their consideration the bills and resolutions to be considered by the committee at its next meeting provided that no bill or resolution shall be posted by the chairman or the committee by a majority vote unless and until a request for posting form has been filed with the committee chairman or secretary and approved as containing satisfactory information by the committee chairman. No measure shall be considered except those posted. A list of the measures to be considered shall be filed with the Clerk at least three calendar days prior to the meeting. In the case of prefiled bills receiving a favorable expression from the interim joint committee to which they were assigned, posting by the chairman or the committee shall occur during the first week of the session, and such bills shall be considered by the appropriate committee during the first three weeks of the session. No posting request shall be required for such prefiled bills. This rule does not apply to bills with a fiscal impact of more than $20,000.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 50. Form of Bills. All bills introduced shall be typewritten on the Automated Legal Text Entry and Revision System of the Legislative Research Commission, and none otherwise prepared shall be accepted for introduction. Bills shall be offered as one original and three distinctly legible copies. Identical bills for introduction in the other chamber may be exact reproductions of original bill provided one copy is authenticated by the Director of the Legislative Research Commission as the original to be introduced in the other chamber. The original shall be the official bill, and shall be retained by the Legislative Research Commission staff for the use of the House until engrossed and sent to the Senate. One copy shall be used by committees; one copy shall be for the use of the press and shall be given to a person designated by the press club; and one copy shall be retained by the Legislative Research Commission for its work file. Each copy shall be backed with a protective cover, as provided for this purpose by the Legislative Research Commission. The title of the bill, or a portion thereof, and the signature of the member introducing the bill shall be placed on each cover.

In all bills, as introduced and as printed, any new matter contained therein shall be underscored; and when an amendment proposes the omission or elimination of matter in an existing law, such omission or elimination shall be indicated on the typewritten bill and on the printed bill by placing the material proposed to be eliminated in brackets, and by striking through the words to be omitted or eliminated with a single line so as not to render such words illegible. In any bill seeking to repeal existing sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes said sections sought to be repealed shall be identified by way of inclusion of the headnotes applied to each such section as it appears in the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The Legislative Research Commission staff shall see that all bills introduced conform with the Automated Legal Text Entry and Revision System method of preparation. The Enrolling Clerk in enrolling a bill which contains deleted material appearing in brackets shall strike over such deleted matter.

Rule 51. Introduction of Bills. Bills and resolutions may be introduced by filing them with the Bill Introduction Clerk in her office at any time the same is open. Bills and resolutions introduced by filing them with the Bill Introduction Clerk after the House has concluded Item 4, in Rule 4, Order of Business, shall be considered as having been introduced the next succeeding legislative day. The Bill Introduction Clerk shall number bills in the order received and transmit a copy immediately after introduction on the House floor to the Committee on Committees for reference to committee. No bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the thirty-eighth legislative day of the session. The last two legislative days preceding the veto recess shall be reserved by the House exclusively for the business of concurring in amended House bills.

Rule 52. Fiscal Note Required. A sponsor of a measure may at any time prior to the filing of a request for posting form require a fiscal analysis to be made by the Legislative Research Commission upon the same and a fiscal note attached thereto.

The chairman of the committee to which the measure has been referred may, at any time after a request for posting form is filed with the committee by the sponsor, determine that a fiscal analysis is required on any measure not carrying a fiscal note. The chairman upon such determination shall cause a fiscal analysis to be made by the Legislative Research Commission and a fiscal note attached prior to posting the measure for consideration.

After posting the measure a majority of the committee may determine that a fiscal analysis is required on any measure not already carrying a fiscal note and shall direct the same to be accomplished and fiscal note attached with all dispatch. A committee may consider any measure on the date for which it is posted even if it is determined by the committee on that date that a fiscal analysis is required, however, no final action shall be taken by the committee upon said measure until a fiscal note is presented to the committee and attached to the measure.

Any member proposing to amend from the floor a bill or resolution which carries a fiscal note or if the proposed amendment itself carries a fiscal implication, the member proposing the amendment shall cause a fiscal analysis of the amendment to be made and a fiscal note attached to the proposed amendment at the time of introduction. In the event an amendment is introduced without a fiscal note, any member may raise the question of fiscal implication to the amendment by a motion and by majority vote require a fiscal analysis to be made and a fiscal note attached to the amendment. If a fiscal analysis and note is required by the membership, action on the bill or resolution to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day. A fiscal note required by the membership shall be filed and attached to the amendment prior to the convening of the session of the next legislative day. In the event it is impossible to complete the analysis and prepare a fiscal note before the convening of the session on the next legislative day, the Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall so advise the membership by letter and state a time in which the same can be completed and filed with the House.

If the Director of the Legislative Research Commission certifies that the fiscal note cannot be completed within the prescribed time, the amendment shall not be in order unless the members, by majority vote, determine either: (1) act on the amendment and the bill or resolution without the benefit of the fiscal note, or to (2) pass over the bill or resolution in the Orders of the Day and allow it to be retained in the Orders of the Day until the fiscal note is filed.

Rule 52A. Local Mandate Impact Statement. Any bill which relates to any aspect of local government or any service provided thereby shall be analyzed by the LRC for its fiscal impact upon local governments and if determined to contain a local mandate shall have a local mandate impact statement attached prior to final consideration.

No measure which contains a local mandate shall be placed in the Orders of the Day until the local mandate impact statement is attached unless the requirement of the statement has been waived by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all members of the House/Senate.

Any member proposing to amend from the floor a bill which contains a local mandate or if the proposed amendment itself contains a local mandate, shall cause a fiscal analysis of the amendment to be made and a local mandate impact statement attached to the proposed amendment. Until such time as the local mandate impact statement is prepared and attached to the amendment, action on the bill to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day.

Rule 53. Proposed Administrative Regulations. (1) Before committee consideration of any bill originating in the House, which contains the authority for any agency, board or political subdivision of state government to promulgate regulations, the bill shall have attached a copy of a statement of legislative intent for the bill, including a summary of guidelines to be followed in preparing regulations pursuant to the bill.

Every committee shall have the exclusive right to determine whether the summary submitted meets the requirements of this rule. The committee may waive the provisions of this rule by majority vote, and shall acknowledge on its committee report the receipt of and consideration of the matters submitted with the bill pursuant to this rule.

The purpose of the requirements of this rule is to inform the House of the general scope of the regulations authorized by the bill and to provide a permanent record of legislative intent; and pursuant thereto, when any bill subject to the provisions of this rule becomes law the Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall cause to be filed with the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee of the Legislative Research Commission the summary of the regulations submitted with the bill to be used by the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee when reviewing regulations promulgated pursuant to the bill. The Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee shall use the material submitted with the bill to determine legislative intent.

Nothing contained in this rule shall preclude the promulgation of regulations differing from those filed or summarized and submitted with the bill.

(2) This amendment of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall apply only to bills introduced after February 5, 1980.

Rule 54. Rejected Administrative Regulations. When an administrative regulation has been referred by the Clerk to a standing committee of the House, the committee shall review the regulation and take such action as it deems appropriate. If the committee recommends rejection it must set forth in its report the reasons for its rejection which shall be for either of the following reasons, or both: (1) The administrative regulation does not conform to statutory authority. (2) It does not carry out legislative intent.

Unless the House and Senate committees both recommend rejection of the regulation in their committee reports and the committee reports are thereafter adopted by at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, and a majority of the members voting, the regulation shall become effective.

When a House committee report recommending rejection has been adopted by the House as set forth above, the House clerk shall so notify the clerk of the Senate.

If both the Senate and the House have approved committee reports recommending rejection of a regulation, a report to that effect shall be signed by both clerks and sent to the promulgating agency and the regulations compiler. A copy of this report shall be on file in the office of the Clerk of the Senate and in the office of the Clerk of the House.

Proposed regulations that have been properly laid before the general assembly shall become effective upon sine die adjournment of the general assembly unless the general assembly in regular session shall disapprove the proposed regulation.

Rule 55. Reference of Bills. The Committee on Committees shall refer all bills to the proper standing committee not later than the second day in which the House is in session after the date of introduction. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and has been returned to the House for concurrence in the amendment, it may be referred to a committee in the same manner as original bills are referred. Bills originating in and passed by the Senate when reported to the House shall be referred to the Committee on Committees and shall take the same course as other bills.

Rule 56. Printing of Bills. Upon receipt of a bill, the Legislative Research Commission shall examine the form of the bill to ensure that it is free from errors of form or typography and has been assigned the proper KRS section or chapter numbers. If a formal change is necessary the Commission shall request the sponsor of the bill to sign a form approving the specified changes. If a bill is found to be correct, or corrections have been approved, the Commission shall authorize its printing.

The Legislative Research Commission shall have printed at least two hundred copies of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law introduced in the House and of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law acted on by the Senate and reported to the House. Bills shall be printed in the order in which they are introduced and shall be distributed to members immediately upon receipt from the printer.

Rule 57. Readings of Bills. If a bill be reported with the expression of opinion that it should not pass a vote may then be taken on whether it shall be read at length and be placed on the Calendar, if a majority of the members elected to the House shall concur therein. When reported favorably by the committee, the bill shall then be given its first reading at length and shall be placed by the Commission staff upon the Calendar to be kept by the staff, and shall then be entitled to its second reading the next succeeding legislative day.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different legislative days; but the second and third readings thereof at length may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the House and the bill read by its title.

Rule 58. Calendar; Consent Calendar. (1) In order to reduce the time required for final passage of bills posted in the Orders of the Day, a consent procedure for the consideration of uncontested bills shall be established and designated as follows:

(a) The Commission staff shall keep a Regular Calendar and a Consent Calendar for each legislative day showing the bills receiving their second reading.

(b) The Commission staff shall also keep a Regular Orders and a Consent Orders showing bills posted for final passage by the Rules Committee.

(2) Bills reported by a Standing Committee with a regular "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation shall be shown in the Regular Calendar on the day on which they are entitled to a second reading.

(3) A Standing Committee may at the time of favorably reporting any House or Senate Bill, recommend that it be placed in the Consent Calendar provided:

(a) The primary sponsor has so requested when it is a House Bill, and

(b) The bill receives a "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation from such committee by a unanimous vote of the members present.

Any House or Senate Bill thus reported shall be first placed in the Consent Calendar on the day on which it is entitled to a second reading and shall continue to be shown in said Calendar until taken therefrom by the Rules Committee and posted in the Consent Orders. Bills receiving a second reading should be so designated to distinguish them from bills which have already received their second reading.

(4) A certificate shall be attached to each bill recommended for the Consent Calendar showing the request of the sponsor of any House Bill, and the unanimous recommendation of the members present signed by the Chairman.

(5) After a sufficient number of bills have accumulated in the Consent Calendar, the Rules Committee may post any or all of said bills to the Consent Orders for a day certain. On that day certain the Consent Orders shall be called before the Regular Orders.

(6) Upon the call of the Consent Orders each bill in said Orders shall be given a third reading by title only. The Speaker shall then allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and any explanation necessary by the sponsor or committee chairman. Consent Order bills may not be amended from the floor.

(7) The Commission staff shall attach a roll call to each bill in the Consent Calendar and any member may at any time prior to passage of the Consent Orders record with the Commission staff his "nay" or "pass" vote on any bill within the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders.

(8) Upon the call for the question on the Consent Orders, the Speaker shall instruct the Commission staff to announce the "nay" and "pass" votes previously filed on each bill in the Consent Orders. All other members present in the chamber on the day and at the time the Consent Orders are called shall be considered as having voted "aye" and the roll call attached to each bill shall so reflect as the final vote.

(9) Upon the written petition of any five members objecting to the placement or retention of any bill in the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders, such bill shall cease to be so considered and shall be placed in the Regular Calendar or Regular Orders as provided in these rules.

Rule 59. Orders of the Day. When a bill has had its second reading it shall be placed in the Orders of the Day, or be recommitted, and when next reached in the House it shall be ready for recommitment, or to be read a third time and placed upon its passage, and the Speaker shall so announce to the House.

A bill may be recommitted or amended in accordance with these rules at any time before its passage. Bills shall be placed in the Orders of the Day in the order in which they have been given their second reading, and shall be taken therefrom in accordance with Rule 41. When a House bill is in the Orders of the Day, it shall be in order on motion of the author to substitute for it an identical Senate bill which is in the Calendar of the House.

No bill shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed to members.

Rule 60. Final Passage. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House has concurred in the amendment, the bill as amended shall immediately be placed upon its passage.

Rule 61. Amendments to Bills. All amendments offered shall be on sheets with a proper heading printed in black, furnished by the Commission staff, and shall bear the signature of the members offering the same. All amendments shall give the proper page and line of the printed bill. Three copies of each amendment shall be introduced. No amendment shall be in order that is not germane to the matter under consideration and unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed by the Clerk to members at least one legislative day prior to consideration of the bill or resolution and unless it complies with Rule 52 relative to fiscal analysis; and the Speaker, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the proposed amendment, subject to appeal to the House.

Any amendment to a House bill under consideration containing the substantial text of the language of another bill shall require for its consideration the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the House. The commission staff shall cause such amendments to be identified when the bill proposed to be amended thereby is posted on the Orders of the Day. When a question is raised as to the identity of the proposed amendment containing the substantial text of another bill the Speaker shall rule thereon, subject to appeal to the House.

Rule 62. Engrossment of Bills. Every House bill and joint resolution, together with the amendments thereto, which has been passed by the House and not subject to further amendment or motion, shall be engrossed by the Commission staff and so certified by the Clerk, endorsing thereon the day of passage or adoption. The bill shall be delivered to the Senate in open session by the Clerk or someone designated by him, and Senate concurrence asked therein. A like procedure shall be observed toward Senate bills.

When engrossing a bill, the Commission staff may incorporate amendments by means of typing only. When an amendment strikes out any part of the original it shall be indicated in the engrossed copy by one parallel line over the part to be stricken out, in such a way as not to render illegible the original words.

Rule 63. Enrollment of Bills. All House bills and resolutions which have passed both the Senate and the House shall be delivered by the Commission staff to the Enrolling Clerk, taking a receipt therefor, in the order in which passed. The Commission staff shall keep the number and title of all bills and joint and concurrent resolutions carrying the force and effect of law, passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate in a suitable record book attesting the fact and date of passage.

In the event a bill which originates in the House is amended by the Senate and the House concurs in the amendments proposed and adopted by the Senate, the Commission staff shall engross said amendments in the original copy of the House bill, attested by the Clerk, before delivering the bill to the Enrolling Clerk of the House. The Enrolling Clerk shall then cause the original bill as attested by the Chief Clerk and the safety copy of the bill as delivered from the Senate to conform to each other by typing in indelible typewriter ink or by writing in red ink the amendments engrossed in the original bill in the safety copy. In cases of extreme emergency and during the last three days prior to sine die adjournment, where no correct printed copy is available. the Enrolling Clerk may enroll such bill or resolution by typing the same on safety paper or by enrolling the same in long-hand.

The original bill or resolution and a printed copy upon safety paper in the exact form as finally passed shall be certified to by the Enrolling Clerk and delivered to the Committee on Enrollment. The Committee on Enrollment and the Enrolling Clerk shall jointly compare the original bill with the enrolled copy, and if the enrollment is ascertained to be correctly done, the Committee shall report the same to the House. If any bill or resolution is found not correctly enrolled, it shall be returned to the Enrolling Clerk to be properly enrolled and delivered to the Committee on Enrollment as is first provided herein.

Rule 64. Signing of Bills. The Enrolling Clerk of the House shall deliver the original and enrolled copies of House bills and resolutions signed by the Speaker to the Chairman of the Enrollment Committee of the Senate for presentation to the President of the Senate for his signature. When signed by the President of the Senate, the enrolled bill or resolution and the original copy thereof shall be returned by the Enrolling Clerk to the Clerk of the House who shall present the enrolled bill or resolution to the Governor for his approval and take his receipt for same.

Rule 65. Resolutions. Resolutions having the force and effect of law shall be treated and considered as bills in all respects under these rules. However, simple resolutions expressing the will of the House and all resolutions recommending a study by an interim committee may be considered for adoption after receiving a recommendation from a standing committee and being posted for passage by the Rules Committee. All resolutions recommending a study by an interim committee shall include an approximate cost of the proposed study.

Rule 66. Legislative Citations. For the purpose of extending the commendations, condolences or congratulations of the General Assembly to a particular person, or to recognize a particular event or occasion, there may be issued a "Legislative Citation." Citations may not be used for procedural matters, matters of a controversial or partisan political nature, nor in place of resolutions memorializing the U.S. Congress, but only when appropriate to express the feeling of the House or of the General Assembly with reference to a person or event.

Each such citation shall be prepared in single copy on an artistically designed form, suitable for framing, shall bear the signature of the sponsor and the name of the person or event cited, and upon adoption shall be spread at length upon the Journal. Citations shall be considered in the order of business "Motions, Petitions and Communications," and without objection shall be adopted en bloc after reading individually by title. Citations shall be offered for consideration through presentation to the Clerk.

The average daily attendance of any exceptional child not assigned to a specific grade shall be added to the average daily attendance of grades four (4) through twelve (12) before classroom units are allotted under this paragraph. Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, the allotments of classroom units in this subsection shall be made on the average daily attendance for the end of the previous school year in public school grades kindergarten through twelve (12) except as provided in subsections (9) and (10) of this section.

(3) (a) Effective until July 1, 1986, the superintendent of public instruction shall enforce maximum class sizes for every academic course requirement of the state board of education in kindergarten and grades one (1) through six (6) except in vocal and instrumental music, art, physical education and special education classes. The maximum number of pupils enrolled in a class shall be calculated by adding four (4) to the average daily attendance figure upon which funding of the unit is appropriated in the biennial budget. The superintendent of public instruction, upon approval of the state board of education, shall adopt regulations for enforcing this provision. These regulations shall include procedures whereby a superintendent may request an exemption from the state board of education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. The superintendent of public instruction, upon approval of the state board of education, shall adopt regulations for enforcing this provision. These regulations shall include procedures whereby a superintendent may request an exemption from the state board of education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. A district shall not receive in any one (1) year exemptions for more classes than enroll twenty percent (20%) of the pupils in kindergarten and grades one (1) through eight (8).

(5) If a local school district through its admission and release committee determines that an appropriate program in the least restrictive environment for a particular handicapped child includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency within the state or a public or private agency in another state, then the school district shall count this as average daily attendance in a public school the time that such child is in attendance at such school or agency, contingent upon approval by the state superintendent of public instruction and pursuant to KRS 158.130.

(6) Pupils attending a center for child learning and study established under an agreement pursuant to KRS 65.210 to 65.300 shall, for the purpose of calculating average daily attendance, be considered as in attendance in the school district in which the child legally resides and which is party to the agreement. For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, teachers employed in such a center shall be considered as employes of each school district which is a party to the agreement.

(7) Allotments of classroom units except those allotted in accordance with subsection (8) of this section, shall be increased when the average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades one (1) through twelve

(12) in any district for the first two (2) months of the current school year is greater than the average daily attendance of the district in kindergarten and grades one (1) through twelve (12) for the first two (2) months of the previous school year. The total number of classroom units allotted the district shall be increased by the percent of increase. The average daily attendance in kindergarten is the kindergarten full-time equivalent pupils in average daily attendance.

(8) If the percentage of attendance of any school district shall have been reduced more than two percent (2%) during the previous school year, the number of classroom units allotted the district, except those allotted in accordance with subsection (7) of this section, for the current school year shall be increased by the difference in the percentage of attendance for the two (2) years immediately prior to the current school year less two percent (2%).

(9) (a) Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, in allotting classroom units for vocational education, one (1) classroom unit shall be allotted for each full-time teacher, and a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each less than full-time teacher of vocational classes that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education; a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each teacher employed to teach part-time or short unit classes for less than a school day or a school year that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education. Salary allotments for vocational agriculture units shall be computed by proportionately increasing the salary schedule allocation based on the regular one hundred eighty-five (185) day school year for teachers with comparable qualifications and experience. During extended employment, no vocational agriculture teacher shall receive salary on a day that the teacher is scheduled to attend an institution of higher education class which could be credited toward meeting any certification requirement.

(c) Each teacher of agriculture employed twelve (12) months per year shall submit an annual plan for summer program to the local school superintendent for approval. The summer plan shall include: a list of tasks to be performed, purposes for each task, and time to be spent on each task. Approval by the local school superintendent shall be in compliance with the guidelines developed by the state department of education. The supervision and accountability of teachers of vocational agriculture's summer programs shall be the responsibility of the local school superintendent. The local school superintendent shall submit to the state superintendent of public instruction a completed report of summer tasks for each vocational agriculture teacher employed for twelve (12) months. Twenty percent (20%) of the approved twelve (12) month vocational agriculture programs shall be audited annually by the state department of education to determine that the summer plan has been properly executed.

(10) (a) Through the 1987-88 school year, one (1) classroom unit shall be included upon the employment of each teacher approved to teach exceptional children in accordance with the provisions of law and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. Calculations for units for exceptional children shall not be based on average daily attendance. A local school district may organize and administer classroom units to best meet the needs of its exceptional children pursuant to KRS 157.224(2). The superintendent of public instruction shall enforce minimum and maximum class sizes as provided in administrative regulations. No local school district shall receive classroom units for exceptional children for more than fifteen percent (15%) of their prior year's average daily attendance for the 1988-89 school year and for more than twelve percent (12%) of their prior year's average daily attendance for the 1989-90 school year and each year thereafter without state board of education approval based on unique or unusual district characteristics including but not limited to federal census population being substantially higher than the district's student enrollment;

(c) In addition to the classroom units allotted in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if a local school district, through its admission and release committee, determines that the most appropriate and least restrictive individual educational program for a particular handicapped child includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency, the school district shall be reimbursed in addition to the amount distributed under KRS 157.390, a pro rata allotment for those pupils under contract. The pro rata amount shall be calculated by dividing the district's average salary allotted for one hundred eighty-five (185) days plus the current expense and capital outlay allotment per classroom unit by the maximum number of pupils required by regulations for the pupil's specific type of classroom unit; and

(d) The superintendent of public instruction shall limit approval of additional private agencies for participation in state funding for the above-cited program to those funds appropriated for this purpose in each biennial budget.

Units shall be allotted by tenths when the number of students does not total the number required for a whole unit. Calculations for units for gifted and talented students shall not be based on average daily attendance. A local school district may organize and administer classroom units to best meet the needs of its gifted and talented students in accordance with approved guidelines. No local school district shall be allotted more classroom units than the number necessary to serve five percent (5%) of its total prior year's average daily attendance.*

(13) Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, in allotting classroom units for administrative and special instructional services, the total number of classroom units allotted in subsections (2), (9), [~~and~~] (10) and (12) of this section shall be divided by nine (9) and the quotient shall be the number of classroom units allotted to the district under this subsection.

(14)[~~(13)~~] In allotting classroom units for supervisors of instruction, one-half (1/2) of a classroom unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted twenty-five (25) through forty-nine and nine-tenths (49.9) classroom units under subsections (2), (9), [~~and~~] (10) and (12) of this section; one (1) unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted fifty (50) to one hundred (100) classroom units, one (1) unit shall be allotted for each one hundred (100) classroom units, or major fraction thereof, in districts allotted more than one hundred (100) classroom units under these subsections.

(2) In addition to the authority granted by KRS 164A.010 to 164A.230, [~~inclusive,~~] the corporation is authorized to establish, finance and operate such educational loan programs as the higher education assistance authority shall deem necessary in order to make available additional educational loans, [~~(~~]which shall not be insured student loans as that term is defined by KRS 164A.020[~~)~~] to meet the financial needs of eligible borrowers. The corporation may, in connection with the [~~any such~~] program [~~or programs~~], enter into agreements with loan servicing organizations, guarantors, insurers, financial institutions, eligible lenders and eligible institutions. The [~~Such~~] educational loan programs may provide for either the making of educational loans directly to eligible institutions and the relending to eligible borrowers or the making and purchasing of educational loans by the corporation.

(5) No bonds or notes may be issued by the corporation for the purpose of financing a nongovernmentally insured education loan pursuant to this section except upon a finding by the governor and the legislative research commission that the [~~such~~] loans are necessary to meet the financial needs of Kentucky residents to obtain a postsecondary education. In making the determination of need the governor and legislative research commission shall consider the availability of other student assistance resources.

(6) The maximum annual loan amount shall not exceed the costs incurred by the eligible borrower related to attendance less other financial aid, as certified by the eligible institution, or a lesser amount established by the board. The loan proceeds shall be used by the eligible borrower solely for those costs of attendance.

(7) The corporation may issue taxable bonds or notes for the financing of any program authorized by this chapter.

Among the lay members, there shall be at least one (1) undergraduate degree recipient from each of the state universities to be appointed by the governor~~]. The lay members shall constitute the voting membership of the council. The lay members shall be appointed for regular terms of four (4) years except for the student member who shall serve a one (1) year term, with the initial appointment of four (4) members for one (1) year, four (4) members for two (2) years, four (4) members for three (3) years and four (4) members for four (4) years. Whenever a lay member's term expires after July 15, 1982, the member appointed by the governor to fill the vacancy shall be appointed for a four (4) year term in the same manner as the initial appointment. Any person, other than the superintendent of public instruction, holding either an elective or appointive state office or who is a member of the governing board of any state university in Kentucky shall be ineligible for membership or appointment on the council during his membership or term of office. When the council meets to consider curricula for teacher education, three (3) persons who are from accredited institutions of higher learning, and who have been appointed by the executive committee of the Kentucky association of colleges, secondary and elementary schools, shall be invited to meet with the council in an advisory capacity.

Section 2. KRS 164.020 is amended to read as follows:

The council on higher education in Kentucky shall:

(1) Engage in analyses and research to determine the overall needs of higher education in the Commonwealth.

(2) Develop and transmit to the governor comprehensive plans for public higher education which meet the needs of the Commonwealth. The plans so developed shall conform to the respective functions and duties of the state universities, the community colleges, and the University of Kentucky as provided by statute. The council shall for all purposes of federal legislation relating to planning be considered the "single state agency" as that term may be used in such federal legislation; provided, however, that when such federal legislation requires additional representation on any such "single state agency" the council on higher education shall establish such advisory groups as may be necessary to satisfy such federal legislative or regulatory guidelines.

(3) Determine tuition and approve the minimum qualifications for admission to the public institutions of higher education. In determining the tuition for non-Kentucky residents, the council shall consider the fees required of Kentucky students by institutions in adjoining states, the resident fees charged by other states, the total actual per student cost of training in the institutions for which the fees are being determined, and the ratios of Kentucky students to non-Kentucky students comprising the enrollments of the respective institutions, and such other factors as the council may in its sole discretion deem pertinent.

(4) Consider the requirements and review the budget requests, which shall be prepared in the manner and submitted by the institutions to the council by dates prescribed by the council, of the institutions of public higher education as to their appropriate level of support considering the functions of the institutions and their respective needs. The council, in cooperation with the university presidents, shall devise, establish, and periodically review and revise formulas for use in making recommendations to provide to the governor and the legislature for use in making appropriations for the institutions of higher learning. The formulas shall provide for adequate and equitable allocation of funds among the several universities considering their respective needs and statutory, institutional, and geographic missions. In the development, revision, and refinement of such formulas, committees composed of members of the council staff and a representative of each of the state universities shall conduct hearings on each campus in a manner to give all principal segments of each institution the opportunity to participate in the development of the formulas. The studies shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A review of formulas used by other states to calculate needs and appropriate funds for institutions of higher education;

(b) A complete review of selected comparable institutions with reference to both the state appropriations and tuition charges, and

(c) A review of institutional activities and programs that can be calculated for use in the development of the formulas.

There shall be included in the final report the institutional responses to the studies and their recommendations and the recommendations of the advisory conference of presidents. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent or prohibit the governor, the legislature, the council on higher education, or the governing board of any institution of higher education from requesting or recommending deviations from any applicable formula or formulas prescribed by the council on higher education and advancing reasons and arguments in support of them. The individual institutions' budget requests, including tuition and registration fee schedules for all categories of students, along with council recommendations shall be submitted to the governor through the department of finance not later than November 15 of each odd numbered year. The council shall submit a separate budgetary recommendation for the University of Kentucky community college system.

(5) Review and approve all capital construction projects the cost of which exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) approved by the governing boards of the state-supported institutions of higher education prior to the institutions' submission of such projects to the department of finance and/or state property and buildings commission.

(6) Require reports from the executive officer of each institution it deems necessary for the effectual performance of its duties.

(7) Publish annually a report of the educational and financial affairs of the institutions and disseminate other information relating to higher education.

(8) Define and approve the offering of all higher education associate, baccalaureate, graduate, and professional degree or certificate programs in the state-supported higher education institutions; review proposals and make recommendations to the governor regarding the establishment of new state-supported community colleges and new four-year colleges. Provided, nothing in KRS 164.010, 164.020, 164.125, and 164.290 to 164.295 shall be construed to grant the council on higher education authority to disestablish or eliminate any college of law which became a part of the state system of higher education through merger with a state college.

(9) Approve the teacher education programs in the public institutions.

(10) Elect a chairman annually from the voting membership and appoint an executive director and such staff as may be needed and fix their compensation without limitation of the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A and KRS 64.640 subject to the approval of the commissioner of personnel and the secretary of the department of finance.

(11) Constitute the representative agency of the Commonwealth in all matters of higher education of a general and statewide nature which are not otherwise delegated to one or more institutions of higher learning. Such responsibility may be exercised through appropriate contractual relationships with individuals or agencies located within or without the Commonwealth. The authority includes but is not limited to contractual arrangements for programs of research, specialized training, and cultural enrichment.

(12) Develop procedures for the approval of a designated receiver to provide for the maintenance of student records of the public institutions of higher education and the colleges as defined in KRS 164.945, and institutions operating pursuant to KRS 165A.310 which offer collegiate level courses for academic credit, which cease to operate after July 15, 1980. Procedures shall include assurances that, upon proper request, subject to federal and state laws and regulations, copies of student records shall be made available within a reasonable length of time for a minimum fee.

(13) Develop in conjunction with each state institution of higher education a comprehensive orientation program for newly appointed governing board trustees and regents. The orientation shall include, but not be limited to information concerning the respective institution's mission, budget, plans, policies, strengths, weaknesses, and meetings with faculty, students, administrators, and other board members.

(6) If a county is authorized to regulate an area which the state also regulates, the county government may regulate the area only by enacting ordinances which are consistent with state law or administrative regulation:

(a) If the state statute or administrative regulation prescribes a single standard of conduct, a county ordinance is consistent if it is identical to the state statute or administrative regulation;

(c) A candidate for city office in a partisan election shall be prohibited from being a registered party candidate during a primary election and if defeated in the primary, changing his registration to independent for the purpose of seeking the same office at the regular election for which he was defeated in the primary election. However, if a vacancy occurs in the party nomination for which he was an unsuccessful candidate in the primary election, his name may be placed on the voting machines for the regular election as a candidate of that party if he has been duly made the party nominee after the vacancy occurs, as provided in KRS 118.105.

(2) Nonpartisan elections of city officers shall be governed by KRS 83A.050, 83A.170, 83A.175 and the following provisions, regardless of the form of government or classification of the city:

4. If a city does not conduct a primary election pursuant to this subsection, candidates for city office shall not be required to make pre-election reports to the registry of election finance pursuant to KRS 121.180, but shall be required to make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the regular election in November.

5. In the absence of a primary pursuant to this subsection, the number of candidates equal to the number of city offices to be filed, who receive the highest number of votes cast in the regular election for each city office shall be elected.

6. Candidates shall be subject to all other applicable election laws pursuant to this Act, KRS Chapter 83A and KRS Chapters 116 to 121.

7. If a vacancy occurs in a candidacy for city office in any city which has not held a primary pursuant to this subsection after the expiration of time for filing nomination papers due to the death, incapacity or withdrawal of a candidate, the vacancy in candidacy shall be filled in the following manner:

a. If the vacancy in candidacy occurs less than sixty-eight (68) days but more than thirty (30) days prior to the regular election, candidates shall file petitions of nomination to fill the vacancy with the county clerk not less than thirty (30) days prior to the regular election.

Section 3. KRS 83A.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) [~~Except in cities of the second class which operate under the city manager form of government pursuant to KRS 83A.150,~~] Election of city officers shall be governed by general election laws as provided in KRS Chapters 116 through 121 unless the city legislative body prescribes by ordinance that election of city officers shall be under nonpartisan city election laws as provided in this Act, KRS 83A.170, and 83A.175. Such ordinance shall become effective not later than twenty-three (23) days prior to the date prescribed by the election law generally for filing notification and declaration forms with the county clerk in a year in which a regular election is to be held in which any city office is to be filled. Immediately subsequent to publication of any ordinance prescribing that election of city officers be under nonpartisan city election laws, a copy of that ordinance shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the city is located. City officers of each city of the second class operating under the city manager form of government pursuant to KRS 83A.150 shall be elected in nonpartisan elections as provided in KRS 83A.170, 83A.175 and this Act.

(2) A city may change the manner of election of city officers within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section by ordinance, except that no change shall be made earlier than five (5) years from the last change.

(3) The city shall pay the costs of city elections only if city elections are held at a time other than prescribed by KRS Chapters 116 to 121 [~~law for elections generally~~].

Section 4. KRS 83A.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any city which has under the provisions of Section 2 of this Act [~~KRS 83A.050~~] required nonpartisan city elections, or in any city of the second class operating under the city manager form of government pursuant to KRS 83A.150, no person shall be elected to city office except as provided in this section or as otherwise provided in this chapter relating to nonpartisan elections [~~concerning vacancies~~].

(2) No person shall be elected to city office without being nominated in the manner provided in this section at a nonpartisan primary election to be held at the time prescribed by KRS Chapters 116 to 121 [~~law for primary elections generally~~], except as otherwise provided in this chapter [~~concerning vacancies~~]. Nonpartisan primary elections shall be conducted by the same officers, chosen and acting in the same manner, with the same rights and duties as in regular elections.

(3) Each applicant for nomination shall, by at least the last date prescribed by the election law generally for filing notification and declaration forms with the county clerk, file with the county clerk a petition signed by at least two (2) registered [~~one percent (1%) of the registered voters in the city or twenty (20)~~] voters in the city[~~, whichever is less~~]. Each voter may sign a slated petition up to the number of offices to be filled for a particular position or may sign individual petitions equal to the number of offices to be filled. If a voter signs petitions for more candidates than he is authorized then he shall be counted as a petitioner for the candidate whose petition is filed first. The petition shall be in the following form:

"We the undersigned, qualified voters of the City of __________ request that the name of __________ be placed before the voters of the city as that of an applicant for nomination for the office of __________ at the primary election to be held in our city on the date prescribed by law for primary elections generally. (5) Immediately upon expiration of the time for filing petitions, the county clerk shall have published in accordance with KRS Chapter 424 the names of the applicants as they will appear before the voters at the primary.

(6) Subsection (5) of this section shall not apply if it appears, immediately upon expiration of the time for filing petitions, that there are not more than two (2) applicants for nomination for each city office to be filled, or, when the nominations are for city legislative body members in cities electing legislative body members at large, and there are no more than twice the number of applicants for nomination for the number of offices to be filled. In that case, the applicants for nomination shall thereby be nominated and no primary election shall be held for that office. If a primary election has not been held in accordance with the provisions of this section, candidates for nonpartisan city office shall not be required to make pre-election reports to the registry of election finance pursuant to KRS 121.180, but shall be required to make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the regular election in November.

(7) The ballot position of a candidate shall not be changed after the ballot position has been designated by the county clerk.

(8) If before the ballots are printed, any candidate whose petition has been filed in the office of the county clerk dies or notifies the clerk in writing, signed and properly notarized, that he will not accept the nomination, the clerk shall not cause his name to be printed on the ballot.

(9) If after the ballots are printed, any candidate whose name appears thereon shall die, the county clerk shall cause his name to be blocked out or obliterated from the ballot. The clerk shall not knowingly allow the name of a deceased person to appear on the ballot.

(10) Names of applicants for each nomination shall be placed before the voters of the city. The voters shall be instructed to vote for one (1) candidate, except that they shall be instructed to vote for the number of legislative body members to be elected in cities nominating legislative body members at large. No party designation or emblem of any kind, nor any sign indicating any applicant's political belief or party affiliation shall be used.

(11) Persons qualified to vote at a regular election are qualified to vote at a nonpartisan primary election and the law applicable to challenges made at a regular election is applicable to challenges made at a nonpartisan primary election.

(12) Votes shall be counted as provided in general election laws, pursuant to KRS Chapters 116 to 121, and the result shall be published as provided in KRS Chapter 424.

(13) The two (2) applicants receiving the highest number of votes for nomination for each city office shall be nominated, or where the nominations are for city legislative body members in cities electing legislative body members at large, there shall be nominated the number of applicants receiving the highest number of votes equal to twice the number of offices to be filled.

(14) At the regular election following a nonpartisan primary election, the names of the successful nominees and candidates who have filed a petition of candidacy as provided in this chapter to fill a vacancy shall be placed before the voters.

(15) The nominee or candidate receiving the greater number of votes cast for each city office shall be elected.

(16) KRS Chapters 116 to 121 [~~General election law~~] prescribing duties of county clerks and other public officers in the conduct of elections shall be applicable in all respects to nonpartisan city elections, except no election officer or other person within a polling place shall tell or indicate to a voter, by word of mouth or otherwise, the political affiliation of any candidate for city office.

If vacancies occur in a way that all seats become vacant, the governor shall appoint qualified persons to fill the vacancies sufficient to constitute a quorum. Remaining vacancies shall be filled as provided in this section.

(6)[~~(5)~~] If for any reason, any vacancy in the office of mayor or the legislative body is not filled within thirty (30) days after it occurs, the governor shall promptly fill the vacancy by appointment of a qualified person who shall serve for the same period as if otherwise appointed.

(7) No vacancy by reason of voluntary resignation in the office of mayor or on a legislative body shall occur unless a written resignation which specifies a resignation date is tendered to the legislative body. The resignation shall be effective at the next regular meeting of the city legislative body.

(8) Pursuant to KRS 118.305(6), if a vacancy occurs which is required by law to be filled temporarily by appointment, the legislative body or the governor, whichever is designated to make the appointment, shall immediately notify in writing both the county clerk and the secretary of state of the vacancy.

Section 1. KRS 213.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The body of any person whose death occurs in this state shall not be interred, deposited in a vault or tomb, cremated or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district, until a permit for burial, removal or other disposition has been issued by the registrar of the registration district in which the death occurs. If the death occurred from a disease declared by the cabinet for human resources to be infectious, contagious or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be granted by the registrar except under conditions prescribed by the cabinet for human resources and local board of health. The cabinet for human resources shall identify by regulation those communicable diseases which require blood and body fluid precautions. If a person known to be infected with a communicable disease for which blood and body fluid precautions are required dies within a hospital, long-term care facility or other health care facility, the facility shall notify any embalmer or funeral director to whom the body will be transported of the need for such precautions. The notice shall be provided by prominently attaching to the body of the deceased a red tag bearing the words "Blood and Body Fluid Precautions." Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, no burial or removal permit shall be issued by any registrar until a complete and satisfactory certificate and return of the death has been filed with him. If any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, the registrar shall call attention to the defects in the return, and shall withhold issuing the burial or removal permit until they are corrected.

(2) A transit permit issued in accordance with the law and health regulations of the place where the death occurred, whether in or outside of this state, may be accepted by the local registrar of the district where the body is to be interred or otherwise finally disposed of, in lieu of a certificate of death, but he shall plainly enter on the face of the copy of the record made for return to the cabinet for human resources the fact that it was a body shipped in for interment and the actual place of death. If the transit permit was issued outside of this state the local registrar of the district where the body is to be finally disposed of shall issue a local burial permit, but if the transit permit was issued in this state the registrar's burial or removal permit from the district where the death occurred may be accepted as authority for burial at the point of destination, without the issuance of a local burial permit.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to delay, beyond a reasonable time, the interment or other disposition of a body, unless the services of the coroner or the health officer are required or the cabinet for human resources deems it necessary for the protection of the public health. If compliance with this section would result in unreasonable delay in the disposition of the body, the undertaker or person acting as such shall file with the local registrar or deputy registrar prior to interment, a provisional certificate of death, which shall contain the name, date and place of death of the deceased and an agreement to furnish within five (5) days a complete and satisfactory certificate of death and the undertaker or person acting as such shall secure a complete and satisfactory certificate of death as provided in KRS 213.100 and return it within five (5) days from the date of burial to the local registrar of the district in which the death occurred.

(4) The undertaker shall deliver the burial permit to the sexton or person in charge of the place of burial, before interring the body, or, if the body is to be shipped by a transportation company, shall attach the transit permit, containing the registrar's removal permit, to the box containing the body. a. Within the two-year period immediately prior to the announcement date of the proposal of the business combination; or

b. In the transaction in which it became an interested shareholder, whichever is higher; or

2. The highest preferential amount per share to which the holders of shares of such class of stock are entitled in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation; or

3. The market value per share of such class of stock on the announcement date or on the determination date, whichever is higher; or

4. The price per share equal to the market value per share of such class of stock determined pursuant to subparagraph 3. of this paragraph, multiplied by the fraction of:

a. The highest per share price, including any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes and soliciting dealers' fees, paid by the interested shareholder for any shares of any class of voting stock acquired by it within the two-year period immediately prior to the announcement date, over

b. The market value per share of the same class of voting stock on the first day in such two-year period on which the interested shareholder acquired any shares of the same class of voting stock.

(c) In making any price calculation under this section, appropriate adjustments shall be made to reflect any reclassification, including any reverse stock split; recapitalization; reorganization; or any similar transaction which has the effect of reducing the number of outstanding shares of the stock. The consideration to be received by holders of any class or series of outstanding stock is to be in cash or in the same form as the interested shareholder has previously paid for shares of the same class or series of stock. If the interested shareholder has paid for shares of any class of stock with varying forms of consideration, the form of consideration for such class of stock shall be either cash or the form used to acquire the largest number of shares of such class or series of stock previously acquired by it.

(d) 1. After the interested shareholder has become an interested shareholder and prior to the consummation of such business combination:

a. There shall have been no failure to declare and pay at the regular date therefor any full periodic dividends, whether or not cumulative, on any outstanding preferred stock of the corporation;

b. There shall have been no reduction in the annual rate of dividends paid on any class or series of stock of the corporation that is not preferred stock, except as necessary to reflect any subdivision of the stock; and an increase in such annual rate of dividends as necessary to reflect any reclassification, including any reverse stock split; recapitalization; reorganization; or any similar transaction which has the effect of reducing the number of outstanding shares of the stock; and

c. The interested shareholder did not become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of stock of the corporation except as part of the transaction which resulted in such interested shareholder becoming an interested shareholder or by virtue of proportionate stock splits or stock dividends.

2. The provisions of sub-subparagraphs a. and b. of subparagraph 1. do not apply if no interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder voted as a director of the corporation in a manner inconsistent with such sub-subparagraphs and the interested shareholder, within ten (10) days after any act or failure to act inconsistent with such sub-subparagraphs, notifies the board of directors of the corporation in writing that the interested shareholder disapproves thereof and requests in good faith that the board of directors rectify such act or failure to act.

(e) After the interested shareholder has become an interested shareholder, the interested shareholder may not have received the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial assistance provided by the corporation or any of its subsidiaries, whether in anticipation of or in connection with such business combination or otherwise.

(3) (a) Whether or not such business combinations are authorized or consummated in whole or in part after July 13, 1984 or after the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder, the requirements of KRS 271A.397 do not apply to business combinations that specifically, generally, or generally by types, as to specifically identified or unidentified existing or future interested shareholders or their affiliates or associates, have been approved or exempted therefrom by resolution of the board of directors of the corporation:

1. Prior to two (2) months after July 13, 1984 or such earlier date as may be irrevocably established by resolution of the board of directors;

2. If involving transactions with a particular interested shareholder or its existing or future affiliates or associates, at any time prior to the time that the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder; or

3. At any time if such business combination is approved by a majority of continuing directors at a meeting of the board of directors at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the continuing directors is present.

(b) Unless by its terms a resolution adopted under this subsection is made irrevocable, it may be altered or repealed by the board of directors, but this shall not affect any business combinations that have been consummated, or are the subject of an existing agreement entered into, prior to the alteration or repeal.

(4) (a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation specifically provide otherwise, the requirements of KRS 271A.397 do not apply to business combinations of a corporation that, on July 13, 1984, had an existing interested shareholder, whether a business combination is with the existing shareholder or with any other person who becomes an interested shareholder, after July 13, 1984, or their present or future affiliates, unless, at any time after July 13, 1984, the board of directors of the corporation elects by resolution, adopted by a majority of the continuing directors at a meeting of the board of directors at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the continuing directors is present, to be subject, in whole or in part, specifically, generally, or generally by types, as to specifically identified or unidentified interested shareholders, to the requirements of KRS 271A.397.

(b) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation may provide that if the board of directors adopts a resolution under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the resolution shall be subject to approval of the shareholders in the manner and by the vote specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(c) An election under this subsection may be added to but may not be altered or repealed except by an amendment to the articles of incorporation adopted by a vote of shareholders meeting the requirements of subsection (5)(a)2. of this section.

(d) If a corporation elects under this subsection to be included within the provisions of KRS 271A.397 generally, without qualification or limitation, it shall file with the secretary of state articles of amendment including a copy of the resolution making the election and a statement describing the manner in which the resolution was adopted. The articles of amendment shall be executed in the manner required by KRS 271A.305.

(5) (a) Unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation provide otherwise, the requirements of KRS 271A.397 do not apply to any business combination of:

1. A corporation having fewer than three [~~five~~] hundred (300) [~~(500)~~] beneficial owners of its stock, provided that if a corporation has an interested shareholder, the corporation had and continues to have fewer than three hundred (300) beneficial owners of its stock as of the date the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder;

2. A corporation whose original articles of incorporation have a provision, or whose shareholders adopt an amendment to the articles of incorporation after the July 13, 1984, by a vote of at least eighty percent (80%) of the votes entitled to be cast by outstanding shares of voting stock of the corporation, voting together as a single voting group and two-thirds of the votes entitled to be case by persons, if any, who are not interested shareholders of the corporation, voting together as a single voting group, expressly electing not to be governed by KRS 271A.397; or

3. An investment company registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; a bank or a bank holding company as defined in the federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended; a savings and loan holding company as defined in the federal Savings and Loan Holding Company Amendments of 1967, as amended; and a domestic insurer as defined under KRS 304.1-070.

(b) For purposes of subparagraph 1. of this subsection, all shareholders of a corporation who have executed an agreement to which the corporation is an executing party governing the purchase and sale of stock of the corporation or a voting trust agreement governing stock of the corporation shall be considered a single beneficial owner of the stock covered by the agreement.

Such electronic and printed detail records shall be made available and transmitted by the heads of each branch of government, or their designee, on a continuous and timely basis, in the form and technology used by the general assembly and the legislative research commission through electronic data processing procedures.

(2) (a) Representatives designated by the governor, chief justice, and the legislative research commission for their respective branches shall assist, upon request, the legislative research commission in the creation and maintenance of an automated central budget information system which shall consist of uniform electronic detail records concerning appropriations, expenditures, receipts, and activities.

Section 1. KRS 100.201 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 100.137, when the planning commission and legislative bodies have adopted the statement of goals and objectives, and the planning commission has additionally adopted at least the land use element for the planning unit, the various legislative bodies and fiscal courts of the cities and counties, which are members of the unit, may enact interim [~~land use regulations, including~~] zoning or other kinds of growth management regulations which shall have force and effect within their respective jurisdictions for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months, during which time the planning commission shall complete the remaining elements of the comprehensive plan as prescribed by KRS 100.187. Interim regulations shall become void upon the enactment of permanent regulations as provided in subsection (2) of this section, or after twelve (12) consecutive months from the date such interim regulations are enacted, whichever occurs first.

(2) When all required elements of the comprehensive plan have been adopted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, then the legislative bodies and fiscal courts within the planning unit may enact permanent land use regulations, including zoning and other kinds of growth management regulations [~~on an interim or permanent basis~~] to promote public health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the planning unit, to facilitate orderly and harmonious development and the visual or historical character of the unit, and to regulate the density of population and intensity of land use in order to provide for adequate light and air. In addition, land use and zoning regulations may be employed to provide for vehicle parking and loading space, as well as to facilitate fire and police protection, and to prevent the overcrowding of land, blight, danger, and congestion in the circulation of people and commodities, and the loss of life, health, or property from fire, flood or other dangers. Land use and zoning regulations may also be employed to protect airports, highways, and other transportation facilities, public facilities, schools, public grounds, historical districts, central business districts, prime agricultural land and other natural resources, and other specific areas of the planning unit which need special protection by the planning unit.

Section 2. KRS 100.328 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The planning commission shall have the authority to adopt all bylaws and procedures necessary to carry out the functions of this chapter.

(2) [~~If the planning commission is conducting or, in good faith is preparing to conduct, studies which are required for a comprehensive plan, the commission and the legislative bodies may prepare and adopt interim regulations before the otherwise required plan elements are completed.~~] The contents of and procedure for adoption and amendment of[~~, the~~] interim regulations, as provided in KRS 100.201 shall be the same as for permanent zoning or other kinds of growth management [~~the regular~~] regulations.

(3) The procedure for adoption of the zoning regulation, as well as for the adoption of any amendment thereto, shall be by enactment of an ordinance pursuant to KRS Chapter 67, 67A, 83 or 83A [~~the same as for any other regulation or order~~]; provided, however, that, notwithstanding publication requirements, the zoning ordinance [~~regulation~~] may be published by stating the title and general description of the regulations and referring to the place within the unit where a copy of the complete ordinance [~~regulation~~] may be examined without charge.

Records by the property valuation administrator may be relied upon to determine the identity and address of said owner[~~, or with the owner of the property in question. Regardless of the origin of the proposed amendment, it shall be referred to the planning commission before adoption. The planning commission shall then hold at least one (1) public hearing after notice as required by KRS Chapter 424 and make recommendations to the various legislative bodies or fiscal courts involved, and it shall take a majority of the entire legislative body or fiscal court to override the recommendation of the planning commission.~~

~~(2) All procedures for public notice and publication as well as for adoption shall be the same as for the original enactment of a zoning regulation, and the notice of publication shall include the street address of the property in question, or if one is not available, or if it is not practicable due to the number of addresses involved, a geographic description sufficient to locate and identify the property, and the names of the two (2) streets on either side of the property which intersect the street on which the property is located. HB 398, AN ACT relating to cities participating in the county employes retirement system.

Section 1. KRS 78.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each county and school board as defined in KRS 78.510 will participate in the system by appropriate order authorizing such participation which has been entered and duly recorded in the records of the governing body of the county or school board. The authority to issue and properly record such order of participation being hereby granted, permits such county to participate in the system. The effective date of such participation shall be fixed in the order.

(2) Once a county or school board participates it shall thereafter continue to participate except as provided in KRS 78.535.

(3) (a) Concurrent with the adoption of the appropriate resolution to participate in the system, a county may elect the alternate participation plan which will require the county to purchase on behalf of each employe electing coverage, at the time the county elected to participate in the system as provided under KRS 78.540(2) current service credit for employment in regular full-time positions between July 1, 1958 and the participation date of the county. Cities which participate in the system pursuant to this Act shall be required to purchase on behalf of each employe electing coverage only as much service credit as the employe has accumulated in the city administered plan, up to the participation date of the city. Accumulated service shall include service for which an employe received a refund pursuant to KRS 95.620 or 95.866, if such refund has been repaid. If the employe has not yet repaid the refund, he may make payment to the system by any method acceptable to the system, and the requirement of five (5) years of continuous reemployment prior to repayment of refunds shall not apply. Upon the employe's repayment, the city shall purchase the associated service credit for the employe. Cost of such service credit over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate shall be determined by the board's consulting actuary. The expense of such actuarial service shall be paid by the county;

(b) The county shall establish a payment schedule subject to approval by the board for payment of the cost of such service over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate. The maximum period allowed in a payment schedule shall be thirty (30) years, with interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board.[~~; however,~~] A shorter period is desirable and the board may approve any payment schedule provided it is not longer than a thirty (30) year period, except that cities which participate in the system pursuant to this Act may, at their option, extend the payment schedule to a maximum of thirty (30) years, may choose to make level payments at the interest rate actuarially assumed by the board over the life of the payment schedule chosen, and may retain employer contributions and the earnings thereon attributable to employes electing coverage; and

(c) A city entering the system under the alternate participation plan, may, by ordinance, levy a special property tax to pay for current service credit purchased for the period between July 1, 1958 and the participation date of the city. The special tax shall be to pay, within a period of no more than fifteen (15) years, for the cost of such service credit over that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate, as determined by the board's consulting actuary. The reason for levying the special tax and the disposition of the proceeds shall be part of the ordinance levying the tax. The special tax shall be rescinded when the unfunded prior service liability has been amortized, and shall not be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.017 or 132.027. The city shall not collect the special property tax if its participation has been terminated pursuant to KRS 78.535.

(4) Every school board not participating on June 21, 1974, shall enact a resolution of participation no later than July 1, 1976.

(5) The order of the governing body of a county, as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, may exclude from participation in the system, hospitals and any other semi-independent agency. Each such excluded agency shall be identified in the order authorizing participation and such excluded agency may participate in the system as a separate agency.

(6) An agency whose participation in the county employes retirement system has been terminated by the board of trustees in accordance with KRS 78.535 may at a later date request participation in the retirement system by the adoption of an appropriate order as authorized by subsection (1) of this section. The board may accept the participation of such agency provided it is determined that such participation is in the best interest of the agency, the employes thereof and the county employes retirement system.

The supplement paid each police officer shall be in addition to his regular salary.

Section 15. KRS 95A.250 is amended to read as follows:

In the case of county employes retirement system membership, the pension contribution on the supplement shall be paid whether the officer enters the system under hazardous duty coverage or non-hazardous coverage. The local unit of government shall pay the amount received for retirement coverage to the appropriate retirement system to cover the required employer contribution on the pay supplement. Should the foundation program funds be insufficient to pay employer contributions to the system, then the total amount available for pension payments shall be prorated to each eligible government so that each receives the same percentage of required pension costs attributable to the cash salary supplement.*

(2) Each qualified professional fire fighter, whose local government receives a supplement pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid by that local government the supplement which his qualifications brought to the local government. The supplement paid each qualified fire fighter shall be in addition to his regular salary.

Section 16. KRS 95A.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Funds made available to local governments shall be received, held and expended in accordance with the provisions of KRS 95A.200 to 95A.300, any rules and regulations issued by the commission, and the following specific restrictions:

(d) Funds shall not be used to supplement existing salaries or as a substitute for normal salary increases periodically due to fire fighters.

(2) This section shall not apply to funds expended pursuant to KRS 95A.240(3).

Section 17. KRS 78.535 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event a participating county fails to fully comply with the provisions of KRS 78.510 to 78.852, the board shall notify said county in writing of its failure to comply and shall inform said county that such failure shall be deemed to be cause for termination of the participation of said county in the system.

(2) In not less than ninety (90) days after the issuance of the notice in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the board may terminate the participation of the county in the system unless the county has fully complied or has made satisfactory arrangements to comply. The board shall determine the effective date of such termination of participation.

(3) The county may appeal the decision of the board to the Franklin Circuit Court.

(4) Employes of the county who are members of the system on the effective date of termination of participation shall have the privilege of continuing in membership in the system until their county employment is terminated. Such employes shall continue to make contributions to the system in accordance with the provisions of KRS 78.610 and the county shall contribute employer contributions for such employes in accordance with KRS 61.565.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, the aggregate amount of the employer contributions during a fiscal year of a county whose participation has been terminated by the board shall be not less than the amount the system is required to pay in retirement allowances during such fiscal year to former employes of such county and the beneficiaries of said former employes. In determining the amount of retirement allowances, the board shall allow credit for the member contributions paid by such former employes.

(6) In lieu of termination of the participation of a county which fails to fully comply with the provisions of KRS 78.510 to 78.852, the board may file an action in the Franklin Circuit Court to collect money owed and to attach so much of the general fund of the delinquent county as is necessary to achieve full compliance with the provisions of KRS 78.625.

Section 18. KRS 78.616 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any agency participating in the county employes retirement system which has formally adopted a sick leave program that is universally administered to its employes may purchase service credit with the retirement system for up to six (6) months of unused sick leave for each retiring employe.

(2) Participation under this section shall be at the option of each participating employer. The election to participate shall be made by the governing authority of the participating employer and shall be certified in writing to the board on forms prescribed by the board. The certification shall provide for equal treatment of all employes.

(3) Upon the member's notification of retirement as prescribed in KRS 61.590, the employer shall certify the retiring employe's unused, accumulated sick leave balance to the board of trustees of the Kentucky retirement systems. The member's sick leave balance, expressed in days, shall be divided by the average number of working days per month in county service and rounded to the nearest number of whole months. A maximum of six (6) months of the member's sick leave balance, expressed in months, shall be added to his service credit for the purpose of determining his annual retirement allowance under KRS 78.510 to 78.852.

(4) The board shall compute the cost to the retirement system of the sick leave credit of each retiring employe and bill the employer accordingly. The employer shall remit payment within thirty (30) days from receipt of the bill.

(5) As an alternative to subsections (1), (3) and (4) of this section, any agency participating in the county employes retirement system which has formally adopted a sick leave program that is universally administered to its employes may, at the time of retirement, compensate the employe for as many unused sick-leave days as the employe has accumulated and it is the uniform policy of the agency to allow. The rate of compensation for each unused sick-leave day shall be based on the daily salary rate calculated from the employe's last annual salary. Payment for unused sick-leave days shall be incorporated into the annual salary of the final year of service, if the employe and employer make the regular employe and employer contributions, respectively, on the sick leave payment.

Section 19. In order that city employes with a choice can make an informed decision on whether or not to join the county employes retirement system, Kentucky retirement systems shall conduct briefings for each affected pension system on the provisions of this Act. Each employe shall receive a written summary of the retirement benefits which the county employes retirement system offers, and each employe shall be given the opportunity to attend an oral presentation. All such presentations shall be completed by October 15, 1988, and each affected employe shall make his decision by November 1, 1988. Failure of an employe subject to the provisions of this Act to receive a written summary or to attend an oral briefing shall in no way invalidate any of the provisions of this Act.

All requests for an application for a special ballot and all applications for a special ballot shall be made in person or by mail, at the option of the voter, except that the county clerk shall hand an application for a special ballot to the voter who appears in person to request such application, or shall mail such application to a voter who requests such application by mail. Such application shall be restricted to use of the voter or the spouse, parents or dependent children of the voter; and

HB 248. AN ACT relating to payment of a bonus to certain veterans who served during the Vietnam conflict and certain persons deriving from them, providing for funding thereof, and appropriating funds for administration.

WHEREAS, the electorate of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, at the regular election on November 3, 1959, approved the payment of a cash bonus to qualified veterans of the Spanish American War, World War I, World War II, and the Korean conflict as an expression of appreciation for their service to the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, many citizens of the Commonwealth served at great personal sacrifice in the armed forces of the United States during the Vietnam conflict; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky finds it appropriate to express to those citizens the gratitude of all of the citizens of the Commonwealth by the payment of a bonus to all veterans qualified hereunder who served in the armed forces of the United States in the Vietnam conflict;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) It is hereby found, determined and declared that the citizens of the Commonwealth who served in the armed forces during the Vietnam conflict performed a public service for the United States of America and the Commonwealth and that the payment of the Vietnam veterans' bonus, as provided in this Act, promotes the public good by rewarding the public service rendered by such individuals and by encouraging future public service by citizens of the Commonwealth.

(2) It is hereby found, determined and declared as a legislative finding of fact that the general welfare and well-being of the citizens of the Commonwealth is dependent upon the economy of the Commonwealth and the national economy and that the payment of the Vietnam veterans' bonus, by encouraging greater consumer expenditures, will stimulate growth in the national and local economies, thereby increasing employment of residents of the Commonwealth and generating additional tax revenues to the Commonwealth.

(3) It is hereby found, determined and declared that a bonus shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the amounts and to the persons determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

the bonus of such veteran shall lapse, and no payment thereof shall be made.

The provisions of subsection (1) of this section and the minimum period of service for entitlement to a bonus as established by Section 2(4) of this Act shall not apply to these beneficiaries. However, this exception does not waive the respective maximums of three hundred dollars ($300) or five hundred dollars ($500) for each veteran, person killed in the line of duty while on active duty in the armed forces, or person who died as a result of service-connected injury sustained while on active duty in the armed forces. (1) The facts therein stated are true to the best of his knowledge and belief;

(2) All documents submitted in support of the application are believed by the claimant to be genuine originals or copies, as the case may be, and that the claimant has no knowledge that the document has been superseded or cancelled;

(3) The claimant has not received from another state a bonus or compensation of a like nature as provided by this Act;

(4) The claimant has not received the Kentucky veterans' bonus provided under Chapter 48, Acts of the Regular 1958 Session of the General Assembly, and Chapter 15, Acts of the Regular 1960 Session of the General Assembly;

(5) The claimant has neither paid nor agreed to pay, directly or indirectly, any compensation for assistance received in preparing and tendering the application; and

(6) The claimant has knowledge of the final and forfeiture provisions of this Act.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) No application shall be filed with or sent to the adjutant general before the 1st day of September, 1988.

(2) No application may be filed with or sent to the administrator after the thirty first day of March, 1990; but if an application be sent by mail, the adjutant general shall receive it if the post-mark on the envelope shows date and time of mailing at or before midnight, central standard time, on or before the thirty first day of March, 1990.

(3) Applications tendered to the adjutant general otherwise than as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be eligible for consideration under this Act and shall not be accepted. Each such application received by mail shall be returned to the sender, if a return address be given, together with notification of the reason for its return.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

No claimant shall be entitled to an oral hearing as a matter of right; but the adjutant general may in his discretion order a hearing in any case presenting unusual circumstances, or where it appears that documentary evidence of any material fact cannot reasonably be obtained, or where the claim cannot otherwise adequately be determined. The adjutant general may investigate any matter which in his judgment is not adequately proven, or which shows or raises an inference of fraud; and may require submission of supplementary proof.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A hearing ordered by the adjutant general shall be conducted by a single person designated by the adjutant general. Formalities of judicial procedure and proof may be waived. No stenographic transcript of the proceedings shall be made except when specifically authorized by the adjutant general, and in the absence of such authorization the hearing officer shall submit to the adjutant general his written summary of the proceedings. There shall be no right to written or oral argument; but the adjutant general may, in his discretion, authorize either.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The burden of proving to the satisfaction of the adjutant general that a bonus is payable shall in all cases be upon the claimant.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The adjutant general shall make prompt determination that each application is approved or disapproved for payment of a bonus; and if approved, shall determine the amount to be paid according to the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a claim is disapproved, the adjutant general shall send a notice of such decision to the claimant by mail at the address shown in the application. The notice shall be in such form as the adjutant general may determine, shall contain a designation of the reason for disapproval, shall inform the claimant of his right to seek review, shall have attached such form of request for review as the adjutant general may prescribe, and shall give information as to procedure for review.

(2) Application for review of a disapproval shall be made only on the forms prescribed, and shall be received in the designated office not later than the closing hour in the thirtieth (30th) day after the day upon which the notice of disapproval is mailed, or be forever barred.

(3) Upon receiving an application for review, the administrator shall transmit the same, together with the original application and all papers in the case, to the board of review, hereinafter created.

(4) The board of review shall promptly consider the same evidence which was available to the administrator, and shall promptly enter in the case file its decision either finally affirming the administrator's decision, or finally determining the claim and the amount thereof.

(5) The board of review shall send a notice of its decision to the claimant by registered mail, and shall return the case file to the administrator. The decision of the board of review shall be a final determination of the claim shown in the application.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If the administrator shall disapprove any claim, or if the decision of the board of review be affirmance of the administrator's disapproval of the claim:

(1) No payment of a bonus shall be made,

(2) The administrator, upon receiving advice of the decision, shall note the same in a permanent book or record in his office; shall forthwith return to the claimant the copies of any official records submitted in support of the application; shall finally close the claim file; and may destroy all other papers except the application.

SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 40 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a claim is approved by the administrator or finally approved upon resort to the board of review, the administrator shall promptly certify to the secretary of finance and administration the names and addresses of persons found entitled to be paid, as shown in the application, and the amount payable to each.

(a) A copy of each such certificate shall be sent to the commissioner of revenue, who shall promptly ascertain from the records of his department whether any person proposed to be paid a bonus is delinquent in the payment of any tax liability to the Commonwealth. No delinquency shall be deemed to exist as to any asserted tax liability which is the subject of a bona fide dispute. If any delinquency be found to exist, the commissioner of revenue shall within three (3) working days after this receipt of the certificate, furnish the details thereof to the secretary of finance and administration; and if no advice of tax delinquency is received by the secretary of finance and administration before the end of the fourth working day after his receipt of certification from the administrator, he shall, for the purposes of this Act, conclusively presume that no delinquency of tax liability to the Commonwealth exists, but such presumption shall apply only to the existence or absence of a set-off by the Commonwealth against a certified claim for a bonus, and shall not alter the facts as between the Commonwealth and any taxpayer.

(b) If no advice of tax delinquency is received within such allowed time, the secretary of finance and administration may approve payment in accordance with the certificate of the administrator, and may immediately draw a warrant on the state treasury for a check in payment.

(c) Upon receipt of such warrant the state treasurer shall issue a check in accordance therewith payable from funds made available in accordance with this Act, and the same shall promptly be mailed to the payee thereof at the address shown in the certificate.

(2) If the secretary of finance and administration shall, within the allowed time, receive advice from the commissioner of revenue of the existence of a delinquency on the part of any person having an approved claim for a bonus, as to any tax liability to the Commonwealth, the secretary of finance and administration shall note the same on the certificate of the administrator, withhold payment, and forthwith send to the claimant by registered mail a notice of the asserted delinquency, and the amount thereof, and that it is proposed that the same be set off against the bonus payment.

Section 2. KRS 620.030 is amended to read as follows:

(2) Any person, including but not limited to a physician, osteopathic physician, nurse, teacher, school personnel, social worker, coroner, medical examiner, child-caring personnel, resident, intern, chiropractor, dentist, optometrist, emergency medical technician, paramedic, health professional, mental health professional, peace officer or any organization or agency for any of the above, who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a child is dependent, neglected or abused or who has attended such child as a part of his professional duties shall, if requested, in addition to the report required in subsection (1) of this section, file with the local law enforcement agency or the Kentucky state police or the commonwealth or county attorney, the cabinet or its designated representative within forty-eight (48) hours of the original report a written report containing:

(a) The names and addresses of the child and his parents or other persons exercising custodial control or supervision;

(b) The child's age;

(c) The nature and extent of the child's alleged dependency, neglect or abuse (including any previous charges of dependency, neglect or abuse) to this child or his siblings;

(d) The name and address of the person allegedly responsible for the abuse or neglect; and

(e) Any other information that the person making the report believes may be helpful in the furtherance of the purpose of this section.

Section 3. KRS 620.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of a report pursuant to KRS 620.030(1) or (2), the county attorney, the commonwealth's attorney, the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky state police, if they are the recipients of the report, shall forthwith notify the cabinet or its designated representative and the commonwealth or county attorney of the receipt of the report and its contents and, if the report alleges abuse, they shall investigate the matter and within forty-eight (48) hours make a written report to the cabinet or its designated representative and the commonwealth or county attorney concerning the action which has been taken on the matter.

(2) Upon the receipt of a report of alleged abuse pursuant to KRS 620.030(1) or (2) the cabinet or its designated representative, if it is the recipient of the report, shall forthwith notify the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky state police and the commonwealth or county attorney of the receipt of the report and its contents and shall investigate the matter and within forty-eight (48) hours make a written report to the local law enforcement agency or the Kentucky state police and the county or commonwealth's attorney concerning the action which has been taken on the matter. The cabinet also shall investigate reports of alleged dependency and neglect but need not notify the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky state police or county attorney or commonwealth's attorney of such reports. If the cabinet or its designated representative receives a report of abuse by other than a parent, guardian or other person exercising custodial control or supervision of a child, it shall forthwith notify the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky state police and the commonwealth or county attorney of the receipt of the report and its contents and they shall investigate the matter.

(3) School personnel or other persons listed in KRS 620.030(2) do not have the authority to conduct internal investigations in lieu of the official investigations outlined in this section.

(4) (a) If, after receiving the report, the law enforcement officer, the cabinet or its designated representative cannot gain admission to the location of the child, a search warrant shall be issued by the judge to the appropriate law enforcement official upon probable cause that the child is dependent, neglected or abused. If, pursuant to a search under a warrant a child is discovered and appears to be in imminent danger, the child may be removed by the law enforcement officer;

(b) In the event a child who is in a hospital or under the immediate care of a physician appears to be in imminent danger if he is returned to the persons having custody of him, the physician or hospital administrator may hold a child without court order provided that a request is made to the court for an emergency custody order at the earliest practicable time, not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours;

(c) Any appropriate law enforcement officer may take a child into protective custody and may hold that child in protective custody without the consent of the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision, if the officer has reasonable cause to believe that there exists an imminent danger. The officer shall, within twelve (12) hours of taking the child into such protective custody, request the court to issue an emergency custody order;

(d) When a law enforcement officer, hospital administrator, or physician takes a child into custody without the consent of the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision, he shall provide written notice to the parent or other person stating the reasons for removal of the child. Failure of the parent or other person to receive notice shall not, by itself, be cause for civil or criminal liability.

(d) Without a warrant when a misdemeanor, as defined in KRS 431.060, has been committed in his presence; or

(e) Without a warrant when a violation of KRS 189.290, 189.393, 189.520, 189.580, 511.080, or 525.070 has been committed in his presence, except that a violation of KRS 189A.010 need not be committed in his presence in order to make an arrest without a warrant if the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated KRS 189A.010.

(2) Any peace officer may arrest without warrant when he has probable cause to believe that if the person is not arrested he will present a danger or threat of danger to others if not immediately restrained and in addition he has probable cause for believing that said person has intentionally or wantonly caused physical injury to his spouse, former spouse, parent, grandparent, child, [~~or~~] stepchild or, if said person is a party of an unmarried couple which has a child in common, the other party of the couple. Within twelve (12) hours following apprehension and booking of a person arrested under this section, an officer shall return to the abused person, if the abused person is an adult, and request that a signed, written statement be made by the abused person stating that an abuse occurred and the person who committed it. If the abused person refuses to sign the statement, the charges shall be summarily dismissed and the defendant released from custody.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2) of this section a "peace officer" is a full-time sworn officer of the Kentucky state police, a full-time city policeman, a full-time county policeman, a full-time city-county policeman, a duly elected sheriff, or a full-time paid deputy sheriff.

GOVERNOR WALLACE G. WILKINSON

STATE OF THE COMMONWEALTH ADDRESS

January 21, 1988

Lt. Governor Jones, Mr. Speaker, distinguished members of the General Assembly, Mr. Chief Justice, members of the Supreme Court, honored guests -

The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky provides that the Governor may from time to time address the General Assembly on the State of the Commonwealth and recommend for their consideration measures he may deem expedient. Now is that time.

Tonight I am fulfilling my responsibility by delivering precisely what the state of this Commonwealth is. The financial state of the Commonwealth of Kentucky is miserable. No amount of rhetoric can change that simple fact. This is the result of an eroding economic base caused by a mass transfer of assets out of this Commonwealth in the last decade that has occurred because we are producing less and less and being paid less and less for it. These factors are further complicated by irresponsible fiscal policies and a credit card mentality which has permeated state government too long.

For the past 45 days, I have worked day and night to implement necessary fiscal reforms to insure that the Commonwealth is started on a new course of fiscal prudence and responsibility. Additionally, we are in the process of putting together an austere, tough, budget which continues to provide and deliver those necessary state services without the burden of additional taxation on our people.

Make no mistake about it, the budget will be controversial in many quarters. But we can not tax our way out of our problems. We must work our way out of our problems with a vibrant and growing economy that provides jobs for those who want and need them. We will present a balanced and responsible budget which does not call for additional taxes, but let me give you fair warning, it is a budget that will cause severe belt tightening and will call for all in state government to make necessary sacrifices to insure that the state regains its sound fiscal footing.

But even in this difficult time, I am happy to be here and I'm filled with a spirit of optimism. I believe in Kentuckians and our ability to get back on our feet. I am happy tonight because I can tell you that the people of Kentucky understand our problem and the people of Kentucky want something done about it. Our commitment is clear and we are firm in our resolve to change the way Kentucky has been doing business and to change the way Kentucky educates our children. As has often been the case in years past, not just in Kentucky, but in other states as well, it takes the politicians and the bureaucrats and the so-called status quo a while to realize what the people already know: That it is time for fundamental change in Kentucky. No one has ever run for office with a clearer message of goals and priorities than I did. I said the old ways wouldn't work anymore in Kentucky. I said that the leadership of the status quo would be over. It's time to institute a new way.

Over the first weeks of my administration, we have taken the initial steps towards, a new Kentucky. I wish they could be bigger steps because we have some big problems. I wish we could make the changes Kentuckians are demanding faster than we are able to. But, make no mistake about one thing, we are going to live up to our commitment to the people to change the way we do business in Kentucky. The problems we face are real and they are the result of doing things the old way. They are a result of doing things the way they've always been done. Of believing that more of the same is better. Of believing that throwing more money at the same old stuff is the answer. I didn't win the election by the largest margin of victory in the history of Kentucky by promising to maintain the status quo. I received the largest percentage of the vote in the history of Kentucky and carried more counties than anyone has ever carried because the people of Kentucky know what some of us are still learning; it's past time to fight back.

The bad news is that we are in sorry shape. The good news is that we've caught ourselves in time to do something about it. We are getting our house in order. We've quit trying to avoid our problems and we've quit trying to hide them from the people. They're too smart for that and they said it loud and clear on November 3rd. We've been telling them we have a revenue deficiency. That there are shortfalls in the budget and errors in revenue projection. I say in plain talk that we're broke, busted, tapped out.

The experts say raise the level of taxes. I say raise the level of our efforts. Our willingness to tax out weighs our capacity to tax.

Our rate of growth is the lowest among the southern states and the lowest among contiguous states. From 1981 to 1985, Kentucky had a net out-migration of 52,000 people because we are doing a poor job of providing opportunities for Kentuckians. Eighteen percent of our people live in poverty. We rank among the lowest states in per capita income. Our infant mortality rate is among the highest in the nation. Our dropout rate is among the highest in the nation. We have the highest number of adults lacking a high school education of all the states. We are losing ground in manufacturing, in science and technology, in research and development. We are losing ground in virtually every area and we risk falling further behind if we don't reverse our direction now.

First, we are dealing with the shortfall the state faces in fiscal 1988. We will have a balanced budget in 1988. We've stopped indiscriminate hiring and firing of state workers and replaced it with hiring based on need and good judgment and stability in the state work force. We've cut the excesses of government where we found them and instituted policies of fiscal responsibility and common sense. Next week I will present my budget for the next two years. It will spell out in detail how we are going to invest this state's limited resources for maximum benefit for all Kentuckians. We are going to stop neglecting parts of Kentucky and start focusing on all of Kentucky. It will be a fair budget and it will be a realistic budget.

The next order of business is to change the credit card philosophy of state government. I've instituted managerial and organization changes that will prevent the problems of the past from happening again. We've restructured revenue forecasting so that we will have realistic estimates of the money state government can expect to have. We've stopped adjusting our revenue forecasts to justify what we want to spend and we've started adjusting spending to revenue forecasts. To change our credit card philosophy, we have to realize once and for all that we cannot charge our way out of our problems, we have to work our way out of our problems.

The old way said pass a tax. Pass reforms and delay funding them. Let someone else determine how to pay for our programs. Pull the covers back over our heads and just go back to sleep. If we couldn't pay for it, we charged it like a teenager at the mall with mom and dad's credit card. We said, I'll approve that program. Here's my credit card. "I'll have those reforms. Just put it on my credit card." And the bills have arrived with a thud. That's the easy way. Just keep doing what we've been doing and don't rock the boat. The editors will like it. The politicians will like it. The bureaucrats will like it. The entrenched interests will like it.

But, it won't work. In the last four years, we've passed more taxes but continued to spend beyond our means. When are we going to figure out you don't charge your way to prosperity at home and we can't do it in state government? And this nation can't do it either. The average Kentuckian knows that and Kentucky businesses know that. They know what the status quo will not admit. That we can't afford to put our future on Mastercard and Visa. Now, we're going to stop putting money into programs that don't work. We're going to start new ones that will. We're not going to spend what we don't have. We're going to make the most of what we do have. We are going to prove to the people of this Commonwealth that we are spending properly what we do have. Before we ask them to give us more. We're tearing up the credit cards. We're going to pay as we go. We are initiating a new era of common sense with a year of common sacrifice. We're going to do it the old fashioned way. We're going to work smart and we're going to work hard.

We will begin in education. We are going to have accountability-based education in Kentucky. We will institute a measure of performance for our schools that is realistic, fair, and very clear in its intent to show us where we really are in education. Not where our best schools are. Not where our best students are. But where every school and every student is. It is impossible to improve anything until we know exactly where we are. In 1986 the Carnegie Forum on Education and the economy proposed an overhaul of how teachers teach and what students learn. We must create an environment in our classrooms where all children can learn to the best of their abilities. It is the foundation on which much of what we want to do is based.

The Carnegie report, entitled "A Nation Prepared: Teachers for the 21st Century," is the blueprint for change in education in the Dade County school system in Miami. The New York Times reports "that there is already evidence that students and teachers are happier." They started instituting changes last fall. In Rochester, New York, the public schools are instituting the approaches of the Carnegie report and the entire nation is watching their progress. As a model for educational reform, says U.S. News and World Report, Rochester is shaping up as the hottest place in America.

I will ask you to adopt a benchmark program for schools and an incentive program for schools. We will be able to reward good schools and good teachers for their efforts in a way that will produce meaningful results. We won't ask for everything we need, but we will get the program started because it's sound and allows us to be out front in education. Let's get out front for a change in the second wave of education reform. And we can do that at a cost less than what we are spending to be behind. I will not abandon the successes of the past, but neither will I allow us to invest our education dollars in programs that don't show promise for real improvement in our schools. We will propose a way to help Kentucky's most disadvantaged schools, particularly those in the fifth and seventh congressional districts and below performance school districts throughout the state.

Furthermore, I will ask for your support in creating state-of-the-art schools to serve as examples to others. These benchmark schools will illustrate how all our schools can be organized for better learning. They will be encouraged to incorporate and utilize the very latest in educational theory, technology, and classroom staffing and organization. And above all, they will recognize that all students do not learn at the same rate and we must stop teaching at the same rate. Assembly line education does not work. We are going out front in the second wave of education reform and I want Kentucky to stay there. With your help, we will.

We remain committed to the stability and improvement of our colleges and universities. Our focus in higher education must be on maximizing the potential of our resources, particularly our human resources. We must look for ways to improve faculty salaries. Closely linked to education, but a critical element of our economic development goals, is job training. Two new jobs programs will be proposed. A job certificate program, utilizing state and federal funds will be established as part of the Bluegrass State Skills Corporation.

Unemployed Kentuckians will have the resources needed to get job training and we will have accountability in the program to make sure that those people trained are, in fact, employed at the end of their training. The other program will be a customized training program, targeted to small and medium sized businesses, to enable the Commonwealth to assist Kentucky employers who are expanding their operations or introducing new technologies. We will provide job training in areas not eligible for job training partnership programs or other existing training programs.

Our days of being economically underprivileged are going to end. We are going to put jobs in our counties which will raise the standard of living for Kentuckians. And that, as much as anything else will change attitudes towards education. We are going to be imaginative, creative, competitive, and absolutely dedicated to helping Kentucky businesses grow and expand. We will continue our efforts in the international marketing place to expand current markets and create new ones. I will ask for funds to begin an infrastructure improvement program for local communities and counties to make investments in their own future economic growth and vitality. A portion of those funds will also be used to match federal dollars available for upgrading wastewater treatment facilities. The remainder will be utilized to supplement local funds as needed for the establishment of infrastructure needs, especially clean water, all of which is a must for rural economic development. We will recommend other initiatives spelled out in my Kentucky first platform such as support for research and development programs, seed and venture capital and support for new technologies.

Many of our citizens depend upon the vital services of our Cabinet for Human Resources and we will maintain those programs and services. In particular we will assign a priority to finding ways to improve our efforts in prenatal care, wellness programs for children and other early childhood health programs. You have already placed the lottery on your agenda as House Bill 1. I thank you for that. I will work with you to make sure that Kentuckians have the same opportunity most other Americans have had to vote on whether or not we will have a lottery and the revenues it will generate for senior citizens and early childhood development programs. In short, we are going to continue to pursue the goals we set out when I campaigned for Governor. We won't be able to do everything I would have liked right away. I'm willing to make that sacrifice because it is more important right now to get our fiscal ship of state in order and that is what I'm doing. We may be on our knees, but we're not yet down for the count. Kentucky is coming back.

Next week, I will be back and we'll discuss how we will balance the budget for fiscal 1988 and the specifics of the budget for the next two years. The fiscal 88-90 budget is going to be a lean budget, but is going to be a fair budget. It is going to deal with necessities and important priorities not luxuries or convenience. The days of false promises, a credit card mentality, and illusionary figures can no longer be a part of Kentucky's budget and spending process. The old ways in state government of passing unfunded programs, of forecasting revenues that will never exist, and continuing to put off payment of existing obligations must end and it must end immediately. A year of common sacrifice in return for a decade of common sense is what I am initiating.

The rewards we will reap are great, but first we have to right ourselves. The reward for our sacrifice is hope, optimism, and opportunity. It is the chance to compete again for the prosperity this nation offers. Our reward will be a new Kentucky ready for the challenges of the future. A new Kentucky. A Kentucky first in education. A Kentucky first in economic development. We're going to have the common sense and the good sense to do it right this time.

Representative Stumbo moved that the Joint Session of the House and Senate be dissolved. Agreed.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Floor Amendment No. 1 to HB 398, by Representative Napier:

Amend printed copy of HB 398 on page 45, line 1, by adding after the "." the following:

"Section 19. KRS 67A.600 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the intention of KRS 67A.360 to 67A.690 that the fund herein created shall supersede and take the place of the pension fund established under KRS 95.851 to 95.884 inclusive, for cities of the second class becoming urban-county governments, which sections shall be without force and effect, insofar as applicable to such urban-county governments, but said sections shall remain in full force and effect as relates to other cities of the second class.

(2) The fund created by KRS 67A.360 to 67A.690 shall succeed to and assume as of July 1, 1974, all assets of such pension funds, and shall continue to make payment of all annuities, pensions, and benefits granted by superseded pension funds at the rates previously fixed and under the conditions previously in effect, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) (a) Persons who retired under the provisions of KRS 95.520 to 95.620, or 95.851 to 95.884 in a city which subsequently was merged into an urban-county government, or their surviving spouses or eligible children, shall be granted an annual cost-of-living increase in their retirement or survivor's annuity of four percent (4%) compounded, from the date of retirement until the effective date of this Act. The survivor's annuity shall be determined as if the retired member's annuity had been increased annually by four percent (4%) compounded from the date of retirement until the date of death. For purposes of calculation, the member's or survivor's first increase shall occur after the member was retired for one (1) year or attained age fifty-one (51), whichever was later, or would have been retired one (1) year or reached the age of fifty-one (51), whichever was later, in the event the member died before being retired one (1) year or reaching the age of fifty-one (51).

(b) A retired member or his surviving spouse or surviving children below the age of eighteen (18) shall receive a lump sum retroactive payment of the annuity increase by August 1, 1988. The retroactive payment to the surviving spouse or eligible children shall include the retroactive payment due the deceased member. If both the member and the spouse are deceased and there are no eligible surviving children, no retroactive payment shall be made.

(c) The retroactive payment shall be a net figure, determined by subtracting from the figure determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection annuity increases granted to the retired member or surviving spouse or eligible surviving children pursuant to state law or city or urban-county ordinance or policy in effect at the time the increases were granted.

(d) After receipt of the retroactive increases, persons affected by this section shall be granted the same annual increase granted to retirees pursuant to KRS 67A.690(1), and the annuity on which this cost-of-living increment is based shall be the annuity level reached through the addition of annual compounded four percent (4%) increases pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection, but not less than the annuity level in effect prior to July 15, 1988.

Section 20. KRS 67A.690 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a member has been retired for one (1) year or attained fifty-one (51) years of age, whichever is later or when he would have been retired for one (1) year or attained fifty-one (51) years of age in the event the member is deceased, the board shall increase his retirement annuity or the annuity paid to his widow or dependent children by not less than two percent (2%) nor more than five percent (5%) per year, compounded annually; and such increase shall be determined and granted annually thereafter by the board.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) any member who retires under disability shall be entitled to an increase in his retirement annuity, or in the event he is deceased, in the annuity paid to his widow or dependent children by two percent (2%) per year; and such increase shall be granted annually thereafter by the board. Such increase shall not be compounded and shall be based on the original annuity until and including the date upon which the member would have been retired for one (1) year or the date upon which he has attained fifty-one (51) years of age, whichever is later, or would have been retired for one (1) year or would have attained fifty-one (51) years of age in the event the member is deceased. Thereafter, the annuity paid to the member or to his widow or to the guardian of his minor children shall be increased as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) A member who retired pursuant to the provisions of KRS 67A.360 to 67A.690 prior to July 15, 1980, or his surviving spouse or eligible surviving children, shall be granted an annual cost-of-living increase in the retirement or survivor's annuity of four percent (4%) compounded from the date of retirement until the effective date of this Act. For purposes of calculation, the member's or survivors first increase shall occur after the member was retired for one (1) year or attained the age of fifty-one (51), whichever was later, or would have been retired one (1) year or reached the age of fifty-one (51) whichever was later, in the event the member died before being retired one (1) year or reaching the age of fifty-one (51).

(b) A retired member or his surviving spouse, or children below the age of eighteen (18) or age twenty-three (23), if engaged in full-time education, shall receive a lump sum retroactive payment of the annuity increase by August 1, 1988. The retroactive payment to the surviving spouse or eligible children shall include the retroactive payment due to the deceased member. If both the member and the spouse are deceased, and there are no eligible surviving children, no retroactive payment shall be made.

(c) The retroactive payment shall be a net figure, determined by subtracting from the figure determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection annuity increases granted to the retired member or surviving spouse or eligible children pursuant to subsections (1) or (2) of this section.

(d) After receipt of the retroactive increases, persons of age fifty-one (51) or more affected by this subsection shall be granted the same annual increase granted to retirees who retired July 15, 1980 or thereafter, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, and the annuity on which this cost-of-living increment is based shall be the annuity level reached through the addition of annual compounded four percent (4%) increases pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection, but not less than the annuity level in effect prior to July 15, 1988.";

HB 176. AN ACT relating to teachers retirement and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 161.600 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective July 1, 1978, a member of the retirement system may qualify for service retirement by meeting either of the following requirements:

(a) Attainment of age fifty-five (55) years and completion of five (5) years of Kentucky service, two (2) years of which are subsequent to July 1, 1941;

(b) Completion of twenty-seven (27) [~~thirty (30)~~] years of Kentucky service, two (2) years of which are subsequent to July 1, 1941. [~~A member having less than thirty (30) years of service may retire with benefits reduced according to the following schedule:~~

~~29 years - 92% of benefits~~

~~28 years - 84% of benefits~~

~~27 years - 76% of benefits; and~~

~~(c)~~] Benefits will be reduced in accordance with KRS 161.620 for persons qualifying under paragraph (a) of this subsection who are less than age sixty (60) years.

(2) Any member shall be automatically retired as of July 1 next following his seventieth (70th) birthday, providing, however, that a member reaching age seventy (70) and having fewer than five (5) years of Kentucky service, two (2) years of which are subsequent to July 1, 1941, shall receive a refund of the member's accumulated contributions as provided in KRS 161.470(6) in lieu of a retirement annuity.

(3) Any person who has been a teacher in Kentucky for twenty-seven (27) years or more and who withdraws from teaching after July 1, 1941, and before reaching the age of sixty-five (65) years, may continue to pay into the fund each year, until the end of the fiscal year in which he reaches the age of sixty-five (65) years, the current contribution rate based on the annual compensation received during his last full year as a teacher. If he so elects he shall at any time be entitled to receive a retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.620. No member shall make contributions as provided for above if such member is at the same time making contributions to another retirement system in Kentucky supported wholly or in part by public funds.

(4) Service credit in the Kentucky employes retirement system, the state police retirement system, the legislators' retirement plan, the county employes or the judicial retirement system may be used in meeting the service requirements of subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, provided such service is subsequent to July 1, 1956.

(5) No retirement annuity shall be effective until written application and option election forms are filed with the retirement office in accordance with regulations of the board of trustees.

(6) The surviving spouse of an active contributing member, if named as beneficiary of the member's account, may purchase retirement credit that the member was eligible to purchase prior to his death.

Section 2. KRS 161.620 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The retirement allowance, in the form of a life annuity with refundable balance, of a member retiring for service shall be calculated as follows:

(a) For retirements effective July 1, 1980, and thereafter, the annual allowance for each year of service performed prior to July 1, 1941, shall be one hundred dollars ($100) and the annual allowance for each year of service performed after July 1, 1941, shall be two percent (2%) of the final average salary. Actuarial discounts due to age or service credit at retirement may be applied as provided in this section;

(b) For retirements effective January 1, 1984, and thereafter, the annual allowance shall be determined as set out in subsection (1)(a) of this section, except that the allowance for service performed after January 1, 1984, shall be valued at the annual rate of two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of the final average salary for all members not employed by a state university or college. For purposes of implementing the change in the value of a year of service, the board of trustees shall establish by regulation, the value of services performed during the 1983-84 fiscal year but in no case shall the value of service performed during the 1983-84 fiscal year exceed two and one quarter percent (2.25%); and

(c) If the member has five (5) years or more of Kentucky service, but less than twenty-seven (27) [~~thirty (30)~~] years of such service credit, the allowance shall be reduced actuarially for the number of years the member is less than sixty (60) years of age or by the number of years the service credit is less than twenty-seven (27) [~~thirty (30)~~] years, whichever is the lesser number. The board of trustees shall adopt an actuarial table of discounts for the purpose of calculating these allowances.

(2) Effective July 1, 1980, and annually on July 1 thereafter, the retirement allowance of each retired member and of each beneficiary of a retirement option who has been retired at least ten (10) months shall be increased in the amount of one percent (1%).

(3) Any member qualifying for retirement under a life annuity with refundable balance shall be entitled to receive an annual allowance amounting to not less than one hundred forty dollars ($140) effective July 1, 1986 and one hundred eighty dollars ($180) effective July 1, 1987, multiplied by the service credit years of the teacher, except that no retired teacher who was sixty (60) years of age or older at retirement, and who has five (5) years or more service credit in a position covered by the teachers' retirement system shall receive a monthly benefit of less than seventy-five dollars ($75). The above minimums shall apply to the retired members receiving annuity payments and to those members retiring on or subsequent to the effective dates listed in this subsection. Eligibility for the benefits provided under this subsection shall be determined after applying any other cost-of-living adjustments provided by statute to the June, 1986 and June, 1987 annuity payment of the member.

(4) The minimum provided in this section shall apply in the case of teachers retired or retiring under an option other than a life annuity with refundable balance in the same proportion to the benefits of the teacher and his beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided in the duly adopted option tables at the time of the member's retirement.

(5) Effective July 1, 1986, the monthly allowance of each member retired on or before July 1, 1985, and each recipient of a retirement option of such retired members shall be increased in the amount of one percent (1%) of the monthly allowance for each year the member has been retired up to a maximum of five (5) years. The percentage increases shall be based on an assumed maximum allowance of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month of annuity in effect the previous month.

(6) Effective July 1, 1987, the monthly allowance of each member retired on or before July 1, 1986, and each recipient of a retirement option of such retired member shall be increased in the amount of three percent (3%) of the monthly allowance. The percentage increases shall be based on an assumed maximum allowance of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month of annuity in effect the previous month.

(7) Effective July 1, 1980, monthly payments of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be payable for the benefit of an adult child of a member retired for service when the child's mental condition is sufficient to cause dependency on the member at the time of retirement. Eligibility for this payment shall continue for the life of such child or until such time as the mental condition creating the dependency no longer exists. The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency and may require formal application or information relating thereto.

(8) The cost of providing the statutory cost-of-living increases for retired members during 1980-82, 1982-84 and 1986-88 and the cost of implementing the increases provided under subsection (3) of this section shall be funded by annual appropriations from the state on an amortized basis over the lifetime of the recipients. When the earnings on investments of the retired teacher savings exceeds the actuarial assumed rate of interest, the board of trustees may allocate such excess earnings toward the funding of the amortized payments required during the 1986-88 biennium for the cost-of-living increases approved under subsections (5) and (6) of this section.

Section 3. KRS 161.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective July 1, 1988 [~~1984~~], each member shall contribute to the retirement system nine and eight hundred fifty-five thousandths percent (9.855%) [~~nine and six-tenths percent (9.6%)~~] of annual compensation except that university faculty members shall contribute eight and three hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (8.375%) [~~eight and twelve-hundredths percent (8.12%)~~] of annual compensation. The contribution of members shall not exceed these applicable percentages on annual compensation. When a member retires, if it is determined that he has made contributions on a salary in excess of the amount to be included for the purpose of calculating his final average salary, any excess contribution shall be refunded to him in a lump sum at the time of the payment of his first retirement allowance.

(2) Each public board, institution or agency, as listed in KRS 161.220(4)(a) through (f) shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, pick up the employe contributions required by this section for all compensation earned after August 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining tax treatment under the United States Internal Revenue Code and KRS 141.010(9). However, each public board, institution or agency shall continue to withhold federal and state income taxes based upon these contributions and hold them in a separate account until the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that, pursuant to Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, these contributions shall not be included as gross income of the employe until such time as the contributions are distributed or made available to the employe. The picked up employe contribution shall satisfy all obligations to the retirement system satisfied prior to August 1, 1982 by the employe contribution, and the picked up employe contribution shall be in lieu of an employe contribution. Each employer shall pay these picked up employe contributions from the same source of funds which is used to pay earnings to the employe. The employe shall have no option to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system. Employe contributions picked up after August 1, 1982 shall be treated for all purposes of KRS 161.220 to 161.714 in the same manner and to the same extent as employe contributions made prior to August 1, 1982.

Section 4. Whereas, retirement annuity adjustments are implemented at the beginning of a fiscal year, an emergency is declared to exist and the provisions of this Act shall become effective July 1, 1988.

The board of trustees shall adopt an actuarial table of discounts for the purpose of calculating these allowances.

(2) Effective July 1, 1980, and annually on July 1 thereafter, the retirement allowance of each retired member and of each beneficiary of a retirement option who has been retired at least ten (10) months shall be increased in the amount of one percent (1%).

(3) Any member qualifying for retirement under a life annuity with refundable balance shall be entitled to receive an annual allowance amounting to not less than one hundred forty dollars ($140) effective July 1, 1986 and one hundred eighty dollars ($180) effective July 1, 1987, multiplied by the service credit years of the teacher, except that no retired teacher who was sixty (60) years of age or older at retirement, and who has five (5) years or more service credit in a position covered by the teachers' retirement system shall receive a monthly benefit of less than seventy-five dollars ($75). The above minimums shall apply to the retired members receiving annuity payments and to those members retiring on or subsequent to the effective dates listed in this subsection. Eligibility for the benefits provided under this subsection shall be determined after applying any other cost-of-living adjustments provided by statute to the June, 1986 and June, 1987 annuity payment of the member.

(4) The minimum provided in this section shall apply in the case of teachers retired or retiring under an option other than a life annuity with refundable balance in the same proportion to the benefits of the teacher and his beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided in the duly adopted option tables at the time of the member's retirement.

(5) Effective July 1, 1986, the monthly allowance of each member retired on or before July 1, 1985, and each recipient of a retirement option of such retired members shall be increased in the amount of one percent (1%) of the monthly allowance for each year the member has been retired up to a maximum of five (5) years. The percentage increases shall be based on an assumed maximum allowance of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month of annuity in effect the previous month.

(6) Effective July 1, 1987, the monthly allowance of each member retired on or before July 1, 1986, and each recipient of a retirement option of such retired member shall be increased in the amount of three percent (3%) of the monthly allowance. The percentage increases shall be based on an assumed maximum allowance of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month of annuity in effect the previous month.

(7) Effective July 1, 1980, monthly payments of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be payable for the benefit of an adult child of a member retired for service when the child's mental condition is sufficient to cause dependency on the member at the time of retirement. Eligibility for this payment shall continue for the life of such child or until such time as the mental condition creating the dependency no longer exists. The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency and may require formal application or information relating thereto.

(8) The cost of providing the statutory cost-of-living increases for retired members during 1980-82, 1982-84 and 1986-88 and the cost of implementing the increases provided under subsection (3) of this section shall be funded by annual appropriations from the state on an amortized basis over the lifetime of the recipients. When the earnings on investments of the retired teacher savings exceeds the actuarial assumed rate of interest, the board of trustees may allocate such excess earnings toward the funding of the amortized payments required during the 1986-88 biennium for the cost-of-living increases approved under subsections (5) and (6) of this section.

Section 3. KRS 161.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective August [~~July~~] 1, 1988 [~~1984~~], each member shall contribute to the retirement system nine and eight hundred fifty-five thousandths percent (9.855%) [~~nine and six-tenths percent (9.6%)~~] of annual compensation except that university faculty members shall contribute eight and three hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (8.375%) [~~eight and twelve-hundredths percent (8.12%)~~] of annual compensation. The contribution of members shall not exceed these applicable percentages on annual compensation. When a member retires, if it is determined that he has made contributions on a salary in excess of the amount to be included for the purpose of calculating his final average salary, any excess contribution shall be refunded to him in a lump sum at the time of the payment of his first retirement allowance.

(2) Each public board, institution or agency, as listed in KRS 161.220(4)(a) through (f) shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, pick up the employe contributions required by this section for all compensation earned after August 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining tax treatment under the United States Internal Revenue Code and KRS 141.010(9). However, each public board, institution or agency shall continue to withhold federal and state income taxes based upon these contributions and hold them in a separate account until the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that, pursuant to Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, these contributions shall not be included as gross income of the employe until such time as the contributions are distributed or made available to the employe. The picked up employe contribution shall satisfy all obligations to the retirement system satisfied prior to August 1, 1982 by the employe contribution, and the picked up employe contribution shall be in lieu of an employe contribution. Each employer shall pay these picked up employe contributions from the same source of funds which is used to pay earnings to the employe. The employe shall have no option to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system. Employe contributions picked up after August 1, 1982 shall be treated for all purposes of KRS 161.220 to 161.714 in the same manner and to the same extent as employe contributions made prior to August 1, 1982.

The average daily attendance of any exceptional child not assigned to a specific grade shall be added to the average daily attendance of grades four (4) through twelve (12) before classroom units are allotted under this paragraph. Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, the allotments of classroom units in this subsection shall be made on the average daily attendance for the end of the previous school year in public school grades kindergarten through twelve (12) except as provided in subsections (9) and (10) of this section.

(3) (a) Effective until July 1, 1986, the superintendent of public instruction shall enforce maximum class sizes for every academic course requirement of the state board of education in kindergarten and grades one (1) through six (6) except in vocal and instrumental music, art, physical education and special education classes. The maximum number of pupils enrolled in a class shall be calculated by adding four (4) to the average daily attendance figure upon which funding of the unit is appropriated in the biennial budget. The superintendent of public instruction, upon approval of the state board of education, shall adopt regulations for enforcing this provision. These regulations shall include procedures whereby a superintendent may request an exemption from the state board of education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. A district shall not receive in any one (1) year exemptions for more classes than enroll twenty percent (20%) of the pupils in kindergarten and grades one (1) through six (6).

(b) Effective July 1, 1986, the superintendent of public instruction shall enforce maximum class sizes for every academic course requirement of the state board of education in kindergarten and grades one (1) through eight (8) except in vocal and instrumental music, art, physical education and special education classes. Except in classes combining pupils from two (2) or more grade levels, the maximum number of pupils enrolled in a class shall be calculated by adding three (3) to the average daily attendance figure upon which funding of the unit is appropriated in the biennial budget in kindergarten and grades one (1) through six (6) and by adding four (4) to the average daily attendance figure upon which funding of the unit is appropriated in the biennial budget in grades seven (7) and eight (8). The superintendent of public instruction, upon approval of the state board of education, shall adopt regulations for enforcing this provision. These regulations shall include procedures whereby a superintendent may request an exemption from the state board of education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. A district shall not receive in any one (1) year exemptions for more classes than enroll twenty percent (20%) of the pupils in kindergarten and grades one (1) through eight (8).

(4) In classes with combined grades, the maximum class size shall be the average daily attendance upon which funding is appropriated for the lowest assigned grade in the class. There shall be no exceptions to the maximum class size for combined classes.

(5) If a local school district through its admission and release committee determines that an appropriate program in the least restrictive environment for a particular handicapped child includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency within the state or a public or private agency in another state, then the school district shall count this as average daily attendance in a public school the time that such child is in attendance at such school or agency, contingent upon approval by the state superintendent of public instruction and pursuant to KRS 158.130.

(6) Pupils attending a center for child learning and study established under an agreement pursuant to KRS 65.210 to 65.300 shall, for the purpose of calculating average daily attendance, be considered as in attendance in the school district in which the child legally resides and which is party to the agreement. For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, teachers employed in such a center shall be considered as employes of each school district which is a party to the agreement.

(7) Allotments of classroom units except those allotted in accordance with subsection (8) of this section, shall be increased when the average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades one (1) through twelve (12) in any district for the first two (2) months of the current school year is greater than the average daily attendance of the district in kindergarten and grades one (1) through twelve (12) for the first two (2) months of the previous school year. The total number of classroom units allotted the district shall be increased by the percent of increase. The average daily attendance in kindergarten is the kindergarten full-time equivalent pupils in average daily attendance.

(8) If the percentage of attendance of any school district shall have been reduced more than two percent (2%) during the previous school year, the number of classroom units allotted the district, except those allotted in accordance with subsection (7) of this section, for the current school year shall be increased by the difference in the percentage of attendance for the two (2) years immediately prior to the current school year less two percent (2%).

(9) (a) Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, in allotting classroom units for vocational education, one (1) classroom unit shall be allotted for each full-time teacher, and a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each less than full-time teacher of vocational classes that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education; a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each teacher employed to teach part-time or short unit classes for less than a school day or a school year that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education. The classroom units allotted under this subsection shall not exceed the units provided in the biennial budget without approval of the governor.

(b) Instructional salaries for vocational agriculture classes shall be allotted for twelve (12) months per year. Vocational agriculture teachers shall be responsible for the following program of instruction during the time period beyond the regular school term established by the local board of education: supervision and instruction of students in agriculture experience programs; group and individual instruction of farmers and agribusinessmen; supervision of student members of agricultural organizations who are involved in leadership training or other activity required by state or federal law; or any program of vocational agriculture established by the office of vocational education in the department of education. Salary allotments for vocational agriculture units shall be computed by proportionately increasing the salary schedule allocation based on the regular one hundred eighty-five (185) day school year for teachers with comparable qualifications and experience. During extended employment, no vocational agriculture teacher shall receive salary on a day that the teacher is scheduled to attend an institution of higher education class which could be credited toward meeting any certification requirement.

(c) Each teacher of agriculture employed twelve (12) months per year shall submit an annual plan for summer program to the local school superintendent for approval. The summer plan shall include: a list of tasks to be performed, purposes for each task, and time to be spent on each task. Approval by the local school superintendent shall be in compliance with the guidelines developed by the state department of education. The supervision and accountability of teachers of vocational agriculture's summer programs shall be the responsibility of the local school superintendent. The local school superintendent shall submit to the state superintendent of public instruction a completed report of summer tasks for each vocational agriculture teacher employed for twelve (12) months. Twenty percent (20%) of the approved twelve (12) month vocational agriculture programs shall be audited annually by the state department of education to determine that the summer plan has been properly executed.

(10) (a) Through the 1987-88 school year, one (1) classroom unit shall be included upon the employment of each teacher approved to teach exceptional children in accordance with the provisions of law and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. The classroom units allotted under this subsection shall not exceed the units provided in the biennial budget without approval of the governor;

(b) Effective with the 1988-89 school year and each year thereafter, one (1) classroom unit for exceptional children properly identified in the prior year in accordance with the provisions of law and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education shall be allotted for each six (6) children identified as emotionally disturbed, hearing impaired, trainable mentally handicapped, or severely and profoundly mentally handicapped, each sixty (60) children identified as having communication disorders of speech and language but not counted in any other area of exceptionality, and each twelve (12) additional exceptional children in all other categories referenced in KRS 157.200. Portions of units shall be allotted by tenths of units when the number of children do not total the required number for a whole unit. Calculations for units for exceptional children shall not be based on average daily attendance. A local school district may organize and administer classroom units to best meet the needs of its exceptional children pursuant to KRS 157.224(2). The superintendent of public instruction shall enforce minimum and maximum class sizes as provided in administrative regulations. No local school district shall receive classroom units for exceptional children for more than fifteen percent (15%) of their prior year's average daily attendance for the 1988-89 school year and for more than twelve percent (12%) of their prior year's average daily attendance for the 1989-90 school year and each year thereafter without state board of education approval based on unique or unusual district characteristics including but not limited to federal census population being substantially higher than the district's student enrollment;

(c) In addition to the classroom units allotted in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if a local school district, through its admission and release committee, determines that the most appropriate and least restrictive individual educational program for a particular handicapped child includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency, the school district shall be reimbursed in addition to the amount distributed under KRS 157.390, a pro rata allotment for those pupils under contract. The pro rata amount shall be calculated by dividing the district's average salary allotted for one hundred eighty-five (185) days plus the current expense and capital outlay allotment per classroom unit by the maximum number of pupils required by regulations for the pupil's specific type of classroom unit; and

(d) The superintendent of public instruction shall limit approval of additional private agencies for participation in state funding for the above-cited program to those funds appropriated for this purpose in each biennial budget.

(11) (a) In allotting classroom units for home and hospital instruction, one (1) unit excluding the capital outlay allotment, shall be allotted for each ten (10) children in average daily attendance in the current school year who have been properly identified according to state board of education regulations. Attendance shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 157.270 and shall be reported monthly on forms provided by the department of education; and

(b) Pursuant to regulations of the department of education, local school districts shall be reimbursed for home and hospital instruction for pupils unable to attend regular school sessions because of short term health impairments. A reimbursement formula shall be established by regulation to include such factors as a reasonable per hour, per child allotment for teacher instructional time, with a maximum number of funded hours per week, a reasonable allotment for teaching supplies and equipment, a reasonable allotment for travel expenses to and from instructional assignments, but such formula shall not include an allotment for capital outlay. Attendance shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 157.270 and shall be reported monthly on forms provided by the department of education.

(12) Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, in allotting classroom units for administrative and special instructional services, the total number of classroom units allotted in subsections (2), (9), and (10) of this section shall be divided by nine (9) and the quotient shall be the number of classroom units allotted to the district under this subsection.

(13) In allotting classroom units for supervisors of instruction, one-half (1/2) of a classroom unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted twenty-five (25) through forty-nine and nine-tenths (49.9) classroom units under subsections (2), (9) and (10) of this section; one (1) unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted fifty (50) to one hundred (100) classroom units, one (1) unit shall be allotted for each one hundred (100) classroom units, or major fraction thereof, in districts allotted more than one hundred (100) classroom units under these subsections.

(14) Unless otherwise provided by the general assembly in a budget bill, in allotting classroom units for directors of pupil personnel, one (1) classroom unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted thirty-six (36) to one hundred sixty-five and nine-tenths (165.9) classroom units under subsection (2) of this section and a unit for each additional two hundred and sixty-six (266) classroom units or fraction thereof allotted under subsection (2) of this section. For districts having fewer than thirty-six (36) classroom units, a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted.

(15) In allotting classroom units for superintendent, one (1) unit shall be allotted each school district.

(16) In allotting classroom units for gifted and talented children, the superintendent of public instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, may allot units for gifted and talented children. The classroom units allotted under this subsection shall not exceed the units provided in the biennial budget without the approval of the governor.

(17) Effective with the 1988-89 school year and each year thereafter, in allotting classroom units for related services for exceptional children, one (1) classroom unit shall be allotted for each five hundred (500) exceptional children properly identified in the prior year in accordance with the provisions of law and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. Classroom units for related services for exceptional children shall be used for approved certified or licensed personnel to provide the support services required to assist exceptional children to benefit from special education. Units may be used for special education directors or supervisors certified in special education and personnel to conduct the related services defined in KRS 157.200(4). Units shall be allotted proportionately and districts may provide related services through joint agreements. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a district from using units generated in subsections (12) and (13) of this section for related services for exceptional children.

(18) Units for elementary school counselors shall be allotted on the basis of one (1) unit for each five hundred (500) elementary students.

Rank II. Those holding regular certificates and who have a master's degree in a subject field approved by the state board of education or equivalent preparation.

Rank III. Those holding regular certificates and who have an approved four-year college degree or the equivalent.

Rank IV. Those holding certificates and who have ninety-six (96) to one hundred twenty-eight (128) semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent; provided, however, that persons holding emergency certificates shall not be classified higher than this rank for calculation of the amount to be included in the foundation program.

Rank V. Those holding certificates and who have sixty-four (64) to ninety-five (95) semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent.

(b) In determining ranks, the superintendent of public instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, shall classify teachers who hold valid certificates in the respective ranks according to approved college semester hours of credit. The superintendent of public instruction, in defining preparation for certain types of vocational teachers as equivalent to college training, shall give consideration to apprenticeship training and industrial experience.

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall allow the state board of education by regulation to reclassify downward any teachers currently in Ranks I or II.

(2) (a) The superintendent of public instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, shall classify teachers in each rank by their years of experience for purposes of the state teacher salary schedule as follows:

1. Zero to three (3) years;

2. Four (4) to nine (9) years;

3. Ten (10) to fourteen (14) years; and

4. Fifteen (15) or more years.

(b) Effective July 1, 1987, the years of categories of experience shall be as follows:

(3) (a) The state salary schedule shall be amended to increase the base pay five percent (5%) in 1986-87 and an additional five percent (5%) in 1987-88;

(b) In addition, in 1986-87 the category with ten (10) to fourteen (14) years of experience shall also receive a three hundred dollar ($300) increase in base pay and the category with fifteen (15) or more years of experience shall receive a seven hundred ($700) increase in base pay; and

(c) In 1987-88 the category with ten (10) to fourteen (14) years of experience shall receive an additional five hundred dollars ($500) in base pay, the category with fifteen (15) to nineteen (19) years of experience shall receive an additional increase of nine hundred dollars ($900) in base pay, and the category with twenty (20) or more years of experience shall receive an additional increase of one thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) in base pay.

(4) (a) The rank and experience of the teacher shall be determined on September 15. If a teacher is certified for a higher rank by the department of education between September 15 and January 31, then five-tenths (0.5) of the classroom unit shall be based on the September 15 rank of the teacher and five-tenths (0.5) of the unit shall be based on the rank earned by the teacher by January 31 of the school year.

(b) The amount to be included in each school year in the foundation program of a district for teachers' salaries shall be determined by multiplying the number of teachers in each rank, not to exceed the number of classroom units allowed, by the amount set forth in the biennial budget schedule for each rank and experience for a term of one hundred eighty-five (185) days. Provided, the amount to be included for units allotted under KRS 157.360(9), (11), (12), (13) and (14) shall be increased proportionately if the personnel for such units are employed for longer than the regular school term and such employment is approved by the superintendent of public instruction under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board. Where the actual number of teachers employed by the district varies from the number allowed under the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440, the number to be included in each rank shall be in the same ratio that the number of teachers actually in each rank is to the total number of teachers employed.

(5) The amount to be included in the foundation program for other current expenses shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom units by the amounts set forth in the biennial budget.

(6) The amount to be included in the foundation program for capital outlay shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom units except those allotted pursuant to KRS 157.360(10)(c) and (d) by the amounts set forth in the biennial budget.

(7) The amount to be included in the foundation program of each district for transportation shall be determined by multiplying the aggregate attendance of transported children by the allowable cost per pupil per day for that district determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 157.370.

(8) The total amount of money distributable to each district from the public school foundation program fund shall be the sum of the allotments in subsections (4), (5), (6) and (7) of this section.

The Committee on Education reported HB 312 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Consent Calendar.

HB 413. AN ACT relating to consumer protection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 367.395 is amended to read as follows:

As used in KRS 367.397 to 367.407 unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Club" means any buying club or vacation club.

(2) "Contract" means any oral or written agreement by which one becomes a member of a club.

(3) "Buying club" means any person, corporation, unincorporated association, or other organization which for a consideration provides or purports to provide its members or the members of any other buying club with the ability to purchase goods or services at discount prices; except that such organization shall not include any buying club in which persons receive discount buying services incidentally as part of a package of services provided to, or available to, such individuals on account of membership in such organization which is not organized for the profit of any person or corporation or which does not have as one of its primary purposes or businesses the provision of discount buying services.

(4) "Member" or "membership" means a status by which any natural person is entitled to any of the benefits of a club.

(5) "Prepayment" means any payment for service or merchandise made before the service is rendered or the merchandise is received. It is not a prepayment if a payment for service is made on the same day the service is rendered. Money received by a club from a financial institution upon assignment of a contract shall be considered prepayment when and to the extent the member is required to make prepayments to the financial institution pursuant to the contract.

(6) "Vacation club" means any person, corporation, unincorporated association, or other organization which for a consideration provides or purports to provide its members or the members of any other vacation club with any vacation, vacation plan or services connected with the scheduling of a vacation at discount prices.

Section 2. KRS 367.397 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has elected to become a member of a club may cancel such membership by:

(a) Giving written notice any time before midnight of the fifth business day following the date on which membership was attained. Such cancellation shall be without liability on the part of the member and shall entitle the member to a refund of the entire consideration paid for the contract; or

(b) Giving written notice any time after the fifth business day following the date on which membership was attained. Such cancellation shall be on a pro rata daily basis, the member being responsible only for that portion of the contract consideration representing the time elapsed on the contract and being entitled to a refund of that portion of the fee representing the days remaining on the contract at date of cancellation. If the contract duration is for the life of the member, the daily value shall be determined by standard actuarial tables.

(2) Notice of cancellation shall [~~must~~] be in writing and delivered personally or by mail. If given by mail, the notice is effective upon deposit in a mailbox, properly addressed and postage paid. Notice of cancellation need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates, by any form of written expression, the intention of the member not to be bound by the contract. If delivered personally, the notice is to be accepted by any agent or employe of the club, and a receipt for the notice shall [~~must~~] be given by that agent or employe to the person cancelling.

(3) The entitled refund shall be delivered to the member within ten (10) days after notice of cancellation is given.

(4) Rights of cancellation may not be waived or otherwise surrendered.

(5) Cancellation shall not relieve the member from paying for any vacation or merchandise which has been purchased or ordered prior to the date of cancellation.

Section 3. KRS 367.399 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A copy of every contract shall be delivered to the member at the time the contract is signed. Every contract shall [~~must~~] be in writing, shall [~~must~~] be signed by the member, shall [~~must~~] designate the date on which the member signed the contract, and shall [~~must~~] state, clearly and conspicuously in bold-face type of a minimum size of fourteen (14) points, the following: "MEMBERS' RIGHT TO CANCEL"

"If you wish to cancel this contract, you may cancel by delivering or mailing a written notice to the company. Certified mail would provide greater protection than first-class mail, but is not necessary. If you deliver the notice personally, you are entitled to a receipt. Your notice must make known that you do not wish to be bound by the contract. If the notice is delivered or mailed before midnight of the fifth business day after you sign this contract, you are entitled to a refund of the entire consideration paid for the contract. Other cancellation entitles you to a pro-rata refund for those days remaining on the contract. The notice must be delivered or mailed to (insert name and mailing address of company). If you cancel, the club is required to return, within ten (10) days of the date on which you give notice of cancellation, any payments you have made."

(2) Until the buying club or vacation club has complied with this section, the member may cancel the contract by notifying the [~~buying~~] club in any manner and by any means of his intention to cancel and is then entitled to a refund of the entire consideration paid for the contract.

Section 4. KRS 367.403 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every [~~buying~~] club that has a membership fee in excess of thirty-five dollars ($35.00) shall maintain a bond of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state.

(2) The bond required by this section shall be in favor of the attorney general of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the benefit of any member who suffers loss of prepayment made pursuant to a contract entered into after July 15, 1982 due to insolvency of the club or the cessation of business by the club, or failure by the club to perform under any contract. A copy of the bond shall be filed with the attorney general prior to the making of any membership contract by a club. Any person claiming against the bond may maintain an action at law against the club and the surety. Failure to so maintain a bond as required by this section shall make the principals of any club personally liable for the claims of members.

(3) The aggregate liability of the surety to all persons for all breaches of the conditions of the bonds provided herein shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond.

The Committee on Energy reported HB 367 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Consent Calendar.

HB 367, AN ACT relating to the regulation of water districts.

Section 1. KRS 278.015 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of KRS Chapter 74, any water district, combined water, gas or sewer district, or water commission shall be a public utility and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission in the same manner and to the same extent as any other utility as defined in KRS 278.010, except:

(1) As provided in Section 4 of this Act; or

(2) When a wholesale supplier selling water to a water district, combined water, gas or sewer district, or water commission increases its rates, the water district, combined water, gas or sewer district shall have the authority to increase its rates commensurate with the wholesale supplier without prior approval by the commission.

Within twenty (20) days after any such increase in rates, the district shall file its revised tariffs with the commission, together with a copy of the notice from its wholesale supplier showing the increase in the rate charged to the utility, and a statement of the volume of purchased water used to calculate the increase in rates. The commission shall approve the filing or establish revised rates by order no later than thirty (30) days after the above documents are filed with it. Prior to or at the time of the first billing of the new rates, the district shall give notice to its customers of the increase.

Section 2. KRS 278.012 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, any water association formed for the purpose of furnishing water services to the general public pursuant to KRS Chapter 273 is deemed to be and shall be a public utility and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission in the same manner and to the same extent as any other utility as defined in KRS 278.010, except:

(1) As provided in Section 4 of this Act; or

(2) When a wholesale supplier selling water to a water association increases its rates, the water association shall have the authority to increase its rates commensurate with the wholesale supplier without prior approval by the commission.

Within twenty (20) days after any such increase in rates, the association shall file its revised tariffs with the commission, together with a copy of the notice from its wholesale supplier showing the increase in the rate charged to the utility, and a statement of the volume of purchased water used to calculate the increase in rates. The commission shall approve the filing or establish revised rates by order no later than thirty (30) days after the above documents are filed with it. Prior to or at the time of the first billing of the new rates, the district shall give notice to its customers of the increase.

Section 3. KRS 278.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person, partnership, public or private corporation or combination thereof shall begin the construction of any plant, equipment, property or facility for furnishing to the public any of the services enumerated in KRS 278.010, except retail electric suppliers for service connections to electric-consuming facilities located within its certified territory and ordinary extensions of existing systems in the usual course of business, until such person has obtained from the public service commission a certificate that public convenience and necessity require such construction. Upon the filing of an application for such a certificate, and after any public hearing which the commission may in its discretion conduct for all interested parties, the commission may issue or refuse to issue the certificate, or issue it in part and refuse it in part, except that the commission shall not refuse or modify an application submitted under Section 4 of this Act without consent by the parties to the agreement. Unless exercised within one (1) year from the grant thereof, exclusive of any delay due to the order of any court or failure to obtain any necessary grant or consent, the authority conferred by the issuance of the certificate of convenience and necessity shall be void, but the beginning of any new construction or facility in good faith within the time prescribed by the commission and the prosecution thereof with reasonable diligence shall constitute an exercise of authority under the certificate.

(2) No utility shall exercise any right or privilege under any franchise or permit, after the exercise of that right or privilege has been voluntarily suspended or discontinued for more than one (1) year, without first obtaining from the commission, in the manner provided in subsection (1) of this section, a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing the exercise of that right or privilege.

(3) No utility shall apply for or obtain any franchise, license or permit from any city or other governmental agency until it has obtained from the commission, in the manner provided in subsection (1) of this section, a certificate of convenience and necessity showing that there is a demand and need for the service sought to be rendered.

(4) No person under the jurisdiction of the commission shall acquire or transfer ownership of or control, or the right to control, any utility, by sale of assets, transfer of stock or otherwise, or abandon the same, without prior approval by the commission. The commission shall grant its approval if the person acquiring the utility has the financial, technical, and managerial abilities to provide reasonable service.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 278 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply to any construction project undertaken by a water association, commission, district, or combined water, gas or sewer district formed under KRS Chapter 74 or 273, which project is financed in whole or in part under the terms of an agreement between the water utility and the U.S. farmers home administration or the U.S. department of housing and urban development. Because federal financing of such projects entails prior review and oversight by the federal agency and obligates the utility to certain actions, and because conflicting requirements by the federal agency and the public service commission may place the water utility in an untenable position and delay or jeopardize such projects, it is declared to be the policy of the Commonwealth that such agreements shall be accepted by the public service commission, and that the commission shall not prohibit a water utility from fulfilling its obligations under such an agreement.

(2) No agreement between a water utility and federal agency under this section shall take effect until thirty (30) days after such agreement, together with necessary applications and documentation, is filed with the commission, unless the commission acts within a lesser time. The commission in its administrative regulations shall list the specific documents required to be filed under this subsection.

(3) The commission shall review the project and the agreement, may recommend changes to the utility and the federal agency, but shall not modify or reject any portion of the agreement on its own authority. The commission shall issue a certificate of necessity and convenience and such other orders as may be required to implement the terms of the agreement no later than thirty (30) days after filing.

(4) The commission shall not prohibit the inclusion of any cost or the use of any accounting procedure in reviewing or setting the rates of the utility if such cost or procedure is required as a condition for federal financing of a construction project under an approved agreement between the water utility and federal agency.

The Committee on Judiciary-Civil reported HB 323, with Committee Substitute attached thereto, with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

(b) One (1) or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(2) Each series of a class shall be given a distinguishing designation.

(d) A statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors.

SECTION 35. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued shall be outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or cancelled.

(2) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares shall be subject to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section and to Section 48 of this Act.

(b) Arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders; and

(c) Issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

(2) Each certificate representing scrip shall be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and shall contain the information required by subsection (2) of Section 42 of this Act.

(3) The holder of a fractional share shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip shall not be entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

(4) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including:

(a) That the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

(b) That the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scripholders.

SECTION 37. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation shall be irrevocable for six (6) months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(2) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors shall be uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(3) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation shall be fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(4) If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than twenty (20) days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

(5) A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation shall be a contract between the subscriber and the corporation subject to Section 38 of this Act.

SECTION 38. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting only of an equivalent in money paid or labor done, or property actually received and applied to the purposes for which such corporation was created, and neither labor nor property shall be received in payment of consideration for the issuance of shares at a greater value than the market price at the time such labor was done or property delivered, and all fictitious increase of shares shall be void.

(3) Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors shall determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares in accordance with this section, the shares issued therefor shall be considered fully paid and nonassessable.

(5) The consideration received for the issuance of shares having a par value, to the extent in excess of the par value of such shares, shall be deemed to include consideration paid for the issuance of shares as share dividends, from time to time, with respect to any outstanding shares of that class or series, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act. The consideration received for the issuance of shares without par value shall be deemed to include consideration paid for the issuance of shares as share dividends, from time to time, with respect to any outstanding shares of that class or series, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act. The amount of capital surplus of a corporation immediately prior to the effective date of this Act shall also be deemed to be consideration paid for the issuance of shares, from time to time, as a share dividend within the meaning of this subsection.

(6) To the extent consolidated net income of the corporation or consideration theretofore received by the corporation for the issuance of shares is relied upon for the issuance of a share dividend, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act, the board of directors shall designate some or all of such consolidated net income or existing consideration as the consideration paid for the issuance of such shares as a share dividend, and such designated amount shall thereafter not be included in the amount available under Section 40(1) of this Act as consideration for the issuance of shares as share dividends.

SECTION 39. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares shall not be liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued or specified in the subscription agreement.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder of a corporation shall not be personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation except that he may become personally liable by reason of his own acts or conduct.

SECTION 40. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one (1) or more classes or series to the extent:

(a) The aggregate consideration received by the corporation for the issuance of all shares of such class or series then outstanding includes consideration for the issuance of such shares pro rata, as provided in Section 38(5) of this Act; and/or

(b) The consolidated net income of the corporation, measured either for the current fiscal year or for all prior fiscal years, less the amount of distributions in the form of dividends theretofore paid to share holders, is not less than the consideration determined by the board of directors for the issuance of such shares pro rate.

An issuance of shares under this subsection shall be considered a share dividend.

(2) Shares of one (1) class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless:

(a) The articles of incorporation so authorize;

(b) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue; or

(c) There are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

(3) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, it shall be the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

SECTION 41. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the terms and conditions upon which and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued.

SECTION 42. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this Act or another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders shall be identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

(2) At a minimum each share certificate shall state on its face:

(a) The name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state;

(b) The name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

(3) If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series (and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series) shall be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(4) Each share certificate:

(a) Must be signed (either manually or in facsimile) by two (2) officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors; and

(b) May bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

(5) If the person who signed (either manually or in facsimile) a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate shall nevertheless be valid.

SECTION 43. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization shall not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by subsections (2) and (3) of Section 42 of this Act and, if applicable, Section 44 of this Act.

SECTION 44. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction shall not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares shall be valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and the holder or transferee has actual knowledge of the restriction or its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by subsection (2) of Section 43 of this Act. Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares shall be authorized:

(a) To maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;

(b) To preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law; or

(c) For any other reasonable purpose.

(4) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may without limitation:

(a) Obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(b) Obligate the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) to acquire the restricted shares;

(c) Require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(d) Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

SECTION 45. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A corporation may pay or allow the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares or other securities, and of organizing or reorganizing the corporation, from the consideration received for shares without thereby rendering such shares or other securities not fully paid or assessable.

SECTION 46. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The shareholders of a corporation shall not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except:

(a) To the extent the articles of incorporation so provide; and

(b) To the extent provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights" (or words of similar import) means that the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation shall have a preemptive right granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors, to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them.

(b) A shareholder may waive his preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing shall be irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(c) There shall be no preemptive right with respect to:

1. Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employes of the corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

2. Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employes of the corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

3. Shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six (6) months from the effective date of incorporation; and

4. Shares sold otherwise than for money.

(d) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets shall have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

(e) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets shall have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

(f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one (1) year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of one (1) year shall be subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

(3) For purposes of this section, "shares" include a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

(4) Except to the extent limited or denied by this subsection, shareholders of a corporation that existed on the effective date of this Act whose articles of incorporation did not on the effective date of this Act contain a provision specifically addressing preemptive rights shall have a preemptive right to acquire unissued shares or securities convertible into such shares or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

(a) No preemptive right shall exist:

1. To acquire any shares issued to directors, officers or employes pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan theretofore approved by such a vote of shareholders; or

2. To acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.

(b) Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets shall not be entitled to any preemptive right.

(c) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets shall not be entitled to any preemptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets.

(d) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights shall have no preemptive rights to shares of a class which is identical as to rights except that the class has general voting rights.

(e) The preemptive right shall be only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise such right.

(f) This subsection shall not apply to any class of stock of any corporation after the corporation's articles of incorporation are amended to limit or deny the preemptive rights of any class of its stock.

SECTION 47. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may acquire its own shares and shares so acquired shall constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(2) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares shall be reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective upon amendment of the articles of incorporation.

(3) Articles of amendment may be adopted by the board of directors without shareholder action, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing, and shall set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) The reduction in the number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series; and

(c) The total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, remaining after reduction of the shares.

SECTION 48. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution (other than one involving a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the corporation's shares), it shall be the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) No distribution shall be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus (unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise) the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) of this section either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the effect of a distribution under subsection (3) of this section shall be measured:

(a) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

1. The date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation; or

2. The date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(b) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(c) In all other cases, as of:

1. The date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of authorization; or

(6) A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by a reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(7) Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, shall not be considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (3) of this section if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest shall be treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

2. The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting (or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters), and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

SECTION 52. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in the articles of incorporation, action required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action.

(2) If the articles of incorporation so provide, any action except the election of directors pursuant to Section 64 of this Act required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice except as provided in subsection (7) of this section if the action is taken by shareholders entitled to vote on the action representing not less than eighty percent (80%) (or such higher percentage required by this Act or the articles of incorporation) of the votes entitled to be cast.

the action taken, signed by the shareholders taking the action, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(4) Action taken under this section shall be effective when consents representing the votes necessary to take the action under this section are delivered to the corporation, or upon delivery of the consents representing the necessary votes, as of a different date if specified in the consent.

(5) Any shareholder giving a consent may revoke the consent by a writing received by the corporation prior to the time that consents representing the votes required to take the action under this section have been delivered to the corporation but may not do so thereafter.

(6) A consent signed under this section shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

(7) Prompt notice of the taking of any action by shareholders without a meeting under this section by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those shareholders entitled to vote on the action who have not consented in writing.

(8) If this Act requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by consent of the voting shareholders under this section, the corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders and voting shareholders whose consent is not solicited, written notice of the proposed action at least ten (10) days before the action is taken. The notice shall contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this Act, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

SECTION 53. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting date. (3) Notice of a special meeting shall include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under Section 51 or 55 of this Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting shall be the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice shall not be required to be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under Section 55 of this Act, however, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A shareholder may waive any notice required by this Act, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. (2) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting shall:

(a) Waive objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) Waive objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

SECTION 55. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one (1) or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

(2) A record date fixed under this section shall not be more than seventy (70) days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

(3) A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting shall be effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(4) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

SECTION 56. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare a list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. The list shall be arranged by voting group (and within each voting group by class or series of shares) and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

(2) The shareholders' list shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning five (5) business days before the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder, his agent, or attorney shall be entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of subsection (3) of Section 168 of this Act, to copy the list, during regular business hours and at his expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder, his agent, or attorney shall be entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list shall not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

SECTION 57. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) of this section or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares shall be entitled to vote.

(2) Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation shall not be entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not limit the power of a corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

(4) Redeemable shares shall not be entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

SECTION 58. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A shareholder may vote his shares in person or by proxy.

(2) A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for him by signing an appointment form, either personally or by his attorney-in-fact. For purposes of this section and Section 60 of this Act, a telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proper person, or a photographic, photostatic, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be a sufficient, signed appointment form.

(3) An appointment of a proxy shall be effective when the appointment form is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment shall be valid for eleven (11) months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(4) An appointment of a proxy shall be revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(a) A pledgee;

(b) A person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(c) A creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;

(d) An employe of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; or

(e) A party to a voting agreement created under Section 66 of this Act.

(5) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy shall not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises his authority under the appointment.

(6) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) of this section shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. The revocation of an appointment under this subsection shall not be effective until the secretary of the corporation has received written notice of the revocation.

(7) A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not know of its existence when he acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(8) Subject to Section 60 of this Act and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation shall be entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

(2) The procedure may set forth:

(a) The types of nominees to which it applies;

(b) The rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;

(c) The manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;

(d) The information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(e) The period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and

(f) Other aspects of the rights and duties created.

SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith shall be entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder. For purposes of this section, a telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proper person, or a photographic, photostatic, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing a proxy may be accepted by the corporation if acting in good faith, as a sufficient, signed appointment form.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith shall nevertheless be entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

(a) The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(d) The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(e) Two (2) or more persons are the shareholder as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one (1) of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(3) The corporation shall be entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section shall not be liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section shall be valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

(6) Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by either the president of such corporation or by proxy appointed by him unless the board of directors of such other corporation authorizes another person to vote such shares.

(7) Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

(8) Where shares are held jointly by three (3) or more fiduciaries acting under an instrument becoming effective after June 30, 1946, the will of the majority of such fiduciaries shall control the manner of voting or the giving of a proxy unless the instrument or order appointing the fiduciaries otherwise directs. Where, in any case, fiduciaries are equally divided upon the manner of voting shares jointly held by them, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition filed by any of the fiduciaries, or by any beneficiary, appoint an additional person to act with the fiduciaries in determining the manner in which the shares shall be voted upon the particular questions as to which the fiduciaries are divided.

(9) Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

(10) A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the share so transferred.

SECTION 61. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or this Act provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group shall constitute a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

(2) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it shall be deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

(3) If a quorum exists, action on a matter (other than the election of directors) by a voting group shall be approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this Act require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(4) An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (1) or (3) of this section shall be governed by Section 63 of this Act.

(5) The election of directors shall be governed by Section 64 of this Act.

SECTION 62. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter shall be taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in Section 61 of this Act.

(2) If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting by two (2) or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter shall be taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in Section 61 of this Act. Action may be taken by one (1) voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

SECTION 63. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders (or voting groups of shareholders) than is provided for by this Act.

(2) An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement shall meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect.

SECTION 64. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

At each election for directors each shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to cast, in person or by proxy, as many votes in the aggregate as he shall be entitled to vote under the corporation's articles of incorporation, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at such election; and each shareholder may cast the whole number of votes for one (1) candidate, or distribute such votes among two (2) or more candidates. Such directors shall not be elected in any other manner.

SECTION 65. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) One (1) or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust (which may include anything consistent with its purpose) and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

(2) A voting trust shall become effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name. A voting trust shall be valid for not more than ten (10) years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than ten (10) years each by signing an extension. An extension shall be valid for ten (10) years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee shall deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the corporation's principal office. An extension agreement shall bind only those parties signing it.

SECTION 66. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Two (2) or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 65 of this Act.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section shall be specifically enforceable.

(1) A person shall not commence a proceeding in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless he was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred or unless he became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time. The derivative proceeding shall not be maintained if it appears that the person commencing the proceeding does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders in enforcing the right of the corporation.

(2) A complaint in a proceeding brought in the right of a corporation shall be verified and allege with particularity the demand made, if any, to obtain action by the board of directors and either that the demand was refused or ignored or why he did not make the demand. Whether or not a demand for action was made, if the corporation commences an investigation of the charges made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any proceeding until the investigation is completed.

(3) A proceeding commenced under this section may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interest of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given the shareholders affected.

(4) On termination of the proceeding the court may require the plaintiff to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced without reasonable cause.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on his behalf.

SECTION 68. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, each corporation shall have a board of directors.

(2) All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(3) A corporation having fifty (50) or fewer shareholders may dispense with or limit the authority of a board of directors by describing in its articles of incorporation who will perform some or all of the duties of a board of directors.

SECTION 69. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director shall not be required to be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

SECTION 70. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A board of directors shall consist of one (1) or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(2) If a board of directors has power to fix or change the number of directors, the board may increase or decrease by thirty percent (30%) or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders, but only the shareholders may increase or decrease by more than thirty percent (30%) the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum, by the shareholders or the board of directors. After shares are issued, only the shareholders may change the range for the size of the board or change from a fixed to a variable-range size board or vice versa.

(4) Directors shall be elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under Section 73 of this Act.

SECTION 71. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one (1) or more authorized classes of shares. A class (or classes) of shares entitled to elect one (1) or more directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

SECTION 72. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(3) A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(4) The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy shall expire at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

(5) Despite the expiration of a director's term, he shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

SECTION 73. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If there are nine (9) or more directors, the articles of incorporation may provide for staggering their terms by dividing the total number of directors into (2) or three (3) groups, with each group containing one-half (1/2) or one-third (1/3) of the total, as near as may be. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group shall expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group shall expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, shall expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of two (2) years or three (3) years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

(1) The shareholders may remove one (1) or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him.

(3) A director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him under cumulative voting is voted against his removal.

(4) A director shall be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing him and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

SECTION 76. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(a) The shareholders may fill the vacancy;

(b) The board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group shall be entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

(3) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date (by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under subsection (2) of Section 74 of this Act or otherwise) may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

SECTION 77. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

SECTION 79. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a board of director's meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action shall be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section shall be effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

SECTION 80. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

(1) A director may waive any notice required by this Act, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection (2) of this section, the waiver shall be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting shall waive any required notice to him of the meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

SECTION 82. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors shall consist of:

(3) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present shall be the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(4) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one (1) or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them. Each committee shall have two (2) or more members, who serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it shall be approved by the greater of:

(a) A majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or

(b) The number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under Section 82 of this Act.

(3) Sections 78 to 82 of this Act, which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board of directors, shall apply to committees and their members as well.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the authority of the board of directors under Section 68 of this Act.

(5) A committee shall not, however:

(6) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee shall not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in Section 85 of this Act.

SECTION 84. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable.

SECTION 85. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of a committee:

(a) In good faith;

(b) On an informed basis; and

(c) In a manner he honestly believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) A director shall be considered to discharge his duties on an informed basis if he makes, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, inquiry into the business and affairs of the corporation, or into a particular action to be taken or decision to be made.

(3) In discharging his duties a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) One (1) or more officers or employes of the corporation whom the director honestly believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director honestly believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) A committee of the board of directors of which he is not a member if the director honestly believes the committee merits confidence.

(4) A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (3) of this section unwarranted.

(5) In addition to any other limitation on a director's liability for monetary damages contained in any provision of the corporation's articles of incorporation adopted in accordance with subsection (2)(d) of Section 16 of this Act, any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action as a director, shall not be the basis for monetary damages or injunctive relief unless:

(a) The director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section; and

(b) In the case of an action for monetary damages, the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders.

(6) A person bringing an action for monetary damages under this section shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence the provisions of subsection (5)(a) and (b) of this section, and the burden of proving that the breach or failure to perform was the legal cause of damages suffered by the corporation.

(7) Nothing in this section shall eliminate or limit the liability of any director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when this section becomes effective.

SECTION 86. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A conflict of interest transaction shall be a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction shall not be voidable by the corporation solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction;

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the directors interest were disclosed or known to the share holders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(c) The transaction was fair to the corporation.

(2) For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation shall have an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(a) Another entity in which he has a material financial interest or in which he is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which he is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction shall be considered authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction shall not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum shall be present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction shall not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (1)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(4) For purposes of subsection (1)(b) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction shall be considered authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. Shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (2)(a) of this section, may not be counted in a vote of shareholders to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (1)(b) of this section. The vote of those shares, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this Act. A majority of the shares that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(b) The corporation's board of directors determines that the loan or guarantee benefits the corporation and either approves the specific loan or guarantee or a general plan authorizing loans and guarantees.

(2) The fact that a loan or guarantee is made in violation of this section shall not affect the borrower's liability on the loan or the corporation's liability on the guarantee.

(3) This section shall not apply to loans and guarantees authorized by statute regulating any special class of corporations.

SECTION 88. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In any proceeding commenced under this section, a director shall have all of the defenses ordinarily available to a director.

(a) The officer has breached or failed to perform his duties in compliance with this section; and

(b) In the case of an action for monetary damages, the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders.

(6) A person bringing an action or monetary damages under this section shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence the provisions of subsection (5)(a) and (b) of this section, and the burden of proving that the breach or failure to perform was the legal cause of damages suffered by the corporation.

SECTION 92. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board of directors provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date.

(2) A board of directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

SECTION 93. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A director shall be considered to be serving an employe benefit plan at the corporations request if his duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. "Director" includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include counsel fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employe benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, a corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) He conducted himself in good faith; and

(b) He reasonably believed:

1. In the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests; and

2. In all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and

(c) In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employe benefit plan for a purpose he reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan shall be conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(b)2. of this section.

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not be, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) In connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which he was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

SECTION 96. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(a) The director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 95 of this Act;

(b) The director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct; and

(c) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under Sections 94 to 102 of this Act.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) of this section shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

SECTION 98. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(2) The director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not he met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 95 of this Act or was adjudged liable as described in subsection (4) of Section 95 of this Act, but if he was adjudged so liable his indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

SECTION 99. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation shall not indemnify a director under Section 95 of this Act unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because he has met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 95 of this Act.

(2) The determination shall be made:

(a) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) If a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) of this section, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate), consisting solely of two (2) or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) By special legal counsel:

1. Selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section; or

(d) By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) of this section to select counsel.

(2) To delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(3) To delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office, if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state;

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed amendment on any basis.

SECTION 106. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The renewal application when filed shall renew the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may thereafter qualify as a foreign corporation under the registered name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation thereafter incorporated under this Act or by another foreign corporation thereafter authorized to transact business in this state. The registration shall terminate when the domestic corporation is incorporated or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

(2) If a registered agent changes the street address of his business office, he may change the street address of the registered office of any corporation for which he is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing (either manually or in facsimile) and delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement that complies with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and recites that the corporation has been notified of the change.

SECTION 31. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A registered agent may resign his agency appointment by signing and delivering to the secretary of state for filing the signed original and two (2) exact or conformed copies of a statement of resignation. The statement may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(2) If a corporation has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. Service shall be perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) The date the corporation receives the mail;

(b) The date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the corporation; or

(c) Five (5) days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

(3) This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of serving a corporation.

SECTION 33. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The articles of incorporation shall prescribe the classes of shares and the number of shares of each class that the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one (1) class of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation shall prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class, and, prior to the issuance of shares of a class, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of that class must be described in the articles of incorporation. All shares of a class shall have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same class except to the extent otherwise permitted by Section 34 of this Act.

(2) The articles of incorporation shall authorize:

(a) One (1) or more classes of shares that together have unlimited voting rights; and

(b) One (1) or more classes of shares (which may be the same class or classes as those with voting rights) that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

(3) The articles of incorporation may authorize one (1) or more classes of shares that:

(a) Have special, conditional, or limited voting rights, or no right to vote, except to the extent prohibited by this Act;

(b) Are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation:

1. At the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event;

(c) Entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative; or

(d) Have preference over any other class of shares with respect to distributions, including dividends and distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

(4) The description of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of share classes in subsection (3) of this section shall not be considered exhaustive.

SECTION 34. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors may determine, in whole or in part, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights (within the limits set forth in Section 33 of this Act) of:

(a) Any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class; or

(b) One (1) or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(2) Each series of a class shall be given a distinguishing designation.

(3) All shares of a series shall have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, with those of other series of the same class.

(4) Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section, the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment, which are effective without shareholder action, that set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) The text of the amendment determining the terms of the class or series of shares;

(c) The date it was adopted; and

(d) A statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors.

SECTION 35. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued shall be outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or cancelled.

(2) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares shall be subject to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section and to Section 48 of this Act.

(3) At all times that shares of the corporation are outstanding, one (1) or more shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one (1) or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution shall be outstanding.

SECTION 36. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may:

(a) Issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share;

(b) Arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders; and

(c) Issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

(2) Each certificate representing scrip shall be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and shall contain the information required by subsection (2) of Section 42 of this Act.

(3) The holder of a fractional share shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip shall not be entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

(4) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including:

(a) That the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

(b) That the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scripholders.

SECTION 37. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation shall be irrevocable for six (6) months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(2) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors shall be uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(3) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation shall be fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(4) If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than twenty (20) days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

(5) A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation shall be a contract between the subscriber and the corporation subject to Section 38 of this Act.

SECTION 38. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting only of an equivalent in money paid or labor done, or property actually received and applied to the purposes for which such corporation was created, and neither labor nor property shall be received in payment of consideration for the issuance of shares at a greater value than the market price at the time such labor was done or property delivered, and all fictitious increase of shares shall be void.

(3) Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors shall determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares in accordance with this section, the shares issued therefor shall be considered fully paid and nonassessable.

(5) The consideration received for the issuance of shares having a par value, to the extent in excess of the par value of such shares, shall be deemed to include consideration paid for the issuance of shares as share dividends, from time to time, with respect to any outstanding shares of that class or series, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act. The consideration received for the issuance of shares without par value shall be deemed to include consideration paid for the issuance of shares as share dividends, from time to time, with respect to any outstanding shares of that class or series, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act. The amount of capital surplus of a corporation immediately prior to the effective date of this Act shall also be deemed to be consideration paid for the issuance of shares, from time to time, as a share dividend within the meaning of this subsection.

(6) To the extent consolidated net income of the corporation or consideration theretofore received by the corporation for the issuance of shares is relied upon for the issuance of a share dividend, as provided in Section 40(1) of this Act, the board of directors shall designate some or all of such consolidated net income or existing consideration as the consideration paid for the issuance of such shares as a share dividend, and such designated amount shall thereafter not be included in the amount available under Section 40(1) of this Act as consideration for the issuance of shares as share dividends.

SECTION 39. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares shall not be liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued or specified in the subscription agreement.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder of a corporation shall not be personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation except that he may become personally liable by reason of his own acts or conduct.

SECTION 40. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one (1) or more classes or series to the extent:

(a) The aggregate consideration received by the corporation for the issuance of all shares of such class or series then outstanding includes consideration for the issuance of such shares pro rata, as provided in Section 38(5) of this Act; and/or

(b) The consolidated net income of the corporation, measured either for the current fiscal year or for all prior fiscal years, less the amount of distributions in the form of dividends theretofore paid to share holders, is not less than the consideration determined by the board of directors for the issuance of such shares pro rate.

An issuance of shares under this subsection shall be considered a share dividend.

(2) Shares of one (1) class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless:

(a) The articles of incorporation so authorize;

(b) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue; or

(c) There are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

(3) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, it shall be the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

SECTION 41. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the terms and conditions upon which and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued.

SECTION 42. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this Act or another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders shall be identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

(2) At a minimum each share certificate shall state on its face:

(a) The name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state;

(b) The name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

(3) If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series (and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series) shall be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(4) Each share certificate:

(a) Must be signed (either manually or in facsimile) by two (2) officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors; and

(b) May bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

(5) If the person who signed (either manually or in facsimile) a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate shall nevertheless be valid.

SECTION 43. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization shall not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by subsections (2) and (3) of Section 42 of this Act and, if applicable, Section 44 of this Act.

SECTION 44. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction shall not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares shall be valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and the holder or transferee has actual knowledge of the restriction or its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by subsection (2) of Section 43 of this Act. Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares shall be authorized:

(a) To maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;

(b) To preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law; or

(c) For any other reasonable purpose.

(4) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may without limitation:

(a) Obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(b) Obligate the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) to acquire the restricted shares;

(c) Require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(d) Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

SECTION 45. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A corporation may pay or allow the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares or other securities, and of organizing or reorganizing the corporation, from the consideration received for shares without thereby rendering such shares or other securities not fully paid or assessable.

SECTION 46. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The shareholders of a corporation shall not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except:

(a) To the extent the articles of incorporation so provide; and

(b) To the extent provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights" (or words of similar import) means that the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation shall have a preemptive right granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors, to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them.

(b) A shareholder may waive his preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing shall be irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(c) There shall be no preemptive right with respect to:

1. Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employes of the corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

2. Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employes of the corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

3. Shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six (6) months from the effective date of incorporation; and

4. Shares sold otherwise than for money.

(d) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets shall have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

(e) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets shall have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

(f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one (1) year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of one (1) year shall be subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

(3) For purposes of this section, "shares" include a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

(4) Except to the extent limited or denied by this subsection, shareholders of a corporation that existed on the effective date of this Act whose articles of incorporation did not on the effective date of this Act contain a provision specifically addressing preemptive rights shall have a preemptive right to acquire unissued shares or securities convertible into such shares or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

(a) No preemptive right shall exist:

1. To acquire any shares issued to directors, officers or employes pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan theretofore approved by such a vote of shareholders; or

2. To acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.

(b) Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets shall not be entitled to any preemptive right.

(c) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets shall not be entitled to any preemptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets.

(d) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights shall have no preemptive rights to shares of a class which is identical as to rights except that the class has general voting rights.

(e) The preemptive right shall be only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise such right.

(f) This subsection shall not apply to any class of stock of any corporation after the corporation's articles of incorporation are amended to limit or deny the preemptive rights of any class of its stock.

SECTION 47. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may acquire its own shares and shares so acquired shall constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(2) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares shall be reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective upon amendment of the articles of incorporation.

(3) Articles of amendment may be adopted by the board of directors without shareholder action, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing, and shall set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) The reduction in the number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series; and

(c) The total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, remaining after reduction of the shares.

SECTION 48. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution (other than one involving a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the corporation's shares), it shall be the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) No distribution shall be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus (unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise) the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) of this section either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the effect of a distribution under subsection (3) of this section shall be measured:

(a) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

1. The date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation; or

2. The date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(b) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(c) In all other cases, as of:

1. The date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of authorization; or

2. The date the payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of authorization.

(6) A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by a reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(7) Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, shall not be considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (3) of this section if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest shall be treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

SECTION 49. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

(3) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws shall not affect the validity of any corporate action.

SECTION 50. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(a) On call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(b) If the holders of at least thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) (or such higher or lower percentage as is contained in the articles of incorporation) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation's secretary one (1) or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

(2) If not otherwise fixed under Section 51 or 55 of this Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting shall be the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

(3) Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

(4) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by subsection (3) of Section 53 of this Act may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

SECTION 51. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The circuit court for the county where a corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) On application of any shareholder of the corporation entitled to participate in an annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of six (6) months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or fifteen (15) months after its last annual meeting; or

(b) On application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under Section 50 of this Act, if:

1. Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty (30) days after the date the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary; or

2. The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting (or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters), and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

SECTION 52. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in the articles of incorporation, action required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action.

(2) If the articles of incorporation so provide, any action except the election of directors pursuant to Section 64 of this Act required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice except as provided in subsection (7) of this section if the action is taken by shareholders entitled to vote on the action representing not less than eighty percent (80%) (or such higher percentage required by this Act or the articles of incorporation) of the votes entitled to be cast.

(3) The action taken under this section shall be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by the shareholders taking the action, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(4) Action taken under this section shall be effective when consents representing the votes necessary to take the action under this section are delivered to the corporation, or upon delivery of the consents representing the necessary votes, as of a different date if specified in the consent.

(5) Any shareholder giving a consent may revoke the consent by a writing received by the corporation prior to the time that consents representing the votes required to take the action under this section have been delivered to the corporation but may not do so thereafter.

(6) A consent signed under this section shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

(7) Prompt notice of the taking of any action by shareholders without a meeting under this section by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those shareholders entitled to vote on the action who have not consented in writing.

(8) If this Act requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by consent of the voting shareholders under this section, the corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders and voting shareholders whose consent is not solicited, written notice of the proposed action at least ten (10) days before the action is taken. The notice shall contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this Act, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

SECTION 53. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting date. Unless this Act or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation shall be required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

(2) Unless this Act or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting shall not be required to include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(3) Notice of a special meeting shall include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under Section 51 or 55 of this Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting shall be the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice shall not be required to be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under Section 55 of this Act, however, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A shareholder may waive any notice required by this Act, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver shall be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting shall:

(a) Waive objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and is presented.

SECTION 55. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one (1) or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

(2) A record date fixed under this section shall not be more than seventy (70) days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

(3) A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting shall be effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(4) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

SECTION 56. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare a list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. The list shall be arranged by voting group (and within each voting group by class or series of shares) and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

(2) The shareholders' list shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning five (5) business days before the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder, his agent, or attorney shall be entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of subsection (3) of Section 168 of this Act, to copy the list, during regular business hours and at his expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder, his agent, or attorney shall be entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list shall not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

SECTION 57. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) of this section or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares shall be entitled to vote.

(2) Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation shall not be entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not limit the power of a corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

(4) Redeemable shares shall not be entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

SECTION 58. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A shareholder may vote his shares in person or by proxy.

(2) A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for him by signing an appointment form, either personally or by his attorney-in-fact. For purposes of this section and Section 60 of this Act, a telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proper person, or a photographic, photostatic, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be a sufficient, signed appointment form.

(3) An appointment of a proxy shall be effective when the appointment form is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment shall be valid for eleven (11) months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(4) An appointment of a proxy shall be revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(a) A pledgee;

(b) A person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(c) A creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;

(d) An employe of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; or

(e) A party to a voting agreement created under Section 66 of this Act.

(5) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy shall not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises his authority under the appointment.

(6) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) of this section shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. The revocation of an appointment under this subsection shall not be effective until the secretary of the corporation has received written notice of the revocation.

(7) A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not know of its existence when he acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(8) Subject to Section 60 of this Act and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation shall be entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

(2). The procedure may set forth:

(a) The types of nominees to which it applies;

(b) The rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;

(c) The manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;

(d) The information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(e) The period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and

(f) Other aspects of the rights and duties created.

SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith shall be entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder. For purposes of this section, a telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proper person, or a photographic, photostatic, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing a proxy may be accepted by the corporation if acting in good faith, as a sufficient, signed appointment form.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith shall nevertheless be entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

(a) The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(d) The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(e) Two (2) or more persons are the shareholder as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one (1) of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(3) The corporation shall be entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section shall not be liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section shall be valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

(6) Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by either the president of such corporation or by proxy appointed by him unless the board of directors of such other corporation authorizes another person to vote such shares.

(7) Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

(8) Where shares are held jointly by three (3) or more fiduciaries acting under an instrument becoming effective after June 30, 1946, the will of the majority of such fiduciaries shall control the manner of voting or the giving of a proxy unless the instrument or order appointing the fiduciaries otherwise directs. Where, in any case, fiduciaries are equally divided upon the manner of voting shares jointly held by them, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition filed by any of the fiduciaries, or by any beneficiary, appoint an additional person to act with the fiduciaries in determining the manner in which the shares shall be voted upon the particular questions as to which the fiduciaries are divided.

(9) Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

(10) A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the share so transferred.

SECTION 61. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or this Act provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group shall constitute a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

(2) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it shall be deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

(3) If a quorum exists, action on a matter (other than the election of directors) by a voting group shall be approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this Act require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(4) An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (1) or (3) of this section shall be governed by Section 63 of this Act.

(5) The election of directors shall be governed by Section 64 of this Act.

SECTION 62. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter shall be taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in Section 61 of this Act.

(2) If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting by two (2) or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter shall be taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in Section 61 of this Act. Action may be taken by one (1) voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

SECTION 63. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders (or voting groups of shareholders) than is provided for by this Act.

(2) An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement shall meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect.

SECTION 64. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

At each election for directors each shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to cast, in person or by proxy, as many votes in the aggregate as he shall be entitled to vote under the corporation's articles of incorporation, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at such election; and each shareholder may cast the whole number of votes for one (1) candidate, or distribute such votes among two (2) or more candidates. Such directors shall not be elected in any other manner.

SECTION 65. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) One (1) or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust (which may include anything consistent with its purpose) and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

(2) A voting trust shall become effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name. A voting trust shall be valid for not more than ten (10) years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than ten (10) years each by signing an extension. An extension shall be valid for ten (10) years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee shall deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the corporation's principal office. An extension agreement shall bind only those parties signing it.

SECTION 66. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Two (2) or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 65 of this Act.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section shall be specifically enforceable.

(1) A person shall not commence a proceeding in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless he was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred or unless he became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time. The derivative proceeding shall not be maintained if it appears that the person commencing the proceeding does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders in enforcing the right of the corporation.

(2) A complaint in a proceeding brought in the right of a corporation shall be verified and allege with particularity the demand made, if any, to obtain action by the board of directors and either that the demand was refused or ignored or why he did not make the demand. Whether or not a demand for action was made, if the corporation commences an investigation of the charges made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any proceeding until the investigation is completed.

(3) A proceeding commenced under this section may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interest of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given the shareholders affected.

(4) On termination of the proceeding the court may require the plaintiff to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced without reasonable cause.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on his behalf.

SECTION 68. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, each corporation shall have a board of directors.

(2) All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation.

SECTION 69. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director shall not be required to be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum, by the shareholders or the board of directors. After shares are issued, only the shareholders may change the range for the size of the board or change from a fixed to a variable-range size board or vice versa.

(4) Directors shall be elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under Section 73 of this Act.

SECTION 71. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one (1) or more authorized classes of shares. SECTION 73. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If there are nine (9) or more directors, the articles of incorporation may provide for staggering their terms by dividing the total number of directors into (2) or three (3) groups, with each group containing one-half (1/2) or one-third (1/3) of the total, as near as may be. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group shall expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group shall expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, shall expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. (3) A director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him under cumulative voting is voted against his removal.

(4) A director shall be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing him and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

(c) If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group shall be entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

(3) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date (by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under subsection (2) of Section 74 of this Act or otherwise) may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

SECTION 77. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

SECTION 79. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a board of director's meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action shall be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section shall be effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

SECTION 80. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

Except as provided by subsection (2) of this section, the waiver shall be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting shall waive any required notice to him of the meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

SECTION 82. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(3) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present shall be the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(4) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless:

(a) He objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting;

(b) His dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

(c) He delivers written notice of his dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting. SECTION 83. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one (1) or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them. Each committee shall have two (2) or more members, who serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it shall be approved by the greater of:

(3) In discharging his duties a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) One (1) or more officers or employes of the corporation whom the director honestly believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director honestly believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) A committee of the board of directors of which he is not a member if the director honestly believes the committee merits confidence.

(4) A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (3) of this section unwarranted.

(5) In addition to any other limitation on a director's liability for monetary damages contained in any provision of the corporation's articles of incorporation adopted in accordance with subsection (2)(d) of Section 16 of this Act, any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action as a director, shall not be the basis for monetary damages or injunctive relief unless:

(a) The director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section; and

(b) In the case of an action for monetary damages, the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders.

(6) A person bringing an action for monetary damages under this section shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence the provisions of subsection (5)(a) and (b) of this section, and the burden of proving that the breach or failure to perform was the legal cause of damages suffered by the corporation.

(7) Nothing in this section shall eliminate or limit the liability of any director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when this section becomes effective.

SECTION 86. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A conflict of interest transaction shall be a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction shall not be voidable by the corporation solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction;

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the directors interest were disclosed or known to the share holders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(c) The transaction was fair to the corporation.

(2) For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation shall have an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(a) Another entity in which he has a material financial interest or in which he is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which he is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction shall be considered authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction shall not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum shall be present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction shall not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (1)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(4) For purposes of subsection (1)(b) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction shall be considered authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. Shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (2)(a) of this section, may not be counted in a vote of shareholders to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (1)(b) of this section. The vote of those shares, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this Act. A majority of the shares that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(b) The corporation's board of directors determines that the loan or guarantee benefits the corporation and either approves the specific loan or guarantee or a general plan authorizing loans and guarantees.

"Director" includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include counsel fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employe benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(a) He conducted himself in good faith; and

(b) He reasonably believed:

1. In the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests; and

2. In all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and

(c) In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employe benefit plan for a purpose he reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan shall be conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(b)2. of this section.

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not be, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) In connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which he was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

SECTION 96. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(b) The director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct; and

(c) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under Sections 94 to 102 of this Act.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) of this section shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

SECTION 98. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(2) The director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not he met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 95 of this Act or was adjudged liable as described in subsection (4) of Section 95 of this Act, but if he was adjudged so liable his indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

SECTION 99. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 271A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(2) The determination shall be made:

(a) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) If a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) of this section, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate), consisting solely of two (2) or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) By special legal counsel:

1. Selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section; or

(d) By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) of this section to select counsel.

1. The highest per share price, including any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes and soliciting dealers' fees, paid by the interested shareholder for any shares of such class of stock acquired by it:

the corporation in writing that the interested shareholder disapproves thereof and requests in good faith that the board of directors rectify such act or failure to act.

(e) After the interested shareholder has become an interested shareholder, the interested shareholder may not have received the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial assistance provided by the corporation or any of its subsidiaries, whether in anticipation of or in connection with such business combination or otherwise.

(b) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation may provide that if the board of directors adopts a resolution under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the resolution shall be subject to approval of the shareholders in the manner and by the vote specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Governor Wallace G. Wilkinson

The Executive Budget Address

January 27, 1988

Lt. Governor Jones, Mr. Speaker, distinguished members of the general assembly, Mr. Chief Justice, members of the Supreme Court, honored guests.

Tonight I join you to fulfill my obligation to present the Commonwealth's budget for the next two years. It is a budget that hallmarks a new course for Kentucky.

The fact that I stand delivering this budget on time is testimony to the hard work and efforts of budget director Hable, his Deputies Ron Carson and Bill Hintze, the entire staff of the Governor's Office for Policy and Management, and Executive Director of Investment and Debt Management, Dr. Jim Ramsey.

All my life I've watched Kentucky struggle. I've watched as one Governor after another came to Frankfort with high hopes. We've seen those hopes dimmed by the fiscal realities of a state whose economic base is unable to support our needs. It is an economic base that is continuing to erode day by day, year by year. It's frustrating to watch. It's frustrating to know we can be better. To know we must be better.

Some of our own have given up. Kentucky will never come back, they say, because we've lost our will to fight. Others see the only way out in higher taxes. Higher taxes, they say, will solve our problems.

Both groups are wrong.

Kentuckians haven't lost their will to fight, we're just tired of fighting the same old battles. Kentuckians are tired of struggling. Tired of being behind, Tired of false hopes and empty promises.

We've taxed and taxed and we're still behind. Twenty years ago the sale tax was going to be the answer. And we're still behind. We added the severance tax in the 70's. And we're still behind. We increased the gasoline tax. And we're still behind. We've increased corporate taxes. And we're still behind.

I'm tired of being behind. Kentuckians are tired of being frustrated and they're tired of seeing Kentucky struggle.

We are at a crossroads in Kentucky. On the one hand we can choose the easy road. Easy answers. Easy explanations. Or we can choose the road less traveled and change Kentucky forever.

The old way promises more frustration.

The new way promises hope and new opportunities.

Our reward will be a strong, vibrant Kentucky. The Kentucky that all of us, who have been frustrated in the past, have dreamed about and worked for.

We can take the first steps by adopting the principles of the budget I am presenting tonight.

It was not an easy budget to prepare. But change is never easy. I'm not going to pretend that we can reach our ultimate goal without some sacrifices.

But it is a budget that is fair. It is a budget that reorders our priorities and directs our resources where they are needed the most. It is a budget that provides for the human needs of our people. That allows us to continue our efforts to reform education. That enables us to invest in our future. There are no frills, no luxuries. No conveniences. No extras.

Last week I talked with you about the state of the Commonwealth. I said that it isn't good. You generally agreed with that assessment.

Tonight I am recommending actions to set our priorities straight. I promised you a balanced, but lean budget for the next two years. I said that budget would be fair and would reflect new ways of doing business. I promised no new taxes. The budget I am proposing does all of those things.

This budget embraces the ideas for education and economic development that I've talked about for over 30 months in a straightforward manner.

It is no easy task that we in Kentucky give our new Governors to formulate and introduce a biennial Executive Budget of $14 billion in the first 50 days in office. To do so responsibly takes an enormous commitment of time, energy, and devotion. It is time I spent personally and it is time well spent.

My priorities for the budget are clear.

(1) To bring spending into line with revenue;

(2) To continue good programs without additional taxes; and

(3) To advance new programs and priorities within our existing resources.

That task can be accomplished. It needs to be accomplished for the people and future of Kentucky.

Almost immediately after I took the oath of office I was confronted with a major revenue shortfall in the current fiscal year. The experts I appointed to examine the revenue estimates gave me their professional judgment about them. Their conclusion was that we will be over $53 million short in the General Fund this year alone.

I will remind you that this latest reduction is in addition to three previous downward revisions totaling $250 million in the current biennium. We were following a vicious cycle of dashed hopes and repeated cuts spanning the entire decade and costing the General Fund over $1 billion.

We've balanced the budget for 1988. I have identified where the $53.7 million should come from to bring us back into balance and to ensure that vital services are not affected.

Because of the magnitude of the shortfall and the late date in the fiscal year at which time it was identified, certain actions were taken immediately.

1. Everything was put on the table for review. This is true of all agencies and all funds within the Executive Branch. My review did not spare any "sacred cows" of government and bureaucracy.

2. I directed that the adverse impact on programs and services be minimized and that all essential services be continued.

3. I froze expenditures for discretionary items for travel, for furniture and equipment, and for vehicles. I put a freeze on hiring.

4. I captured savings everywhere I could and not endanger ongoing services.

5. I redirected existing resources from over-funded and under-utilized programs to essential, ongoing programs. It did not seem fair to me that some agencies' programs should be hoarding surpluses at a time when other vital services were imperiled by repeated cutbacks.

6. I used the Budget Reduction Plan enacted by the 1986 General Assembly on a selective basis where it could be done responsibly. I did not and could not use it where the savings were merely illusory.

7. Finally, I sought to change the management philosophy of the Executive Branch to ensure that all Cabinets, Departments, and Agencies would work together in a year of common sacrifice to restore the integrity of the financial base of the Commonwealth.

You will be invited to review and asked to ratify the decisions embodied in this cutback order. I welcome your analysis and attention.

The specific actions taken to cope with the fiscal year 1988 revenue shortfall are as follows:

1. We have captured agency surpluses wherever we found them.

2. We have made the decision to remove the one percent General Fund contingency held by the agencies and universities.

3. We have examined agency funds and stripped the unbudgeted surpluses and carry forwards away.

4. We have avoided employee layoffs, but I am going to ask you to reexamine the legislation passed in 1986 as Senate Bill 340 that ties the hands of every manager in state government on personnel matters. Appropriate safeguards are essential, but this legislation is a straight jacket. You cannot administer a workforce of over 35,000 employees and not have the ability to make critical personnel decisions that any shopkeeper and business person knows are crucial to good, prudent management.

With these actions, we have begun to put our house in order. Essential programs have been neither damaged nor dismantled.

In the next two years we will continue to right ourselves fiscally. The official revenue estimates for the 1988-90 biennium call for General Fund revenues to total $3.263 billion in fiscal 1989 and $3.442 billion in fiscal 1990. These figures do not reflect robust growth by historic standards, but they are realistic and have been properly calculated.

We begin with virtually no surplus money in the new biennium. Moreover, we are spending General Funds at a current rate that exceeds our General Fund revenues by $140 million per year. This has got to stop and it will right now.

For fiscal year 1989 — the year commencing July 1 of 1988 General Fund appropriations will only grow at a rate of 0.6 percent, the lowest growth available in modern Kentucky history. This fact is not well understood by the public or the press. It has occurred because of the availability and subsequent expenditure of what once was a sizable surplus. It has been compounded by the addition of expensive programs to the state budget that have not been fully or properly funded. This too has got to stop.

What this means is simple. General Fund expenditure growth in 1988-90 will be minimal. It means we will have to supplant General Fund expenditures with other funds to the fullest extent we can just as you in the General Assembly did in 1984.

Understand one thing clearly, as we have redirected available dollars and made cuts, we are preserving existing services and funding new education and economic development initiatives. I will not abandon or dismantle the successes in education that were enacted in 1985 and 1986. We will continue to fund those priorities.

Because of the importance of education, especially basic education at the elementary and secondary level, I am recommending to you some new programs and new directions for spending our educational dollar.

The 1988-90 Executive budget charts a new direction for educational policy. For the first time, we are going to focus our resources at the areas of greatest need. To that end, I am recommending that we increase the Power Equalization program by $5 million in fiscal 1989 and another $10 million in fiscal 1990.

The proposed Education budget I am recommending includes over $12 million more in funds for the basic School Foundation program in fiscal year 1989 and over $42 million in new funds in fiscal year 1990. These amounts will allow salaries for school teachers to rise by 2 percent in 1989 and by 5 percent in 1990. In addition, current expenses will increase by over 3 percent in each year.

Although what goes on inside the classroom is the most important element in education there are continuing unmet needs with regard to the construction and renovation of classrooms and related facilities. The recommended Executive Budget includes support for an $80 million bond issue in fiscal 1990 to allow eligible school districts to move forward in meeting these classroom needs.

$20 million is set aside for new construction and expansion in vocational education including a new dormitory at the Kentucky School for the Blind.

We need to better focus vocational education in Kentucky. Once we have done that, these dollars will be targeted to the revitalization and modernization of existing programs and to the development of new high tech centers. The Advanced Technology Center in Bowling Green will be expanded. Other Technology Centers are planned for Northern Kentucky and Jefferson County. Expansions and renovations are also planned for vocational-technical schools in Ashland, Paintsville, Somerset, Hazard, and Madisonville.

The Executive Budget retains the class size reductions that are already in place. It continues free textbooks to school children in grades kindergarten through eighth grade. The longevity teacher pay program has been retained.

In order to retain these initiatives it is necessary to reorder our priorities in educational reform. I am recommending immediate termination of the $300 bonus program and two smaller bonus programs that are low on the list of legitimate education needs for a savings of $15 million a year. These funds have been redirected to the Power Equalization program and the Parent and Child Education program.

My budget will increase funding to the PACE program by $925,000 each fiscal year. This program will help break the cycle of family undereducation and underemployment that is so vicious in Kentucky. This program allows parents who lack a high school diploma and their preschool children to attend classes together in a joint remedial and preventive effort. This is an intensive program that can work to break the cycle of poverty and ignorance inherited by too many Kentuckians. It is long past time for this fundamental change in our focus.

I further recommend a $12 million expansion for new dropout prevention initiatives and a program directed specifically at the needs of Kentucky's lowest 48 performing counties.

We will initiate a program of Benchmark Schools during this biennium with $5 million per year and will commence planning for the school incentive program that will await full funding until the next biennium.

Funding is included at the current level for continued efforts in the campaign to erase illiteracy in our adult population in the Commonwealth. We will not retreat in this effort.

The highest priority in the Executive Budget is elementary and secondary education. We have got to be resourceful and find the necessary funds to continue and build upon the foundations for educational excellence. We have done so, even in these lean times, in this Executive Budget.

The best long-term solution to the problems of underfunding and inadequate resources in Kentucky is a sound, vital economy. I am asking for job creation tools in the Executive Budget. We must be able to intelligently and forcefully move forward without delay on a broad-based job creation program.

The Economic Development program advanced in the Executive Budget calls for a broad array of economic development tools.

I am asking you to approve $40 million in Economic Development Bonds and $10 million in the KDFA Loan Program for the upcoming biennium. There will be no giveaways. Instead we will demand accountability and full return on our investment.

Rural Kentucky, including our hundreds of small communities can only attract economic development when adequate clean water and wastewater treatment facilities are available. Kentucky's need for such infrastructure is immense.

This budget contains a major commitment to essential infrastructure development including direct state bond funds and matching funds to leverage federal dollars. The total commitment to Kentucky's rural infrastructure needs over the next biennium will be approximately $69 million to be administered as a state revolving loan fund in our Finance and Administration Cabinet. $11 million in bonds will be issued to provide the state's share, with a $58 million federal match.

Low interest monies will be made available to Kentucky's small cities and rural areas to provide essential infrastructure. But more importantly, state infrastructure funds will be limited to those projects where direct evidence of immediate or long-term economic development can be demonstrated.

I pledge to you that the state's limited cash resources invested in this program will be strictly applied to deserving economic development oriented projects. We will build and maintain our infrastructure to support our economic development.

A new $25 million State Infrastructure Program will be initiated and supported by revenue bonds, making some 95 million in total dollars available. Local funds will be matched to build water systems, repair dams and develop the community infrastructure that is an essential component of economic development.

One of Kentucky's greatest natural strengths is our central location and extensive navigable waterways. It is also one of our most neglected assets.

I will correct that with your support by recommending $2 million in fiscal year 1989 and $3 million in fiscal year 1990 to assist, promote, and develop local port authorities and river-related industries.

I am also recommending that the Louisville Waterfront Development Commission be funded for the first time ever in the Executive Budget. I am recommending line-item economic development projects in Owensboro for Green River Steel at $3 million and for downtown revitalization for $4.5 million. A $6.5 million appropriation is recommended to continue the Riverfront revitalization in Covington and $2 million is recommended for upgrading Bluegrass Airport in Lexington.

Job training is vital to keeping our good industries and attracting more of them. I have included the $16.8 million pledged to Ford Motor Company and General Electric in the Executive Budget and we will honor that commitment.

I have recommended that we continue to provide the training funds associated with the Toyota project requiring an additional $12.6 million in fiscal year 1989.

I have also recommended an additional $4.3 million each year of the biennium for a customized training program under the Bluegrass State Skills program. This program will provide training designed for the specific needs of expanding industries.

To address the job skill needs of unemployed Kentuckians a new Job Training Certificate program will be initiated in fiscal 1990 with a $3 million appropriation. Job-linked education and vocational education vouchers will be issued to unemployed Kentuckians to pay for a portion of the tuition and expenses associated with training programs. Training Centers will be reimbursed on a performance basis with the total certificate value based upon an individual's progress in the training program and successful job placement.

I am supporting additional funds for industrial development especially small and minority business assistance including $250,000 more per year to promote Kentucky's positive business climate.

At the University of Kentucky I am recommending a $16 million program expansion and facility renovation of the Commerce and Economics Building. One-half of these funds will be raised privately and the rest will be supported by a state revenue bond. This will enable the University to modernize and expand its relationships with Kentucky businesses.

I will continue our foreign offices and support the office of International Marketing.

Agriculture remains a key element of our economic development efforts. We are going to help Kentucky's farm families. For the first time in Kentucky we are going to fund an alfalfa and hay grading and marketing program.

We will increase state support of the brucellosis eradication program to help sell Kentucky cattle.

These programs and recommendations are far-reaching. They recognize that education and economic development are inextricably connected. There is nothing we can do more vital to our citizens, our children, and our communities than to promote and secure decent jobs and better education throughout the Commonwealth.

Every Governor and every Legislator bears a special responsibility for the welfare of underprivileged Kentuckians. The Executive Budget I am recommending will provide for the continuation of all essential human services.

It will concentrate our limited dollars on the special problems of the very young and senior citizens. It recognizes that every Kentuckian deserves adequate prenatal, emergency, and acute care and focuses renewed emphasis on increasing services in the rural counties of Kentucky.

Important improvements are recommended to aid the mentally ill who are institutionalized and the mentally retarded.

For too many years Kentucky has had one of the worst infant mortality rates in the nation. We are going to change that.

The Executive Budget provides an additional $4 million over the next biennium to use as matching funds in Medicaid to expand prenatal services, thus providing with federal funds an additional $14 million over the biennium.

We are recommending an additional $1 million over the biennium to expand comprehensive well child services to Kentucky's children. We cannot allow Kentucky's children to die or suffer life-long disabilities simply because they are poor.

Furthermore, we will increase funds in several vital human services areas.

- $200,000 is directed to expand pediatric services for handicapped children.

- $700,000 is directed to hearing loss prevention programs.

- I am recommending an annual 5 percent increase in Aid to Families with Dependent Children to create almost $30 million in new money for AFDC.

- We are going to enhance our efforts to collect child support payments with more people and a computerized tracking system.

- An additional $1 million is earmarked for day care.

- $500,000 is set aside for rural ambulance services.

We are recommending other increases in human services, particularly those that enhance our preventive health programs.

- $900,000 is directed to mental health services for the elderly.

- Six additional respite centers are proposed for victims of Alzheimer's disease.

- We will direct $1.1 million in local health program funds to Medicaid. This will allow us to add 8 million in federal dollars available for the medically indigent. We have leveraged every federal dollar that we can responsibly find.

- We will open a 34-bed secure psychiatric unit in the Grauman Building of Central State Hospital.

- $1 million is included for additional patient care staff and improvements at the Hazelwood Mental Retardation Hospital.

- Finally $900,000 is included to expand vocational, residential, and in-home services for our mentally retarded citizens.

Perhaps no sector of Kentucky's economy can be as efficiently expanded as our tourism industry. Tourism is an area ripe for expansion. In order to take advantage of our assets, I am recommending an increase of $2 million each year of the new biennium for a comprehensive advertising campaign. I will continue the matching funds advertising program. These initiatives will make Kentucky competitive with the seven surrounding states in tourism promotion.

A number of Parks improvements have been started, but lack adequate funds to bring them to completion. I am recommending that we complete the improvements and expansions currently under design at Jenny Wiley State Park, Greenbo Lake State Park, Natural Bridge, Blue Licks, Kincaid Lake, and Lake Barkley State Resort Park.

In addition, we must continue a high level of maintenance at the state Parks and I will recommend $6.4 million to do just that.

Further, this recommended budget includes:

- $15 million to expand exhibition space at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center.

- $1.2 million for new stalls and facilities at the Kentucky Horse Park.

The proper complement to an effective tourism industry and a high quality of life is a clean and safe environment. We are going to pursue improvements in the quality of our water management program in Kentucky with an additional $1 million in state appropriations each year of the biennium. These funds will be matched by over $300,000 in federal funds and will be focused primarily on groundwater and non-point source pollution.

Additional appropriations totaling over $1,750,000 for the biennium will be made available to maintain full staffing of the surface mining primacy program. All 408 permanent, full-time employee positions are continuing and will bring in nearly $9 million in federal funds in fulfillment of our agreement with the U.S. Office of Surface Mining and the National Wildlife Federation.

The budget I am recommending allows us to move forward with our responsibilities in corrections and will keep us in compliance with the Federal Court Consent Decrees. I will recommend that we complete the new Morgan County Medium Security Institution and add 550 beds at a cost of $28 million. We plan to open the Morgan County Institution in the second year of the biennium and operating and personnel costs have been included for this effort.

In addition, we will need a broad range of bed expansion options to stay ahead of the prison population crisis. To that end, I am recommending $8.1 million to locate and convert an existing facility into a medium security correctional institution.

We also recommend expanding existing facilities with an additional 200 beds at the Northpoint Training Center near Burgin.

The Roederer Farm Center at LaGrange will be converted into a medium security facility, and we will construct a new minimum security unit on the grounds to continue to operate the prison farm.

Certain emergency actions were initiated by the Collins Administration to deal with the Federal Court Order to remove state felons from the Jefferson County Jail. These emergency actions will be continued throughout the new biennium.

We will also continue to comply with all aspects of the Federal Consent Decrees and Federal Court Orders already in place, necessitating $5.9 million in improvements and construction at the Kentucky State Reformatory and PeeWee Valley.

I believe we need to look beyond traditional methods and expensive institutions for the answers to our corrections problems. I have recommended that we contract with a private vendor for the placement of up to 250 minimum security inmates beyond current levels.

I have also included funding for an additional 20 halfway house beds and adequate funds to support pre-release jail beds in five new regional jails scheduled to come on line in the new biennium.

Kentuckians have put a lot of their money and pride into building a strong infrastructure in this Commonwealth. I intend to maintain what we presently have in the proper way and have not included any unnecessary bricks and mortar in my budget recommendation to you.

Beyond the initiatives I have already mentioned there are four major capital construction priorities. In the 1986 Session of the General Assembly you authorized two major projects that, like the Parks projects I mentioned earlier, were for some reason not adequately funded. Two of these projects are the renovation and asbestos abatement at the Health Services Building here in Frankfort and the mechanical and electrical renovation of the Capitol Building and Capital Annex.

I am recommending that we complete these projects with $5 million and $3 million, respectively. I am also recommending an appropriation of $2.5 million in 1990 for site acquisition and final design of a consolidated state laboratory including a new crime lab for the State Police, an environmental lab, new health and communicable disease lab, and, for the state medical examiners program.

Each of these laboratories is presently housed in inadequate, crowded, antiquated, or private facilities that are inappropriate. Each day the conditions in these labs get worse.

The General Assembly's Capital Construction Oversight Committee has recommended construction of this laboratory and it is my belief that if we do not get going with this project, it will be another decade before the matter is properly dealt with.

Meanwhile, we must not endanger our chain of evidence, our criminal investigations, or our environmental and health research.

Our personnel policy for the next biennium must be constrained by the limited funds available. I am therefore recommending that state employees receive a 2 percent increment in fiscal year 1989 and a 5 percent increase in fiscal year 1990. I would like to do more than 2 percent, but fiscal reality dictates otherwise.

Higher Education will receive a total General Fund increase of $4.3 million in fiscal 1989 and $26.7 million in fiscal 1990. Most of the additional funding in fiscal 1989 will cover previously approved debt service, the hospital contract for the University of Louisville, and other previous obligations. In fiscal 1990, Higher Education will receive a 5 percent increase.

In addition, the number one new construction priority of the Community College System will be funded with a new learning center at Ashland Community College costing $4.3 million.

In my Administration the Community College System will have an expanded role in job training and economic development.

The Council on Higher Education's recommendations for capital construction systemwide priorities identified life safety and health-related improvements as the top priority. Therefore, I have recommended a state-supported bond issue for the utility tunnel at Morehead and other improvements at various state universities totaling over $13.2 million.

Finally, it is essential that the Commonwealth be able to act during emergencies and that the credit rating of the Commonwealth be maintained. I am therefore recommending that we continue a Budget Reserve Trust Fund each year of the new biennium. For fiscal 1989 I am recommending $15 million and for fiscal 1990 I will recommend an additional $20 million.

With the prudent and conservative revenue estimates we are making there should be no occasion to cut budgets in the upcoming biennium. Therefore, we will be able to start the 1990-92 biennium with at least $35 million of genuine surplus in the bank. I regard that amount as a minimum that should be maintained.

I am sure that many of you in this Chamber and those watching on T.V. are surprised at the initiatives and programs I have just enumerated.

All that is here is essential. This is the beginning of the road back. This budget can be sustained without a tax increase.

1. We can ensure that the revenue estimates are sound and attainable. We've done that.

2. We must use all existing sources of income in these difficult times. This means what it says — all existing sources of income — and will necessitate the temporary suspension of certain agency fund statutes for the upcoming biennium. This is the same approach, on a greater scale, that the General Assembly adopted for the 1984-86 biennium.

The draft Appropriations bill prepared by the Executive will capture all major sources of excess and unbudgeted agency funds. Carryforwards will be limited to the amounts necessary for cash flow and continuing operations. No compensation to any local police officer or professional firefighter will be affected in any manner by as much as one nickel. But we will take the huge surplus that has accumulated in this fund and dedicate it to the ongoing programs and salaries of state employees and teachers.

We will not touch the agency funds generated by fish and game licenses and the Department of Fish and Wildlife will be able to match all federal funds. But we will take the excess agency fund carryforward generated by investment income and sales of confiscated equipment.

We will capture excess agency funds in the Department of Financial Institutions and the Department of Insurance. No ongoing operations will be affected by taking these surpluses.

3. We can stop waste and take away overpayments that we cannot afford to continue. Specifically, we will not fund vacant positions in the upcoming biennium except under extraordinary circumstances. We will cease to make the overmatch, now pay attention, I said overmatch, to the Kentucky Employees' Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, and the Teachers' Retirement System. No retired employee or teacher will be affected by this decision. I will never allow that to happen. No benefits of anyone will be affected and the actuarial soundness of the program will be ensured by continuing full employer contributions throughout both years of the new biennium. Neither system will be able to go out and independently build or buy a new building, however. Of course, they don't need to. Both systems just acquired new facilities in the current biennium.

My decision to suspend the overmatch provisions of the Teachers' Retirement System over the next biennium will still mean that the state will put over $125 million into the Teachers' Retirement fund out of the General Fund as required as an employer contribution. It will in no way affect the strong status of the fund. Nor will it jeopardize one nickel of payment to any retired teacher as obligated. It reflects my decision that the people of Kentucky cannot afford to overmatch a Teachers' Retirement Fund, which is on sound footing, at the expense of funding employee raises. Funds secured from the suspension of the overmatch of the Teachers' Retirement system and the discontinuance of the overmatch of the Kentucky Employee's Retirement System, which is adequately funded, are the source of the funds which are paying for state employee and teacher's raises over the next biennium. Until I made the decision to suspend the unnecessary overmatch and redirect an approximate $40 million each year of the biennium the upcoming budget included provisions for no state employee or teacher raises the first year of the biennium and only a 3 percent raise the second year of the biennium.

I also call upon both retirement systems to allow an independent actuarial and accounting study to be conducted, to be paid for by the Office of the Governor, to evaluate both funds and to make recommendations. I made this commitment to the workers of Kentucky and the teachers of Kentucky during my campaign and feel it essential to give me adequate information about these funds to make additional decisions and recommendations to the General Assembly in the future.

4. I recommend a tax amnesty and taxpayer compliance program. The Revenue Cabinet has been instructed to give fair warning that the Commonwealth intends to collect all taxes properly owed to it. We will pursue an aggressive and long-term policy to this effect.

Legislation is being prepared to extend a tax amnesty program to all Kentuckians who may have neglected for some reason or failed for any reason to remit their fair taxes on a prompt and timely basis. This olive branch will be extended only briefly and will be followed by a tough tax compliance program. It is conservatively estimated that a tax amnesty program will collect $10 million in fiscal year 1989. The Executive Budget includes $650,000 to develop, publicize, and operate the tax amnesty program. By 1990 this effort should yield $10 million a year in recurring revenues from vigorous enforcement and renewed compliance. The Revenue Cabinet's budget includes nearly $900,000 in additional funds for the development of a centralized tangible property assessment system. This system will provide a tangible complement to the successful intangible property system that was initiated this biennium.

5. We can adopt an accelerated revenue collection program for sales and use taxes, individual withholding taxes, and coal severance taxes. We will implement emergency administrative regulations for the sales and use taxes and individual withholding taxes. We have also drafted legislation to provide for more timely remittance of coal severance taxes.

These efforts will focus only on the largest and most sophisticated taxpayers. Presently, sales and use taxes are collected by companies as much as 50 days before the funds are remitted to the state. By requiring the largest of these companies, those who remit $10,000 or more per month in sales and use taxes, to remit their reports and payments on the 15th and 25th of each month, the Commonwealth will experience a one-time revenue collection of $22 million. Fourteen states have adopted similar tax acceleration programs.

Nineteen states have adopted an accelerated tax collection program for individual income withholding taxes. This change to semi-monthly remittance would affect only Kentucky's 100 largest employers.

Approximately 45 of Kentucky's largest coal operators remit 64 percent of the total coal severance taxes.

By requiring semi-monthly remittance for the few companies, Kentucky will receive an additional $5 million in Coal Severance Tax receipts in fiscal year 1989.

6. We must collect our receivables and other overdue obligations. If the money was advanced in good faith, then we must agree to collect it.

7. We intend to temporarily redirect $35 million a year from the Transportation Cabinet and the Road Fund to the Department of State Police for its enforcement of state traffic and motor vehicle laws. Quite frankly, this is the single action I am most reluctant to take in this balancing of the Executive Budget.

I realize that the Road Fund receipts have recently been called into question by Judicial action in overturning an enactment of the 1986 General Assembly on the decal tax. I wish to state for the record that I will work ardently with you in the General Assembly to ensure that the funds lost from the decal tax are made up in other ways. My staff has been working on draft legislation to provide some alternatives that will stand up to court challenge, to the trucking businesses, and will yield at least the same amount of revenue as the decal did.

I recommend that we honor your legislative sunsetting of the gasohol credit, being careful to protect small Kentucky businesses in the process. We will also need to do more. I am open to suggestion and willing to work hard to see that we have no net loss of income.

Additionally, I am not proposing that any new debt be issued this biennium from the Road Fund until we can solidify its long-range financing. I know you thought that the nickel increase passed in 1986 that was coupled with the decal tax had already accomplished this goal. Unfortunately, the underfunding of the education package and the successful court challenge to the decal by the trucking industry has undermined this goal.

I pledge that the Road Fund diversion will be temporary — for the upcoming biennium only. While I believe it is legitimate to support a portion of the State Police activities from the Road Fund, as has been done in the past by the General Assembly, it is an action I would prefer not to take.

I have had to sacrifice some of my own priorities to make this budget work. I have postponed recommending full funding of almost all of my Kentucky First initiatives proposed in the gubernatorial election campaign. I have been very candid with you about may reluctance to make the recommendation on the Road Fund.

This is a tough budget, but a necessary one. It is fair, responsible, and above all realistic. It retains priorities in elementary and secondary education and economic development. It retains vital human services and enhances others. In short. This is the budget that gets us back on track. That gets us moving again. It calls for a year of common sacrifice for a decade of common sense.

This budget breaks the yoke of the old way in Kentucky. It is good news for those of us who are tired of being frustrated and tired of being behind. We are moving ahead on a new course with vigor and enthusiasm. When we get through, we will see the emergence of a new Kentucky. Stronger — Competitive — Determined — A Kentucky First for a change.

Good Evening.

Representative Stumbo moved that the Joint Session of the House and Senate be dissolved. Agreed.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

The board shall have the power to hear and decide applications for conditional use permits to allow the proper integration into the community of uses which are specifically named in the zoning regulations which may be suitable only in specific locations in the zone only if certain conditions are met:

(1) The board may approve, modify, or deny any application for a conditional use permit. If it approves such permit it may attach necessary conditions such as time limitations, requirements that one or more things be done before the request can be initiated, or conditions of a continuing nature. Any such conditions shall be recorded in the board's minutes and on the conditional use permit, along with a reference to the specific section in the zoning regulation listing the conditional use under consideration. The board shall have power to revoke conditional use permits, or variances for noncompliance with the condition thereof. Furthermore, the board shall have a right of action to compel offending structures or uses removed at the cost of the violator and may have judgment in personam for such cost.

(2) Granting of a conditional use permit does not exempt the applicant from complying with all of the requirements of building, housing and other regulations.

(3) In any case where a conditional use permit has not been exercised within the time limit set by the board, or within one (1) year, if no specific time limit has been set, such conditional use permit shall not revert to its original designation unless there has been a public hearing. "Exercised," as set forth in this section, shall mean that binding contracts for the construction of the main building or other improvement have been let; or in the absence of contracts that the main building or other improvement is under construction to a substantial degree, or that prerequisite conditions involving substantial investment under contract, in development, are completed. When construction is not a part of the use, "exercised" shall mean that the use is in operation in compliance with the conditions as set forth in the permit.

(4) The administrative official shall review all conditional use permits, except those for which all conditions have been permanently satisfied, at least once annually and shall have the power to inspect the land or structure where the conditional use is located in order to ascertain that the landowner is complying with all of the conditions which are listed on the conditional use permit. If the landowner is not complying with all of the conditions listed on the conditional use permit, the administrative official shall report the fact in writing to the chairman of the board of adjustment. The report shall state specifically the manner in which the landowner is not complying with the conditions on the conditional use permit, and a copy of the report shall be furnished to the landowner at the same time that it is furnished to the chairman of the board of adjustment. The board shall hold a hearing on the report within a reasonable time, and notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be furnished to the landowner at least one (1) week prior to the hearing. If the board of adjustment finds that the facts alleged in the report of the administrative official are true and that the landowner has taken no steps to comply with them between the date of the report and the date of the hearing, the board of adjustment may authorize the administrative official to revoke the conditional use permit and take the necessary legal action to cause the termination of the activity on the land which the conditional use permit authorizes.

(5) Once the board of adjustment has completed a conditional use permit and all the conditions required are of such type that they can be completely and permanently satisfied, the administrative official, upon request of the applicant, may, if the facts warrant, make a determination that the conditions have been satisfied, and enter the facts which indicate that the conditions have been satisfied and the conclusion in the margin of the copy of the conditional use permit which is on file [~~with the county clerk, as required in KRS 100.329~~]. Thereafter said use, if it continues to meet the other requirements of the regulations, will be treated as a permitted use.

(6) When an application is made for a conditional use permit for land located within or abutting any residential zoning district, written notice shall be given at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the public hearing on the application to the applicant, administrative official, an owner of every parcel of property adjoining the property to whichthe application applies and such other persons as the local zoning ordinance, regulations or board of adjustment bylaws shall direct. Written notice shall be by first class mail with certification by the board's secretary or other officer that the notice was mailed. It shall be the duty of the applicant to furnish to the board the name and address of an owner of each parcel of property as described in this subsection. Records maintained by the property valuation administrator may be relied upon to determine the identity and address of said owner. In the event such property is in condominium or cooperative forms of ownership, then the person notified by mail shall be the president or chairperson of the owner group which administers property commonly owned by the condominium or cooperative owners.

Section 7. KRS 100.329 is amended to read as follows:

All final plats approved by the planning commission [~~and all variances and conditional use permits approved by the board of adjustments~~] shall be recorded at the expense of the applicant in the office of the county clerk. A copy of all regulations and the official maps of each planning unit shall be filed with the appropriate agency as provided in this chapter or as otherwise provided by law [~~in the office of the county clerk~~]."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 247.234 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No amusement ride or attraction shall be operated at a fair or carnival in this state without a permit of operation issued by the commissioner to the owner or operator of such equipment.

(2) (a) The permit of operation required by this section shall be valid for a period of one (1) year and shall be issued in accordance with regulations promulgated by the commissioner;

(b) The fee for such permit of operation shall be fifty dollars ($50) [~~twenty-five dollars ($25)~~] for each ride or attraction owned or operated in this state;

(c) The applicant shall furnish proof of liability insurance in effect on the operation of each amusement ride or attraction providing coverage, with an insurer authorized to issue such a policy in this state, in the amount of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) due to all bodily injuries or deaths per occurrence, or in lieu thereof, if the applicant's amusement ride or amusement attraction is one (1) that is permanently located or erected on a site in this state, the applicant shall be required only to provide proof of liability insurance in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or proof of financial responsibility in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). Every insurance carrier of such policies shall notify the commissioner at least thirty (30) days prior to cancellation of the policy. In addition to proof of adequate insurance coverage, the applicant shall furnish any other information the commissioner may require, including, but not limited to, written notice of each intended operating site to be received by the commissioner at least fourteen (14) days prior to operation at that site. However, in cases of emergency, notice of a change in future plans may be given to the commissioner by telephone. Insurance requirements for amusement rides and attractions operated at the Kentucky state fair may be adjusted by the commissioner to any amount reasonably necessary to ensure adequate coverage;

(d) Before issuing any permit, the commissioner shall provide for an inspection of each amusement ride or attraction operated in this state. The commission shall designate persons qualified by education or experience, who are capable of determining amusement safety in accordance with regulations adopted pursuant to KRS 247.232 to 247.236 as amusement safety inspectors; and

(3) (a) In addition to a mandatory initial inspection, required in subsection (2)(d) of this section, the commissioner may inspect amusement rides and attractions without notice at any time while operating in this state. There will be no charge for additional inspections in which safety violations are not found and for additional inspections in which safety violations are found and corrected immediately. However, in regard to situations in which safety violations are found that cannot be corrected immediately, the commissioner shall charge an inspection fee in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for any future inspection necessary to determine if that particular amusement ride or attraction complies with accepted standards of safety; or

(b) In regard to situations in which safety violations are found that cannot be corrected immediately, the amusement ride or attraction shall cease to operate in this state by order of the amusement safety inspector. In addition, the amusement safety inspector shall conspicuously post a public notice on or near the amusement ride or attraction. HJR 29, A JOINT RESOLUTION establishing a tobacco museum in Mason County.

WHEREAS, the cultivation, manufacture, and sale of tobacco have played a central role in the history and economy of Kentucky; and

WHEREAS, tobacco is Kentucky's most important cash crop, at the heart of Kentucky agriculture, and the economy of the state, contributing hundreds of millions of dollars in income and tax revenues; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky is the leading producer of burley in the world and a leading manufacturer of tobacco products; and

WHEREAS, tobacco played a major role in the settlement and history of Kentucky, being used ceremonially by the Indians for thousands of years before the coming of our forebearers, encouraging white man's exploration for new land on which to grow the valuable crop, and stimulating agricultural commerce and the development of Kentucky's major cities; and

WHEREAS, Maysville and Mason County are among the earliest and most important centers for the growth, manufacturing, and sale of burley tobacco in Kentucky and tobacco played a central role in Mason County's history; and

WHEREAS, at a time when Kentucky was still a wilderness whose few settlers were struggling to survive against hostile elements, even before Kentucky became a state, in 1785 some of the first burley tobacco was planted near Maysville and in 1787 the first tobacco inspection station and warehouse were established in Northern Kentucky in Mason County; and

WHEREAS, against mighty odds, Mason County's settlers established a major shipping port and center for tobacco growing, manufacturing and sale which is now the second largest loose-leaf burley tobacco market in the world; and

WHEREAS, the creation of a tobacco museum in Mason County would be a fitting and much deserved recognition of these historic facts; and

WHEREAS, the people in Mason County own and will donate many exhibits relating to growth, manufacture, and sale of tobacco throughout the county's history, and people in Mason County will work to procure the land and a facility for the museum;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That there be established the official Kentucky burley tobacco museum celebrating and documenting the contributions of tobacco to the history and economy of the state and the role of Mason County in tobacco's growth, manufacturing, and sale in the state.

Section 2. That the Kentucky burley tobacco museum be located in Mason County, Kentucky.

The Committee on Business Organizations and Professions reported HB 284 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

HB 284, AN ACT relating to cigarette license.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 138.195 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person other than a manufacturer shall acquire cigarettes in this state on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid, nor act as a resident wholesaler, nonresident wholesaler, vending machine operator, sub-jobber, transporter or unclassified acquirer of such cigarettes without first obtaining a license from the cabinet as set out in this section.

(2) Each resident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which cigarette tax evidence is affixed or at which cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid are received. Each nonresident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which evidence of Kentucky cigarette tax is affixed or from where Kentucky cigarette tax is reported and paid. Such a license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(3) Each sub-jobber shall secure a separate license for each place of business from which Kentucky tax-paid cigarettes are made available to retailers, whether such place of business is located within or without this state. Such license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(4) Each vending machine operator shall secure a license for the privilege of dispensing Kentucky tax-paid cigarettes by vending machines. Such license shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each year or portion thereof for which such license is secured. No vending machine shall be operated within this Commonwealth without having prominently affixed thereto the name of its operator, together with the license number assigned to such operator by the cabinet. The cabinet shall prescribe by regulation the manner in which the information shall be affixed to the vending machine.

Such conferee shall thereupon file a report with the secretary together with a recommendation as to the revocation of such license. (1) Notice of the hearing shall be posted conspicuously on the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed for fourteen (14) consecutive days immediately prior to the hearing. Posting shall be as follows:

(a) The sign shall state "zoning change" and the proposed classification change in letters three (3) inches in height. The time, place and date of hearing shall be in letters at least one (1) inch in height; and

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be given at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the hearing by first class mail, with certification by the commission secretary or other officer of the planning commission that the notice was mailed to at least one (1) [~~an~~] owner of every parcel of property adjoining the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed. It shall be the duty of the person or persons proposing the map amendment to furnish to the planning commission the names and addresses of the owners of all adjoining property. Records maintained by the property valuation administrator may be relied upon to determine the identity and address of said owner. In the event such property is in condominium or cooperative forms of ownership, then the person notified by mail shall be the president or chairman of the owner group which administers property commonly owned by the condominium or cooperative owners.

Section 2. KRS 100.214 is amended to read as follows:

When in any planning unit containing any portion of a county containing a city of the first class a hearing is scheduled on a proposal by a property owner to amend any zoning map the following notice shall be given in addition to any other notice required by statute by local regulation or ordinance to be given:

(1) Notice of the hearing shall be posted conspicuously on the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed thirty (30) days immediately prior to the hearing. Posting shall be as follows:

(a) The sign shall state "zoning change" and the proposed classification change in letters three (3) inches in height. The time, place and date of hearing shall be in letters at least one (1) inch in height; and

(b) The sign shall be constructed of durable material and shall state the telephone number of the appropriate zoning commission;

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be given at least thirty (30) days in advance of the hearing by first class mail, with certification by the commission secretary or other officer of the planning commission that the notice was mailed, to at least one (1) [~~an~~] owner of every parcel of property adjoining at any point the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed, to at least one (1) [~~an~~] owner of every parcel of property directly across the street from said property, and to at least one (1) [~~an~~] owner of every parcel of property which adjoins at any point the adjoining property or the property directly across the street from said property; provided, however, that no first-class mail notice, required by this subsection, shall be required to be given to any property owner whose property is more than five hundred (500) feet from the property which is proposed to be changed. It shall be the duty of the person or persons proposing the map amendment to furnish to the planning commission the names and addresses of the owners of all property as described in this subsection. Records maintained by the property valuation administrator may be relied upon to determine the identity and address of said owner. In the event such property is in condominium or cooperative forms of ownership, then the person notified by mail shall be the president or chairman of the owner group which administers property commonly owned by the condominium or cooperative owners;

(3) If the hearing has been scheduled for a time during normal working hours, and if, within fifteen (15) days of the scheduled date of the hearing the planning commission shall receive a petition from two hundred (200) property owners living within the planning unit requesting that the hearing be rescheduled for a time after normal working hours, then the planning commission shall reschedule the hearing for a time after normal working hours on a date no earlier than the date of the original hearing. The planning commission shall then publish notice of the new hearing time and date according to the provisions of KRS 100.211, except that notice shall occur at least seven (7) days prior to the public hearing. The sign required by subsection (1) of this section shall be changed to reflect the new hearing time and date at least seven (7) days prior to the public hearing. The persons who receive mail notice according to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall again be notified in the same manner of the new hearing time and date at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing. The hearing time shall not be changed more than once by the procedures of this section except in the event of intervening emergency which requires the cancellation of a hearing; and

(4) Notice by mail shall include a list of the names and addresses of each person so notified, and a description of the procedure by which those notified can petition for a change in the hearing time.

Section 3. KRS 100.237 is amended to read as follows:

The board shall have the power to hear and decide applications for conditional use permits to allow the proper integration into the community of uses which are specifically named in the zoning regulations which may be suitable only in specific locations in the zone only if certain conditions are met:

(1) The board may approve, modify, or deny any application for a conditional use permit. If it approves such permit it may attach necessary conditions such as time limitations, requirements that one or more things be done before the request can be initiated, or conditions of a continuing nature. Any such conditions shall be recorded in the board's minutes and on the conditional use permit, along with a reference to the specific section in the zoning regulation listing the conditional use under consideration. The board shall have power to revoke conditional use permits, or variances for noncompliance with the condition thereof. Furthermore, the board shall have a right of action to compel offending structures or uses removed at the cost of the violator and may have judgment in personam for such cost.

(2) Granting of a conditional use permit does not exempt the applicant from complying with all of the requirements of building, housing and other regulations.

(3) In any case where a conditional use permit has not been exercised within the time limit set by the board, or within one (1) year, if no specific time limit has been set, such conditional use permit shall not revert to its original designation unless there has been a public hearing. "Exercised," as set forth in this section, shall mean that binding contracts for the construction of the main building or other improvement have been let; or in the absence of contracts that the main building or other improvement is under construction to a substantial degree, or that prerequisite conditions involving substantial investment under contract, in development, are completed. When construction is not a part of the use, "exercised" shall mean that the use is in operation in compliance with the conditions as set forth in the permit.

(4) The administrative official shall review all conditional use permits, except those for which all conditions have been permanently satisfied, at least once annually and shall have the power to inspect the land or structure where the conditional use is located in order to ascertain that the landowner is complying with all of the conditions which are listed on the conditional use permit. If the landowner is not complying with all of the conditions listed on the conditional use permit, the administrative official shall report the fact in writing to the chairman of the board of adjustment. The report shall state specifically the manner in which the landowner is not complying with the conditions on the conditional use permit, and a copy of the report shall be furnished to the landowner at the same time that it is furnished to the chairman of the board of adjustment. The board shall hold a hearing on the report within a reasonable time, and notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be furnished to the landowner at least one (1) week prior to the hearing. If the board of adjustment finds that the facts alleged in the report of the administrative official are true and that the landowner has taken no steps to comply with them between the date of the report and the date of the hearing, the board of adjustment may authorize the administrative official to revoke the conditional use permit and take the necessary legal action to cause the termination of the activity on the land which the conditional use permit authorizes.

(5) Once the board of adjustment has completed a conditional use permit and all the conditions required are of such type that they can be completely and permanently satisfied, the administrative official, upon request of the applicant, may, if the facts warrant, make a determination that the conditions have been satisfied, and enter the facts which indicate that the conditions have been satisfied and the conclusion in the margin of the copy of the conditional use permit which is on file with the county clerk, as required in KRS 100.329. Thereafter said use, if it continues to meet the other requirements of the regulations, will be treated as a permitted use.

(6) When an application is made for a conditional use permit for land located within or abutting any residential zoning district, written notice shall be given at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the public hearing on the application to the applicant, administrative official, at least one (1) [~~an~~] owner of every parcel of property adjoining the property to which the application applies and such other persons as the local zoning ordinance, regulations or board of adjustment bylaws shall direct. Written notice shall be by first class mail with certification by the board's secretary or other officer that the notice was mailed. It shall be the duty of the applicant to furnish to the board the name and address of an owner of each parcel of property as described in this subsection. Records maintained by the property valuation administrator may be relied upon to determine the identity and address of said owner. In the event such property is in condominium or cooperative forms of ownership, then the person notified by mail shall be the president or chairperson of the owner group which administers property commonly owned by the condominium or cooperative owners.

Section 4. KRS 100.243 is amended to read as follows:

Before any variance is granted, the board must find that the granting of the variance will not adversely affect the public health, safety or welfare, will not alter the essential character of the general vicinity, will not cause a hazard or a nuisance to the public, and will not allow an unreasonable circumvention of the requirements of the zoning regulations. In making these findings, the board may consider whether:

(1) The requested variance arises from special circumstances which do not generally apply to land in the general vicinity, or in the same zone;

(2) The strict application of the provisions of the regulation would deprive the applicant of the reasonable use of the land or would create an unnecessary hardship on the applicant; and

(3) The circumstances are the result of actions of the applicant taken subsequent to the adoption of the zoning regulation from which relief is sought. [~~all of the following, which shall be recorded along with any imposed conditions or restrictions in its minutes and records and issued in written form to the applicant to constitute proof of the variance:~~

~~(1) The requested variance arises from special circumstances which do not generally apply to land in the general vicinity, or in the same zone;~~

~~(2) The strict application of the provisions of the regulation would deprive the applicant of a reasonable use of the land or would create an unnecessary hardship on the applicant;~~

~~(3) Such special circumstances are not the result of actions of the applicant taken subsequent to the adoption of the zoning regulation; and~~

~~(4) Reasons that the variance will not adversely affect the public health, safety and welfare, and will~~

~~not alter the essential character of the general vicinity, and will not cause a hazard or a nuisance to the public.~~]

Section 5. KRS 100.277 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All subdivision of land shall receive commission approval.

(2) No person or his agent shall subdivide any land, before securing the approval of the planning commission of a plat designating the areas to be subdivided, and no plat of a subdivision of land within the planning unit jurisdiction shall be recorded by the county clerk until the plat has been approved by the commission and the approval entered thereon in writing by the chairman, secretary, or other duly authorized officer of the commission.

(3) No owner of [~~person owning~~] land composing a subdivision and no person contracting with such owner shall record or cause to be recorded an instrument transferring or agreeing to transfer[~~, or his agent, shall transfer or sell or agree to sell~~] any lot or parcel of land located within a subdivision by reference to, or by exhibition, or by any other use of a plat of such subdivision, before such plat has received final approval of the planning commission and has been recorded. The recording of any such instrument of transfer or agreement to transfer[~~, sale or contract~~] shall be void [~~and shall not be subject to be recorded~~] unless the subdivision plat subsequently receives final approval of the planning commission and is properly recorded, but all rights of all persons [~~such purchaser~~] to damages are hereby preserved. The description of such lot or parcel by metes and bounds in any contract or instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring same shall not exempt the person attempting to transfer from penalties provided or deprive the purchaser of any rights or remedies he may otherwise have.

(4) Any street or other public ground which has been dedicated shall not be accepted for maintenance by the legislative body until it has received final plat approval by the planning commission.

Section 6. KRS 100.324 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All other provisions of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding public utilities operating under the jurisdiction of the public service commission or the department of vehicle regulation or federal power commission, any municipally owned electric system, and common carriers by rail shall not be required to receive the approval of the planning unit for the location or relocation of any of their service facilities. Service facilities include all facilities of such utilities and common carriers by rail other than office space, garage space, and warehouse space and include office space, garage space, and warehouse space when such space is incidental to a service facility. The public service commission and the department of vehicle regulation shall give notice to the planning commission of any planning unit of any hearing which effects locations or relocations of service facilities within that planning unit's jurisdiction.

(2) The nonservice facilities excluded in subsection (1) of this section must be in accordance with the zoning regulations.

(3) Upon the request of the planning commission, the public utilities referred to in this section shall provide the planning commission of the planning unit affected with information concerning service facilities which have been located on and relocated on private property.

(4) Any proposal [~~All proposals~~] for acquisition [~~acquisitions~~] or disposition of land for public facilities, or changes in the character, location or extent of structures or land for public facilities, excluding state and federal highways and public utilities and common carriers by rail mentioned in this section, shall be referred to the commission to be reviewed [~~review it~~] in [~~the~~] light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan, and the commission shall, within sixty (60) days from the date of its receipt, review the project and advise the referring body whether the project is in accordance with the comprehensive plan[~~, and whether it approves or disapproves of the project~~]. If it disapproves of the project, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in writing and make suggestions for changes which will, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan. No permit required for construction or occupancy of such public facilities shall be issued until the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or until the planning commission issues its report, whichever occurs first. [~~A majority of the entire membership of the legislative body may override this disapproval of the commission.~~]

Section 7. KRS 100.347 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person or entity claiming to be injured or aggrieved by any final action of the board of adjustment shall appeal from the action to the circuit court of the county in which the property, which is the subject of the action of the board of adjustment, lies. Such appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) days after the final action of the board. All final actions which have not been appealed within thirty (30) days shall not be subject to judicial review. The board of adjustment shall be a party in any such appeal filed in the circuit court.

(2) Any person or entity claiming to be injured or aggrieved by any final action of the planning commission shall appeal from the final action to the circuit court of the county in which the property, which is the subject of the commission's action, lies. Such appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) days after such action. Such action shall not include the commission's recommendations made to other governmental bodies. All final actions which have not been appealed within thirty (30) days shall not be subject to judicial review. Provided, however, any appeal of a planning commission action granting or denying a variance or conditional use permit authorized by KRS 100.203(5) shall be taken pursuant to this subsection. In such case, the thirty (30) day period for taking an appeal begins to run at the time the legislative body grants or denies the map amendment for the same development. The planning commission shall be a party in any such appeal filed in the circuit court.

(3) Any person or entity claiming to be injured or aggrieved by any final action of the legislative body of any city, county or urban-county government, relating to a map amendment shall appeal from the action to the circuit court of the county in which the property, which is the subject of the map amendment, lies. Such appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) days after the final action of the legislative body. All final actions which have not been appealed within thirty (30) days shall not be subject to judicial review. The legislative body shall be a party in any such appeal filed in the circuit court.

(4) The owner of the subject property and applicants who initiated the proceeding shall be made parties to the appeal. Other persons speaking at the public hearing [~~in favor of the decision being appealed~~] are not required to be made parties to such appeal.

affect the public health, safety or welfare, will not alter the essential character of the general vicinity, will not cause a hazard or a nuisance to the public, and will not allow an unreasonable circumvention of the requirements of the zoning regulations. In making these findings, the board shall consider whether:

(2) If the criteria for involuntary hospitalization are certified by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, the court shall set a preliminary hearing within six (6) [~~five (5)~~] days from the date of arrest (excluding weekends and holidays) to determine if there is probable cause to believe the person should be involuntarily hospitalized.

(5) Prior to the final hearing, the county attorney shall file in the record and serve a copy thereof upon the respondent, a statement setting forth the alleged factual reasons or basis upon which the Commonwealth intends to rely in seeking the involuntary hospitalization of the respondent. The required statement shall be served upon the respondent at the earliest practical time, in any event, sufficiently in advance of the final hearing to permit preparation for the hearing by respondent.

(6) If upon completion of the final hearing, the court finds the person should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order the person hospitalized in a hospital where treatment is available for a period not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days from the date of the court order.

(5)[~~(4)~~] Upon receipt of the petition the court shall examine the petitioner under oath as to the contents of the petition. If the petitioner is a qualified mental health professional, the court may dispense with such examination.

(6)[~~(5)~~] If after reviewing the allegations contained in the petition and examining the petitioner under oath, it appears to the court that there is probable cause to believe the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court may, if the procedures provided in Section 3 of this Act are to be implemented, order the individual to be examined without unnecessary delay by a qualified mental health professional. Following that, the procedures as set forth in Section 3 of this Act shall be carried out. Otherwise, the court shall:

(8)[~~(7)~~] When the court is authorized to issue a warrant for the arrest of the respondent, the court may, in its discretion, issue a summons. A summons so issued shall be directed to the respondent, shall command the respondent to appear at a time and place therein specified where the respondent shall be there examined by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician, and shall command the respondent's appearance at the preliminary hearing. If a respondent who has been summoned fails to appear for such examination or at the preliminary hearing, a warrant may then be issued.

(9)[~~(8)~~] If upon completion of the preliminary hearing, the court finds there is probable cause to believe the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order a final hearing to determine if the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized.

(10)[~~(9)~~] If the court finds there is no probable cause, the proceedings against the respondent shall be dismissed, and the respondent shall be released from any detention.

(11)[~~(10)~~] If upon completion of the final hearing, the court finds the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order the respondent hospitalized in a hospital for a period not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days from the date of the court order or a period not to exceed three hundred and sixty (360) consecutive days from the date of the court order, whatever was the period of time that was requested in the petition.

Section 7. KRS 202A.076 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The preliminary hearing need not be formal and may include the receiving of the qualified mental health professionals' [~~professional's~~] reports as evidence. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses who appear and testify against him. The court may exclude all persons not necessary for the conduct of the hearing. The respondent and his attorney may waive respondent's right to a preliminary hearing.

(2) The final hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental or physical health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses against him. The manner of proceeding and rules of evidence shall be the same as those in any criminal proceeding including the burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Proceedings shall be heard by a judge unless a party requests a jury trial. Neither the respondent nor the respondent's attorney may waive the respondent's right to a final hearing [~~The court shall impanel a jury for the final hearing unless the respondent and his attorney waive respondent's right to a jury trial~~].

Section 8. KRS 202A.081 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Following the preliminary hearing but prior to the completion of [~~pending~~] the final hearing, the court may order the person detained in jail, or in a hospital approved by the secretary for such purpose for the committing judicial district, or released, upon application and agreement of the parties, for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment. A person detained in jail under this section shall be detained therein no more than forty-eight (48) hours.

(2) A hospital shall discharge a patient there detained and notify the court and attorneys of record if any authorized staff physician determines that the patient no longer meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization.

(3) If a patient is discharged by the hospital pursuant to subsection (2), then the proceedings against the patient shall be dismissed.

(4) The release of the person pursuant to subsection (1) for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment does not terminate the proceedings against the person, and the court ordering such release may order the immediate detention of the person at any time with or without notice if the court believes from an affidavit filed with the court that it is to the best interest of the person or others that the person be detained pending the final hearing, which shall be held within twenty-one (21) days of the person's further detention.

(5) If the person is released pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment, the final hearing may be continued for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days, if a provider of outpatient care accepts the respondent for specified outpatient treatment. Community-based outpatient treatment may be ordered for an additional period not to exceed sixty (60) days upon application and agreement of the parties.

Section 9. KRS 202A.181 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An authorized staff physician may release an involuntary patient on convalescent leave status when the physician concludes that the patient would not present a danger or a threat of danger to self or others if provided with continued medical supervision in a less restrictive alternative mode of treatment. Release on convalescent leave status shall include notification to the hospitalizing court. Release on convalescent leave status does not terminate the involuntary hospitalization order and shall include provisions for the development of a treatment plan jointly by the hospital and by a provider of outpatient care for follow-up care by the provider and for the continual monitoring of that patient's condition by the provider [~~a continuing responsibility by the hospital, and will include a plan of treatment by the hospital~~].

(2) The hospital from which such patient is given convalescent leave status may at any time readmit the patient without additional court proceedings. If there is reason to believe that it is to the best interest of the patient to be rehospitalized, the secretary or an authorized staff physician of the hospital may issue an order for the immediate rehospitalization of the patient. Such an order, if not voluntarily complied with, shall upon the endorsement by a judge of any court of the county in which the patient is a resident or is present, authorize any health or police officer to take the patient into custody and transport him to the responsible hospital. Notice of rehospitalization under this section shall be given to the originating court as soon as practicable and simultaneously with the order directing the rehospitalization if possible.

(3) Release on convalescent leave status shall not apply to persons held under hospitalization orders arising out of KRS Chapter 504 [~~criminal charges~~] unless consent of the appropriate court is obtained.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The cabinet may transfer mentally ill or mentally retarded patients between hospitals, between hospitals and forensic psychiatric facilities, between hospitals and mental retardation residential treatment centers, between mental retardation residential treatment centers, and between mental retardation residential treatment centers and forensic psychiatric facilities. A transfer shall be made upon the mutual agreement of the administrative officer, the officer's designated representative or an authorized staff physician of each facility, if the agreement is based upon one (1) of the following findings by the officers, representatives or physicians:

(1) That the transfer will improve the opportunities of the patient to receive care and treatment most likely to be of benefit to the patient;

(2) That the transfer will permit the patient to receive care and treatment in the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment, considering the degree of danger or threat of danger to self or others which the patient presents; or

(3) That the transfer is part of an individual treatment plan which has been reviewed and approved by a court.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a patient undergoing involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis is absent from the hospital without, or in excess of authorization from the hospital staff, the person in charge or that person's designee, may contact the appropriate sheriff or other peace officers who shall take the patient into custody and return the patient to the hospital.

Section 12. KRS 202A.196 is amended to read as follows:

This review committee shall have the authority to review the appropriateness of a patient's individual treatment plan.

(2) Upon the refusal of an involuntary patient to participate in any or all aspects of his treatment plan, the review committee shall examine the appropriateness of the patient's individual treatment plan. Within three (3) days of the refusal, the review committee shall meet with the patient and his counsel or other representative to discuss its [~~their~~] recommendations.

(3) If the patient still refuses to participate in any or all aspects of his individual treatment plan, the hospital may petition the district court for a de novo determination of the appropriateness of the proposed treatment. Within seven (7) days, the court shall conduct a hearing, consistent with the patient's rights to due process of law, and shall utilize the following factors in reaching its determination:

(a) Whether the treatment is necessary to protect [~~other patients or~~] the patient or others [~~himself~~] from harm;

(b) Whether the patient is incapable of giving informed consent to the proposed treatment;

(c) Whether any less restrictive alternative treatment exists; and

(d) Whether the proposed treatment carries any risk of permanent side effects.

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment.

Section 13. KRS 202A.201 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever an inmate of any penal and correctional institution is reported by the staff of that institution to the corrections cabinet as being so mentally ill that he cannot be properly treated with the facilities at the disposal of the staff, the corrections cabinet shall have an examination conducted on such inmate by a physician.

(2) If this examination reveals that the inmate is mentally ill and appropriate treatment cannot be properly carried out in the institution in which he is incarcerated or within the facilities at the disposal of the corrections cabinet, the secretary of the corrections cabinet may then request of the secretary of the cabinet for human resources the inmate's [~~order his~~] transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility. If the secretary of the cabinet for human resources agrees that such a transfer is necessary, the person shall be transferred to a cabinet for human resources facility designated by the secretary of the cabinet for human resources, where the person [~~he~~] shall remain until the staff of the facility which received him advises the secretary of the corrections cabinet that the person's [~~his~~] condition is such [~~has so improved~~] that he may be returned to the institution from which he came, provided that no transfer shall be made to a correctional facility located on the grounds of a state mental hospital. The secretary of the corrections cabinet shall then authorize his return. If the prisoner's sentence expires during his stay in the facility, and he is still in need of involuntary hospitalization, then the staff of the facility shall petition the applicable district court for further involuntary hospitalization of the patient under provisions of this chapter.

(3) Prior to the issuance of an order of transfer and unless the prisoner voluntarily agrees to the transfer, the secretary shall:

(a) Send written notice to the prisoner that a transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility is being considered in sufficient time to permit the prisoner to prepare for the hearing;

(b) Hold a hearing at which time the prisoner is made aware of the evidence being relied upon for the transfer and at which an opportunity to be heard in person and to present documentary evidence is given;

(c) Provide an opportunity at the hearing to the prisoner to present testimony of witnesses and to confront and cross-examine witnesses called by the corrections cabinet, except upon a finding, not arbitrarily made, of good cause for not permitting such presentation;

(d) Provide an independent decisionmaker who has not participated in the request for transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility;

(e) Issue a written statement by the factfinder as to the evidence relied on and the reasons for transferring the prisoner; and

(f) Provide effective and timely notice of all the foregoing rights.

Only in exceptional cases should the delay exceed twelve (12) hours. The judge shall release the individual if no warrant has been taken out. The judge *shall, unless either the court or one (1) of the parties objects, implement the procedures as provided in Section 3 of this Act and order the person to be examined without unnecessary delay by a qualified mental health professional. (2) If the criteria for involuntary hospitalization are certified by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, the court shall set a preliminary hearing within six (6) [~~five (5)~~] days from the date of arrest (excluding weekends and holidays) to determine if there is probable cause to believe the person should be involuntarily hospitalized.

(5) Prior to the final hearing, the county attorney shall file in the record and serve a copy thereof upon the respondent, a statement setting forth the alleged factual reasons or basis upon which the Commonwealth intends to rely in seeking the involuntary hospitalization of the respondent. The required statement shall be served upon the respondent at the earliest practical time, in any event, sufficiently in advance of the final hearing to permit preparation for the hearing by respondent.

(6) If upon completion of the final hearing, the court finds the person should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order the person hospitalized in a hospital where treatment is available for a period not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days from the date of the court order.

Section 5. KRS 202A.051 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Proceedings for sixty (60) days or three hundred sixty (360) days involuntary hospitalization of an individual shall be initiated by the filing of a verified petition in district court.

(g) If the petition seeks a three hundred sixty (360) day involuntary hospitalization of the respondent, the petition shall further set forth that the respondent has been hospitalized in a hospital or a forensic psychiatric facility, for a period of thirty (30) days under the provisions of this chapter or KRS Chapter 504 within the preceding six (6) months.

(5)[~~(4)~~] Upon receipt of the petition the court shall examine the petitioner under oath as to the contents of the petition. If the petitioner is a qualified mental health professional, the court may dispense with such examination.

(6)[~~(5)~~] If after reviewing the allegations contained in the petition and examining the petitioner under oath, it appears to the court that there is probable cause to believe the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall, unless either the court or one (1) of the parties objects, implement the procedures provided in Section 3 of this Act and order the individual to be examined without unnecessary delay by a qualified mental health professional. Following that, the procedures as set forth in Section 3 of this Act shall be carried out. Otherwise, the court shall:

(b) If the respondent is not being presently detained under the provisions of this chapter, the court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the respondent commanding therein that the respondent be examined without unnecessary delay by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician.

(8)[~~(7)~~] When the court is authorized to issue a warrant for the arrest of the respondent, the court may, in its discretion, issue a summons. A summons so issued shall be directed to the respondent, shall command the respondent to appear at a time and place therein specified where the respondent shall be there examined by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician, and shall command the respondent's appearance at the preliminary hearing. If a respondent who has been summoned fails to appear for such examination or at the preliminary hearing, a warrant may then be issued.

(9)[~~(8)~~] If upon completion of the preliminary hearing, the court finds there is probable cause to believe the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order a final hearing to determine if the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized.

(10)[~~(9)~~] If the court finds there is no probable cause, the proceedings against the respondent shall be dismissed, and the respondent shall be released from any detention.

(11)[~~(10)~~] If upon completion of the final hearing, the court finds the respondent should be involuntarily hospitalized, the court shall order the respondent hospitalized in a hospital for a period not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days from the date of the court order or a period not to exceed three hundred and sixty (360) consecutive days from the date of the court order, whatever was the period of time that was requested in the petition.

Section 7. KRS 202A.076 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The preliminary hearing need not be formal and may include the receiving of the qualified mental health professionals' [~~professional's~~] reports as evidence. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses who appear and testify against him. The court may exclude all persons not necessary for the conduct of the hearing. The respondent and his attorney may waive respondent's right to a preliminary hearing.

(2) The final hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental or physical health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses against him. The manner of proceeding and rules of evidence shall be the same as those in any criminal proceeding including the burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Proceedings shall be heard by a judge unless a party requests a jury trial. Neither the respondent nor the respondent's attorney may waive the respondent's right to a final hearing [~~The court shall impanel a jury for the final hearing unless the respondent and his attorney waive respondent's right to a jury trial~~].

Section 8. KRS 202A.081 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Following the preliminary hearing but prior to the completion of [~~pending~~] the final hearing, the court may order the person detained in jail, or in a hospital approved by the secretary for such purpose for the committing judicial district, or released, upon application and agreement of the parties, for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment. A person detained in jail under this section shall be detained therein no more than forty-eight (48) hours.

(2) A hospital shall discharge a patient there detained and notify the court and attorneys of record if any authorized staff physician determines that the patient no longer meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization.

(3) If a patient is discharged by the hospital pursuant to subsection (2), then the proceedings against the patient shall be dismissed.

(4) The release of the person pursuant to subsection (1) for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment does not terminate the proceedings against the person, and the court ordering such release may order the immediate detention of the person at any time with or without notice if the court believes from an affidavit filed with the court that it is to the best interest of the person or others that the person be detained pending the final hearing, which shall be held within twenty-one (21) days of the person's further detention.

(5) If the person is released pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for the purpose of community-based outpatient treatment, the final hearing may be continued for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days, if a provider of outpatient care accepts the respondent for specified outpatient treatment. Community-based outpatient treatment may be ordered for an additional period not to exceed sixty (60) days upon application and agreement of the parties.

Section 9. KRS 202A.181 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An authorized staff physician may release an involuntary patient on convalescent leave status when the physician concludes that the patient would not present a danger or a threat of danger to self or others if provided with continued medical supervision in a less restrictive alternative mode of treatment. Release on convalescent leave status shall include notification to the hospitalizing court. Release on convalescent leave status does not terminate the involuntary hospitalization order and shall include provisions for the development of a treatment plan jointly by the hospital and by a provider of outpatient care for follow-up care by the provider and for the continual monitoring of that patient's condition by the provider [~~a continuing responsibility by the hospital, and will include a plan of treatment by the hospital~~].

(2) The hospital from which such patient is given convalescent leave status may at any time readmit the patient without additional court proceedings. If there is reason to believe that it is to the best interest of the patient to be rehospitalized, the secretary or an authorized staff physician of the hospital may issue an order for the immediate rehospitalization of the patient. Such an order, if not voluntarily complied with, shall upon the endorsement by a judge of any court of the county in which the patient is a resident or is present, authorize any health or police officer to take the patient into custody and transport him to the responsible hospital. Notice of rehospitalization under this section shall be given to the originating court as soon as practicable and simultaneously with the order directing the rehospitalization if possible.

(3) Release on convalescent leave status shall not apply to persons held under hospitalization orders arising out of KRS Chapter 504 [~~criminal charges~~] unless consent of the appropriate court is obtained.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The cabinet may transfer mentally ill or mentally retarded patients between hospitals, between hospitals and forensic psychiatric facilities, between hospitals and mental retardation residential treatment centers, between mental retardation residential treatment centers, and between mental retardation residential treatment centers and forensic psychiatric facilities. A transfer shall be made upon the mutual agreement of the administrative officer, the officer's designated representative or an authorized staff physician of each facility, if the agreement is based upon one (1) of the following findings by the officers, representatives or physicians:

(a) That the transfer will improve the opportunities of the patient to receive care and treatment most likely to be of benefit to the patient;

(b) That the transfer will permit the patient to receive care and treatment in the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment, considering the degree of danger or threat of danger to self or others which the patient presents; or

(c) That the transfer is part of an individual treatment plan which has been reviewed and approved by a court.

(2) The patient or his guardian or designated family member prior to transfer, shall receive notice of said proposed transfer and shall be allowed to challenge the transfer as part of his individual treatment plan under the provisions of KRS 202A.191, 202A.196, and KRS 210.270.

(3) In an emergency situation where the patient presents a danger of serious injury or death to self or others within the institution so as to require immediate transfer to a more secure facility and which condition cannot be treated or resolved within a reasonable period of time in the present facility, the secretary may immediately transfer the patient to a more secure facility while the appeal provisions described in subsection (2) of this Section are being carried out. In this event counsel shall be provided to the patient within three (3) days.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a patient undergoing involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis is absent from the hospital without, or in excess of authorization from the hospital staff, the person in charge or that person's designee, may contact the appropriate sheriff or other peace officers who shall take the patient into custody and return the patient to the hospital.

Section 12. KRS 202A.196 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every hospital approved under the provisions of this chapter shall have a review committee of three (3) qualified mental health professionals appointed by the hospital director. This review committee shall have the authority to review the appropriateness of a patient's individual treatment plan.

(2) Upon the refusal of an involuntary patient to participate in any or all aspects of his treatment plan, the review committee shall examine the appropriateness of the patient's individual treatment plan. Within three (3) days of the refusal, the review committee shall meet with the patient and his counsel or other representative to discuss its [~~their~~] recommendations.

(3) If the patient still refuses to participate in any or all aspects of his individual treatment plan, the hospital may petition the district court for a de novo determination of the appropriateness of the proposed treatment. Within seven (7) days, the court shall conduct a hearing, consistent with the patient's rights to due process of law, and shall utilize the following factors in reaching its determination:

(a) Whether the treatment is necessary to protect [~~other patients or~~] the patient or others [~~himself~~] from harm;

(b) Whether the patient is incapable of giving informed consent to the proposed treatment;

(c) Whether any less restrictive alternative treatment exists; and

(d) Whether the proposed treatment carries any risk of permanent side effects.

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment.

Section 13. KRS 202A.201 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever an inmate of any penal and correctional institution is reported by the staff of that institution to the corrections cabinet as being so mentally ill that he cannot be properly treated with the facilities at the disposal of the staff, the corrections cabinet shall have an examination conducted on such inmate by a physician.

(2) If this examination reveals that the inmate is mentally ill and appropriate treatment cannot be properly carried out in the institution in which he is incarcerated or within the facilities at the disposal of the corrections cabinet, the secretary of the corrections cabinet may then request of the secretary of the cabinet for human resources the inmate's [~~order~~ ~~his~~] transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility. If the secretary of the cabinet for human resources agrees that such a transfer is necessary, the person shall be transferred to a cabinet for human resources facility designated by the secretary of the cabinet for human resources, where the person [~~he~~] shall remain until the staff of the facility which received him advises the secretary of the corrections cabinet that the person's [~~his~~] condition is such [~~has~~ ~~so~~ ~~improved~~] that he may be returned to the institution from which he came, provided that no transfer shall be made to a correctional facility located on the grounds of a state mental hospital. The secretary of the corrections cabinet shall then authorize his return. If the prisoner's sentence expires during his stay in the facility, and he is still in need of involuntary hospitalization, then the staff of the facility shall petition the applicable district court for further involuntary hospitalization of the patient under provisions of this chapter.

(3) Prior to the issuance of an order of transfer and unless the prisoner voluntarily agrees to the transfer, the secretary shall:

(a) Send written notice to the prisoner that a transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility is being considered in sufficient time to permit the prisoner to prepare for the hearing;

(b) Hold a hearing at which time the prisoner is made aware of the evidence being relied upon for the transfer and at which an opportunity to be heard in person and to present documentary evidence is given;

(c) Provide an opportunity at the hearing to the prisoner to present testimony of witnesses and to confront and cross-examine witnesses called by the corrections cabinet, except upon a finding, not arbitrarily made, of good cause for not permitting such presentation;

(d) Provide an independent decisionmaker who has not participated in the request for transfer to a hospital or forensic psychiatric facility;

(e) Issue a written statement by the factfinder as to the evidence relied on and the reasons for transferring the prisoner; and

(f) Provide effective and timely notice of all the foregoing rights.

(4) During the time of the prisoner's stay in a facility his legal status as a prisoner shall remain unchanged until the termination of his sentence. The facility staff shall have no authority to parole, grant permission to visit relatives or friends outside the facility, or discharge the individual unless otherwise agreed to by the corrections cabinet. The time the prisoner spends in the facility shall be counted as a part of the prisoner's sentence.

Section 14. KRS 202B.060 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall adopt rules and regulations for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(1) Rights of mentally retarded residents and their families to be adequately informed as to the individual treatment program of the resident;

(2) Rights of residents and their families to assist in the planning of the treatment program of the resident;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 532.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When an indeterminate term of imprisonment is imposed, the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the corrections cabinet for the term of his sentence and until released in accordance with the law.

(2) When a definite term of imprisonment is imposed, the court shall commit the defendant to the county or city correctional institution or to a regional correctional institution for the term of his sentence and until released in accordance with the law.

(3) When a sentence of death is imposed, the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the corrections cabinet with directions that the sentence be carried out according to law.

(4) Any person convicted of a Class D felony after January 1, 1989, shall serve his term in a county jail unless specifically excluded by subsection (5) of this section.

(5) The state corrections cabinet and the Kentucky jailers association shall jointly develop by September 1, 1988, a classification system, including procedures for review and reclassification, to assess the custody level of all Class D felons. Any revision of policies and procedures shall be approved jointly by the corrections cabinet and the Kentucky jailers association.

(a) Corrections cabinet probation and parole staff shall classify each Class D felon within fourteen (14) days after final sentencing and review classification at a minimum of every six (6) months or with cause.

(b) If the Class D felon is sentenced to a term of imprisonment, he shall serve that term in a county jail unless the classification or reclassification process indicates:

1. That the felon signs a request to serve time in a state prison;

2. That the felon is other than minimum or medium custody;

3. That the felon is an escape risk; or

4. That the felon is dangerous to himself or others.

(6) Class D felons, conditional releasees, and conditional parolees serving their time in a local jail shall be considered state prisoners pursuant to subsection (10) of this section and the corrections cabinet shall pay the jail in the county of conviction a per diem pursuant to KRS 431.215 and a schedule established in the appropriations bill or its workpapers but to be not less than eighteen dollars ($18) per day per person for each prisoner, payment to begin the day of conviction or the day of the entering of a guilty plea and ending the day that the prisoner is released or transferred to a state prison. The state shall not pay more to place a prisoner in a nonjail qualified community center than eighteen dollars ($18) per day unless direct documented costs exceed eighteen dollars ($18) per day.

(7) In the event that a state prisoner for whom payment is being made is not actually confined in the county jail of the county of conviction the county of conviction shall transfer the funds received from the state to the county in which the prisoner is actually being held and such funds shall be placed in the jail budget. In the event that the receiving county is entitled to receive additional funding for state prisoners pursuant to subsection (9) of this section then the receiving county may apply to the state for the additional funds required, if appropriate. No additional charges shall be made either to the state or the sending county by a jail that receives state prisoners.

(8) The state shall pay for all controlled intake prisoners, parole violators, felony probation violators, and shock probation violators held in the county jail an amount that is four dollars ($4) more than the basic fee, plus adjustments allowed by law, than that for Class D felons and prereleasees. The state shall pay the jail the per diem for controlled intake prisoners beginning the day of conviction or the entering of a guilty plea and for parole violators, felony probation violators and shock probation violator from the date they are lodged in the jail. Controlled intake prisoners shall be transferred to a state institution within forty-five (45) days of final sentencing. Parole violators, felony probation violators and shock probation violators shall be transferred within thirty (30) days of their revocation hearing unless they are qualified for the community service program in which case their movement shall be consistent with the community service center program regulations.

(9) In the event that the jail's direct operating costs, excluding capital construction, exceed eighteen dollars ($18) per day, the county jailer may petition the corrections cabinet for an adjustment. If the excess cost is supported, the daily per diem for state prisoners shall be adjusted to the actual cost of operation. The cabinet and the Kentucky jailers association shall jointly develop and agree on administrative regulations governing the calculation of direct costs.

(10) Class D felons serving their time in a local jail shall be considered state prisoners only to the extent that their upkeep is the financial responsibility of the state pursuant to subsection (6) of this section for prisoner state pay and for the purposes of calculating sentence enhancement or reduction pursuant to KRS 532.120.

Section 2. KRS 532.210 is amended to read as follows:

Such petitions may be considered and ruled upon by the sentencing court prior to and throughout the term of the misdemeanant's sentence.

(2) The sentencing judge shall study the record of all persons petitioning for home incarceration and, in his discretion, may:

(a) Cause additional background or character information to be collected or reduced to writing by the county jailer or misdemeanor supervision department;

(b) Conduct hearings on the desirability of granting home incarceration;

(c) Impose on the home incarceree such conditions as are fit, including restitution;

(d) Order that all or a portion of a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail be served under conditions of home incarceration at whatever time or intervals, consecutive or non-consecutive, as the court shall determine. The time actually spent in home incarceration pursuant to this provision shall not exceed six (6) months or the maximum term of imprisonment assessed pursuant to this chapter whichever is the shorter;

(e) Issue warrants for persons when there is reason to believe they have violated the conditions of home incarceration, conduct hearings on such matters, and order reimprisonment in the county jail upon proof of violation; and

(f) Grant final discharge from incarceration.

(3) All home incarcerees shall execute a written agreement with the court setting forth all of the conditions of home incarceration. The order of home incarceration shall incorporate that agreement and order compliance with its terms. The order and agreement shall be transmitted to the supervising authority and to the appropriate jail official.

(4) Time spent in home incarceration under this subsection shall be credited against the maximum term of imprisonment assessed for the defendant pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Home incarcerees shall be under the supervision of the county jailer except in counties containing a city of the first class [~~establishing misdemeanor supervision departments, wherein they shall be under the supervision of such departments~~]. Home incarcerees shall be subject to the decisions of the jailer [~~such authorities~~] during the period of supervision. Fees for supervision or equipment usage shall be paid directly to the county jailer and shall be placed in the jail budget [~~supervising authority~~].

(2) When the judgment imposes a sentence of death or confinement in the penitentiary, the county in which the prisoner is incarcerated shall receive from the state treasury a fee per day beginning on the [~~fifth~~] day of conviction or entering a guilty plea [~~following the day on which judgment was rendered~~] and ending the day that the defendant is delivered to the penitentiary. The fee shall be established by the legislature in the appropriations bill or its workpapers but shall be four dollars ($4) per prisoner per day more than that fee, plus adjustments authorized by law, paid for Class D felons serving their term of imprisonment in county jails. The fee shall be paid to the county treasurer for use for the incarceration of prisoners as provided in KRS 441.025.

Section 4. KRS 441.115 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of raising the level of competence of jailers and jail personnel, the cabinet shall maintain a jail staff training program to provide training for jailers and jail personnel consistent with the standards promulgated pursuant to KRS 441.055 and shall keep records of jailers and jail personnel who satisfactorily complete basic and annual continuing education. A technical [~~curriculum~~] advisory committee composed of jailers, their representatives and recognized professionals in the field of jail administration shall advise the cabinet concerning all aspects of jail administration, personnel, training, and facilities design and equipment and administrative regulations relating thereto [~~the training needs of jailers and jail personnel~~]. The technical advisory committee shall serve without salary. The jail staff training program shall be directed and staffed, in coordination with the governmental services center at Kentucky State University, by knowledgeable persons who have sufficient experience, training and education in jail operations. The corrections cabinet shall not charge a fee for training jailers, their deputies or jailers-elect.

(2) Beginning in August, 1982 each jailer shall receive an expense allowance to help defray the costs of his participation in the jail staff training program. The expense allowance shall be in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) per month payable out of the state treasury. Expense allowance payments shall be discontinued if the jailer fails to satisfactorily complete annual continuing training. Expense allowance payments shall be resumed following a discontinuance for failure to satisfactorily complete basic or annual training only upon the jailer's satisfactory completion of such training.

(3) The allowance authorized in subsections (2) and (4) of this section shall be considered as operating expenses of the jailer's office and shall not be considered as part of his compensation. Jailers shall not be required to keep records verifying the expenditures from the allowance provided by the state.

(4) In order to receive the expense allowance for their first year in office, jailers who have been elected to said office for the first time, shall, before taking office, successfully complete a training program designed for new jailers and conducted by the personnel of the jail staff training program. This provision shall not apply if the jailer-elect is ill and unable to complete such training before taking office. In such cases, the jailer-elect shall successfully complete a new jailer training program during his first year in office in order to receive the expense allowance. The county or urban-county government in which the jailer-elect serves shall pay out of the jail budget, once he takes office, all necessary and reasonable travel expenses incurred by the jailer-elect in attending the new jailer training program.

A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society and not as an award of clemency, and it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner shall be placed on parole only when arrangements have been made for his proper employment or for his maintenance and care, and when the board believes he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law abiding citizen.

(3) The board shall adopt rules or regulations with respect to the eligibility of prisoners for parole, the conduct of parole and parole revocation hearings, or conditions to be imposed upon parolees. The notice shall include the time, date and place of the hearing provided for in this subsection, and the name and address of a person to write in the event the recipient of the notice desires to attend the hearing or to submit written comments.

(6) Persons receiving notice as provided for in subsection (5) of this section may submit written comments to the board upon all issues relating to the parole of the prisoner. The board shall read and consider all such comments prior to making its parole decision, provided they are received by the board not less than seven (7) days before the date for the hearing. The board shall retain all such comments in the prisoner's permanent parole board file and shall consider them in conjunction with any subsequent parole decisions

(8) Except as specifically set forth in this section, nothing in this section shall be deemed to expand or abridge any existing rights of persons to contact and communicate with the parole board or any of its members, agents or employes.

(9) The unintentional failure by the parole board or any of its members, agents or employes or by a commonwealth attorney or any of his agents or employes to comply with any of the provisions of subsections (5), (6) and (7) of this section shall not affect the validity of any parole decision or give rise to any right or cause of action by the crime victim, the prisoner or any other person.

(10) No eligible sexual offender within the meaning of KRS 197.400 to 197.440 shall be granted parole unless he has successfully completed the sexual offender treatment program.

This subsection shall not apply to:

(a) A vehicle that has been disabled on the right-of-way of such a highway in such a manner and to such extent that it is impossible to avoid the occupation of the shoulder of a state-maintained highway or impracticable to remove it from the shoulder of the highway until repairs have been made or sufficient help obtained for its removal. In no event shall a disabled vehicle remain on the shoulder of a state-maintained highway for twenty-four (24) hours or more;

As soon as practicable, the police officer's enforcement agency shall notify the owner by mail that the vehicle was illegally upon public property; the name and address of the storage facility where the vehicle is located; that removal of the vehicle from the storage facility will involve payment of towing and storage charges; and that the vehicle may be sold pursuant to the provisions of KRS 376.275 if not claimed within sixty (60) days. No notification shall be required if ownership cannot be determined. In the event of a sale pursuant to KRS 376.275, the state shall receive any proceeds after the satisfaction of all liens placed on the vehicle.

(3) No vehicle shall be parked, stopped, or allowed to stand on the shoulders of any toll road, interstate highway, or other fully controlled access highway, including ramps thereto, nor shall any vehicle registered at a gross weight of over forty-four thousand (44,000) pounds be parked, stopped or allowed to stand on the shoulders of any state maintained highway except that in the case of emergency, vehicles shall be permitted to stop on the shoulders to the right of the traveled way with all wheels and projecting parts of the vehicles,
